CONSTITUTION

1. This association shall be known as "Little River Baptist Association."

2. The object of this association shall be the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ, and the means of accomplishing this shall be in strict conformity with the principles of the New Testament.

3. The association shall have no authority over the internal right of any church belonging to it and shall act only as an advisory council.

4. The association shall be composed of messengers chosen by the churches connected with it, each church being entitled to five messengers, plus one additional messenger for each one hundred members or fraction thereof. Ordained ministers having oversight of the churches in the association, or having their membership in these churches, shall be received as messengers.

5. A quorum shall consist of messengers from a majority of the churches of the association.

6. The messengers from each church to the annual meeting of the association shall bear a letter certifying their appointment and giving an account of the condition of the church and a statement of all funds contributed for local and benevolent purposes.

7. The officers of the association shall be a moderator, a vice-moderator, a clerk, and a treasurer, who shall be chosen annually from the messengers composing the association, and shall continue in office until their successors are elected. The term of the office of the moderator shall begin at the conclusion of the session at which he is elected and continue until the close of the next annual session.

OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES

8. General Officers and Associational Missionary

a. Moderator—The moderator shall preside over all sessions of the association and the executive committee, preserve order, appoint all committees not otherwise provided for and exercise all other duties of a presiding officer according to the principle of parliamentary usage; he shall also, as far as his private duties permit, visit and communicate with the churches between sessions to promote and encourage the spirit of cooperation and Christian fellowship. The moderator shall be ineligible for more than two one-year terms in succession.

b. Vice-Moderator—The vice-moderator shall assist the moderator and discharge the duties of the moderator in his absence.

c. Clerk—It shall be the duty of the clerk to keep a faithful record of the proceedings of the body, and use all diligence in having same printed and distributed to the churches as soon as possible; to mail to the church clerks forms for the annual letters, and to keep on hand the printed minutes and other important documents belonging to the body. He shall make an annual report to the association.

d. Treasurer—It shall be the duty of the treasurer to receive all funds sent by the churches or collected during the session of this body and to disburse the same for the objects stated. He shall present a report on all funds received and disbursed by him quarterly to the executive committee and at each annual session. The treasurer shall be bonded at an amount of not less than $1,000.00. The books of the treasurer shall be audited at the close of each year at the direction of the Finance Committee.

e. Associational Missionary—It shall be the duty of the Associational Missionary:

(1) To work with and promote the Sunday School, Training Union, Brotherhood, Woman's Missionary Union, Music and Evangelism through a strong associational program.

(2) Work with all churches of the association with the purpose of strengthening the work in each and especially the smaller churches.

(3) Counsel with all churches of the association, where churches desire, in regard to securing pastors, forming church fields, building pastors' homes, retirement, adequate salaries, etc.

(4) Be a counselor and brother to the pastors of the association.

(5) Lead in surveying new areas, and setting up new work, and direct the missions program of the association.

(6) Visit in all the churches each year and preach when invited to do so, to supply in the churches as the pastors invite him to do so.

(7) Seek to find and enlist the strongest leaders in the associational program.

(8) Promote teaching and training courses in the local churches and on an associational-wide basis.

(9) Encourage cooperation with the denominational program in the association and the churches.

(10) Supervise such special efforts as deacon schools, enlargement campaigns and simultaneous efforts.

(11) Be on the alert for soul-winning opportunities at all times.

(12) To develop work where not in existence, to coordinate work between churches and organizations, to find and develop leadership to keep our work in line with state and southwide work, and to assemble and distribute information pertaining to our associational program.

9. Associational Officers:

a. Sunday School Superintendent—It shall be the duty of the Associational Sunday School Superintendent to plan and promote the total program of the Sunday School within the bounds of the association with special emphasis on better trained teachers and officers, more and better Vacation Bible Schools, and a wider participation in January Bible Study and Sunday School Preparation Week. He shall make a quarterly report to the Executive Committee and an annual report to the association.

b. Training Union Director—It shall be the duty of the Associational Training Union Director to plan and promote the total Training Union program within the bounds of the association using the special emphasis listed in the Training Union Calendar. He shall make a quarterly report to the Executive Committee and an annual report to the association.

c. Brotherhood President—It shall be the duty of the Associational Brotherhood President to promote the total Brotherhood program with special emphasis on enlisting more laymen in the support of the total church program. He shall make a quarterly report to the Executive Committee and an annual report to the association.

d. Woman's Missionary Union President—It shall be the duty of the Woman's Missionary President to plan and promote the work of Woman's Missionary Union work within the bounds of the association with special emphasis on the special weeks of prayer and the enlistment and training of youth in the support of the total missionary effort of the church. Make a quarterly report to the executive committee and an annual report to the association.

e. Music Director—It shall be the duty of the Associational Music Director to plan and direct the music for all the meetings of the association. He shall seek to stimulate interest in good church music through clinics, study courses, music schools, hymn sings, in the churches and in association-wide efforts. Make a quarterly report to the executive committee and an annual report to the association.

f. Chairman of Evangelism—The Chairman of Evangelism shall promote a vigorous program of evangelism throughout the association, using materials, suggestions, and programs of our state and Southern Baptist Department of Evangelism where possible. He shall upon request, assist churches desiring his help in securing evangelists for revival meetings. He shall plan and direct simultaneous evangelistic efforts in the association when desired. Make an annual report to the association.

10. Committees:

a. Nominating Committee—The Nominating Committee shall be composed of three (3) members, appointed by the moderator at the annual session to nominate all officers of the association except as otherwise provided for in the constitution. This committee shall submit the name of Sunday School Superintendent, Training Union Director, Brotherhood President, and WMU President to the executive committee for approval at its July meeting in order that they may assist the nominating committee in an advisory capacity in nominating a full slate of organizational officers.

b. Program Committee—The Program Committee composed of not less than three (3) members shall be appointed by the moderator at the annual session to plan the program for the next annual meeting of the association. The committee shall make sure that those who are to make reports and others appearing on the program are notified well in advance of the meeting so they will have ample time to make preparation for such. The committee shall prepare tentative copies of the program to be distributed among the churches and to those appearing on the program prior to the annual meeting.

c. Resolutions Committee—Composed of three (3) members, appointed by the moderator, at the beginning of the first session of the annual meeting, shall draw up and present to the association, resolutions of appreciation and any other resolutions it may deem expedient.

d. Place and Preacher Committee—Composed of three (3) members appointed by the moderator at the beginning of the first session of the annual meeting, shall receive or solicit invitations for the place or places of meeting for the next annual meeting of the association, and shall recommend the place or places. It shall also recommend the preacher and alternate for the Missionary and Doctrinal sermons which shall be given one on the first day and the other on the second day to be alternated from year to year.

e. Missions Committee—Composed of the following associational officers: Sunday School Superintendent, Training Union Director, Woman's Missionary Union President, Brotherhood President, Chairman of Evangelism, Treasurer, and Moderator. This committee shall work with the missionary in promoting the work of the association, and lead and assist in organizing new churches and in beginning new mission stations. If such advice is sought it shall advise any group seeking to organize a new church. It shall also seek to help any member church desiring assistance with its problems. This committee shall receive applications from churches desiring to join the association and make recommendations to the association. When without a missionary, this committee shall seek out and recommend to the association, or its executive committee, for electing a new missionary.

f. Evangelism Committee—Composed of the heads of the associational organizations and the Chairman of Evangelism, shall promote the work of evangelism in the association in cooperation with the association and the State Department of Evangelism. All plans and programs to be subject to the approval of the association or its executive committee.

g. Finance Committee—Composed of three (3) members including the Treasurer, shall study the association's financial needs for an adequate program, present a budget to the association for the following year, devise plans for securing the cooperation of the churches in raising funds to meet the budget, and make a written report to the annual meeting. In the event that the treasurer cannot fulfill his duties, the chairman shall be empowered to act and sign checks until such time as a new treasurer is secured.

h. Ordination Committee—Composed of the Moderator and four (4) other members, shall when requested by a member church, assist with the examination and ordination of a candidate for the Gospel Ministry. Each candidate shall be examined as to his Christian experience, call to and preparation for the ministry, doctrinal beliefs, and attitude toward our denomination and its program.

i. Constitution and Policy Committee—Composed of three (3) members, shall be available to study any changes or revisions in the Constitution, and to make recommendations as needed to keep the Constitution in line with the policies and programs of the association.

j. Calendar Committee—Composed of the heads of the associational organizations, the Chairman of Evangelism, and Missionary, shall work out as soon as possible each year an associational calendar for the coming year and present same to the executive committee for adoption.

k. Standing Committee—Composed of Chairman of Christian Literature, Chairman on Baptist Hospital, Chairman on World Missions, Chairman on Social Service and Civic Righteousness, Chairman on Christian Education, Chairman on American Bible Society, Chairman on Children's Homes, Chairman on Homes for Aging, Chairman on Ministers' Retirement, Chairman on Evangelism, and Chairman on Memorials. Their duties shall consist of communicating (personal visitation if possible), and promoting through the churches of the association the work of each institution or agency they represent. They shall make an annual report to the association.

11. The Executive Board or Committee shall be composed of all associational officers, the associational missionary (ex-officio), each active pastor, one lay member chosen by each member church from its membership and certified to the association in its annual report, and chairmen of all standing committees of the association. The executive board or committee shall have the authority to act for the association between sessions, except as limited by the constitution. It shall be the duty of this board or committee to meet quarterly, and to make reports and recommendations to the association at its annual meeting.

12. The association shall hold an annual meeting commencing on Tuesday after the fourth Sunday in October.

13. A meeting of the association may be called by the moderator at any time by the consent of five members of the executive committee. Each church shall be notified of such a meeting in time to send messengers.

14. This association shall have the right to exclude from its membership any church that departs from New Testament principles.

15. Any church desiring to become a member of this association may make application through the Missions Committee of the association. This application must be made at least one month prior to the annual meeting of the association. The church, upon the recommendation of the Missions Committee, shall be received under the watchcare of the association for one year. In the interim the Missions Committee shall examine the doctrine of the church and the church's acceptance of Baptist witness.

16. The association may invite visitors to seats and extend to them all the privileges of the messengers except that of voting.

17. By appointment, at each annual meeting, an introductory sermon or address on missions shall be delivered.

18. This constitution may be amended at any annual session, by a vote of two-thirds of the messengers present, provided that notice shall be given in the morning of the day on which such motion will be presented.

19. The association shall elect three trustees from the members composing the association, who shall serve with the moderator, as the trustees of the Little River Baptist Association, and whose duty it shall be to take and hold title to the property, both real and personal, owned by the association. The term of office of the trustees so elected shall continue until their successors are elected or until they shall be removed or deceased. The moderator of the association shall serve as a trustee until such time as his successor is elected and qualified.

PROGRAM COMMITTEE:

LEWIS BEAL, CHAIRMAN; MRS. D. B. ANDREWS, EMORY HOLDEN

PROCEEDINGS

1. The Ninety-first Annual Session of the Little River Baptist Association opened at 7:00 p. m., October 25, 1966, in the Rawls Baptist Church, Route 2, Fuquay-Varina. The Associational Choir, led by Rev. Charles Stafford, Minister of Friendship Baptist Church, Bunnlevel, sang "Grace Greater Than Our Sin" and "God of Grace and God of Glory." The Associational was accompanied by Mrs. Peggy Hubbard at the piano. The congregation, led by Rev. Charles Stafford, sang.

2. The moderator called the session to order and recognized Rev. John Joyner of the Kennebec Baptist Church, Kennebec, for scripture and the opening prayer. The moderator then recognized Rev. Charles Stevens of Rawls Baptist Church who welcomed the association to Rawls Baptist Church.

3. The moderator recognized the clerk who called the role of churches. A motion that the members of the association now present and those later reporting, constitute the Ninety-first Annual Session of the Little River Baptist Association was properly made. The motion was seconded and passed.

4. The moderator recognized Rev. Lewis Beal of the Angier Baptist Church who presented the order of business to be followed by the Annual Session and moved that the said order of business be adopted. Rev. Don Bowen of Lillington Baptist Church seconded the motion which was properly passed by the association.

5. The moderator recognized the associational missionary, Julius Holloway, for the purpose of recognizing new pastors in the association. The moderator also recognized Mr. Marse Grant, editor of the Biblical Recorder, as a guest at the Annual Meeting.

6. The moderator, Rev. Walter Gentry, appointed the following committees:

NOMINATING COMMITTEE:
Charles Stafford, Chairman
Floyd Enzor
Douglas Farmer

PROGRAM COMMITTEE:
Everette Marion, Chairman
Howard Beard
John Joyner

RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE:
Roger Patterson, Chairman
Jean Beal
E. Weldon Johnson

PLACE AND PREACHER COMMITTEE:
Mrs. Wesley McLeod, Chairman
Mrs. Hubert Byrd
W. F. Howard

7. The moderator called on Rev. Julius Holloway who presented the Report on Christian Education, which was adopted as follows:

REPORT ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

It really appears to us that unnecessary and avoidable ignorance is sinful, and that extreme illiteracy is fearfully dangerous.

The sun lights up our world, education lights up our minds; take away either, then darkness, ruinous and destructive, will inevitably follow. Let us arise from our negligence in this matter and put forth our most earnest efforts to secure to the present and rising generation the benefits of a good education.

Yours,

H. W. Graham, J. W. Collins, J. A. Campbell

The above Report on Education was taken from the minutes of the Eighth Annual Session of the Little River Baptist Association held November 1, 2, 3, and 4, 1883.

We can see from this report that Christian education was neglected then as it is today. But it was because these men saw the need for Christian education that North Carolina has led the field in establishing the schools to meet the needs of our denomination and students. From these schools North Carolina has produced giants who have led in the development of education and missions and in the training of ministers to preach God's word. We owe them a great debt. Gratitude is not enough for what they have done. There is more, much more that we must do. We must support our schools with the same enthusiasm as we do the Lottie Moon Christmas offering if the schools are to do the job expected of them. We know the work, prayers and sacrifice given to this offering. We should double our efforts toward the support of our school. For without our schools how can we train missionaries, ministers, Christian teachers, and Christian businessmen? What good would the Lottie Moon offering do if we did not have trained missionaries? We should always support missions but not at the neglect of our schools.

Elementary and secondary teachers trained in a Christian school atmosphere is one of the greatest needs in our public school system where our children are taught. Our schools can with the support of North Carolina Baptists meet this need.

Respectfully submitted,
James D. Sistrunk

8. The moderator recognized Mrs. Betty Creech who presented the Christian Literature Report, which was adopted as follows:

CHRISTIAN LITERATURE REPORT

There should be some Christian literature in every home. But it must be used to do any good. So often we see the Bible, the greatest book, collecting dust. It should be used, read and studied daily.

North Carolina Baptists have a state paper, the Biblical Recorder. This should be in every Baptist home. It has good reading for the youngest to the oldest. It is published in Raleigh and has information about our Baptist work in North Carolina and other places also.

Another North Carolina Baptist paper is Charity and Children which has information about our child care institutions.

Other good pieces of Christian literature are: The Commission, our foreign missions magazine; Home Missions, our home missions magazine; Home Life is a good family magazine; Sunbeam Activity for leaders of children up to eight; Tales for Girls, 9-16; Window for young unmarried people, 16-24; Royal Service for adult women. We also have materials for men and boys about missions; then there is the Sunday School and Training Union lesson study helps and many good tracts for the asking.

We Baptists have a lot of good Christian literature. If we will spend our time reading it we would know more about how to live a Christian life. We encourage ourselves and our young people to read more of the Christian literature that we may be better Christians, especially the Bible, God's Holy Word. God bless us all.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Betty Creech

9. The moderator recognized Mr. Marse Grant, editor of the Biblical Recorder, who presented an interesting talk entitled "Mass Media".

10. Special music entitled "Great Is Thy Faithfulness" was presented by the Associational Choir under the direction of Rev. Charles Stafford.

11. The moderator recognized Rev. Julius Holloway to present the Associational Missionary's Report. Rev. Holloway used slides to emphasize his written report which was adopted as follows:

ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONARY'S REPORT

Considerable progress has been made in our association of churches this year. Baptist Grove, Rawls, North Clinton Avenue, Bethel, Duncan and Oak Grove have made arrangements for their pastor to live on the field.

Baptist Grove and Oak Grove have built new homes for their pastors. North Clinton Avenue has bought an almost new one. Bethel and Duncan are renting homes. Rawls built theirs several years ago when they were in a field with Baptist Grove. Rawls has remodeled and brick-veneered their church. Rawls and Baptist Grove now have their pastors living on the field.

Duncan and East Erwin have started a brotherhood. Macedonia and Bethel have started a training union. Bethel built a complete new building last year. Friendship has built and dedicated a complete new building this year. Piney Grove Chapel has remodeled their church this year and have increased their gifts to mission causes.

Lillington has built a new educational building. Westfield is building a new sanctuary. Dunn Second completed a new educational building. Kennebec has a lot and plans a new church. Macedonia, Gourd Springs, and Layton's Chapel have completed new Sunday School rooms. Macedonia built an educational building.

Dunn First completed a new educational building and remodeled their church. Harmony is in the process of starting a new building. Crestview has built a new educational building and will move in from the tents October 30 with a harvest day service.

Broadway and Baptist Chapel have formed a field and have their pastor living on the field. Baptist Chapel has remodeled and put in new pews and carpet. Broadway remodeled last year. Swann's Station has recently remodeled and added new Sunday School rooms and new pews and now is in the process of calling a pastor for their field. East Erwin has completed a new building and has had a STANDARD Sunday School this year. Dunn Second had a STANDARD Vacation Bible School for four years.

From the above you can see that most of our churches did some building last year; in fact, all of our churches have done some building in very recent years. This is good—any church needs an adequate building. Let us also be reminded that we are to build character also and win the lost and train the saved to serve and live as God's children.

The association and all of our churches are trying to build an associational home and office on our lot in Lillington. We are grateful for your support in this also. It will take full support of all of our churches to complete this. About one-third of the churches have not participated as of now. LET'S GO, MAN; LET'S GO. By the time you read this report the building committee will have in hand bids and hope we can have groundbreaking on the last day of our Associational Meeting in Lillington.

The GA's from Pleasant Memory visited the Associational Office in February to see the office and equipment, learn what it is used for and learn about the work of the associational missionary. They brought a lovely cake they had made and baked in the shape of a heart for the missionary.

Chalybeate Springs gave a shower honoring Miss Marjorie Spence, missionary emeritus from Chile and their church.

Dunn First ordained Jerry Barfield to the gospel ministry. Piney Grove licensed Larry Jones who is our associational brotherhood president and who plans to enter the seminary next fall.

Angier has started a mission Sunday school in the Holland Rest Home. Buies Creek has one in the Adams-Kinston Rest Home. Dunn First has one in the Dunn Rest Home and the Hinson Rest Home.

Most of our pastors speak for devotions in the garment factories in Lillington and Angier. The towns of Angier, Dunn, Erwin and Lillington have interdenominational pastors' conferences and our pastors involved attend.

I have preached in our churches 30 times, attended prayer meetings and preached at most of the morning worship services at Crestview Mission. Helped ordain one minister. Helped ordain deacons in eight of our churches. Helped in five dedications of churches and pastors' homes. Showed 25 filmstrips, two motion pictures, spoke at the garment factory in Lillington and Angier six times, conducted four funerals, helped in seven Vacation Bible

Schools, taught Home Mission studies six times, Foreign Mission studies five times, spoke in rest homes three times, attended Sunbeam Day Camp, and all the associational meetings and most of the committee meetings, worked with five building committees, and seven pulpit committees and over 600 individual conferences and drove 27,000 miles.

We have had the following pastors come to us this year:

North Clinton Avenue, Alva Ellis; Baptist Grove, Alvin Ellis; Layton's Chapel, Howard Lawson; Broadway, Baptist Chapel, Clyde Johnson; Neill's Creek; Swann's Station; Dunn Second, C. W. Driver; Oak Grove, Howard Roseman; Kennebec, John Joyner; East Erwin; Lillington Mission.

Respectfully submitted,
Julius Holloway

12. The congregation was led in the singing of "Serve the Lord with Gladness" by Rev. Charles Stafford. Rev. Ellis was recognized by the moderator to lead in prayer. After special music by the associational choir entitled "Send Me, O Lord, Send Me," Rev. L. D. Holt of Emmanuel Baptist Church, Raleigh, delivered the evening message. Rev. Holt expanded upon our theme, "Increasing in Knowledge of God" as it applies to our daily actions.

13. The benediction was given by Rev. E. Weldon Johnson of the Buies Creek Baptist Church.

SECOND DAY

14. The meeting for the second day opened at 9:30 a. m. in the Lillington Baptist Church with the singing of "Banner of The Cross", led by Rev. Charles Stafford. The moderator called upon Rev. Alva Ellis for scripture and prayer. The host pastor, Rev. Don Bowen was recognized by the moderator for the purpose of welcoming the association to the host church and to make several announcements.

15. The moderator recognized the clerk to present the Executive Committee's Report which was adopted as follows:

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORT

Your Executive Committee has held five meetings since the last Annual Session of the Little River Baptist Association. Although attendance at the Executive Committee meetings leaves much to be desired, your officers have been well pleased with the response of the past year. With the exception of the meeting on December 6, 1965, at the First Baptist Church of Dunn, our meetings have been held at the Buies Creek Church.

Reports of the associational officers, committee chairmen, and various organizational leaders were well prepared and delivered to your executive committee meetings. Reports were well received by the committee with interest and participation in the discussion of your business affairs was good. The executive committee was delighted to hear the fine reports delivered at our meetings concerning the excellent work being done by the Crestview Mission, Lillington Mission and the Antioch Mission.

Your Executive Committee has again devoted much time to the Missionary Home Project. Receipts from the churches for the Missionary Home was up again this associational year to a total of $1,803.61. Your Executive Committee has authorized the Home Building Committee to obtain a set of plans and specifications and secure bids for the home. You shall hear the fine report of this committe and the recommendations which it will present for your consideration. The Executive Committee feels that now is the time to proceed with our building project and heartily recommends your prayerful consideration of a progressive step.

Respectfully submitted,
E. Marshall Woodall,
Associational Clerk

16. The moderator recognized Rev. Don Bowen who spoke a few words in the absence of a Sunday School Report. He pointed out very vividly how we all were willing to give of ourselves to help find someone who is lost along the Cape Fear River. He posed the question, "Are we willing to search for the lost children in God?"

17. The moderator called upon Mrs. Thomas Barham to present the Training Union Report which was adopted as follows:

TRAINING UNION REPORT—1965-66

The Training Union continues to be the training arm of our local churches. But Training Union is constantly changing—bringing new ideas, new materials, and new ways for equipping our members to be the skilled workmen of our Lord.

Our associational program began with a Training Union Leadership Clinic held at Antioch Baptist Church on October 5, 1965. There were conferences for all age group leaders, led by the State Training Union workers. One hundred seven people attended the meeting.

"M" Night for this past year was held at the First Baptist Church in Dunn on December 6, 1965. Our Training Union looks forward to this night every year with great anticipation. There were 576 in attendance, with 15 pastors and 13 directors present. Twenty-five churches in our association were represented. Dunn First won the Attendance Banner and East Erwin the Efficiency Banner. Following a skit setting forth the emphases for 1965-66, those attending were greatly inspired by the speaker, Mrs. A. L. Parker of Greensboro. She gave an excellent address on the theme for 1966 of "Proclamation and Witness".

Associational Tournament Night was held on April 4 at the North Clinton Avenue Baptist Church. We are proud of the five adults who participated in the Adult Scripture Reading Tournament, the two Intermediates in the Intermediate Sword Drill, and the 17 Juniors in our Junior Memory Work Tournament. The twelve Juniors who were Associational winners went on to become Regional winners and State winners this summer. There is a great need for more participation in these tournaments. We had only six churches represented this year, with no entries in the Young People's Better Speakers' Tournament. Our main task in Training Union is to train our members, and this is one opportunity for us to see evidence of training that has been done. I would urge each of our churches to encourage their members to have a part in this phase of Trainging Union.

One of the highlights each year for our youth is Associational Youth Night, which was held this year at the Lillington Baptist Church on March 19. Several young people and adults participated in a panel discussion concerning some of the problems of youth today. Following this, the 200 people present heard an inspirational message by Mr. Al Long, of the Christian Athletic Association. A fellowship hour was held following the meeting.

Two new Training Unions have been organized in our association this year. Macedonia Baptist Church and Bethel Baptist Church have added this important organization to the program of their churches. This brings the total number of churches with Training Unions to 22. Some other churches have indicated a desire to organize one, and we hope many more will do so. We would not expect an athlete to do very well in a race unless he had trained properly. Neither can we do our best in the greatest race of all—that of winning the world to the Lord Jesus Christ—without proper training. I would like to urge each of our churches to use this facility of Training Union to prepare our members to be better witnesses for our Christ.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Thomas Barham

18. Mrs. Wesley McLeod was recognized by the moderator to present the Woman's Missionary Union Report. The report was approved and adopted as follows:

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION REPORT

The year 1965-66 brought Woman's Missionary Union to a new understanding of how it can help the church fulfill its mission through "Proclamation and Witness".

Good news came to us at the beginning of last year. The WMU of our association has received Honor Recognition on the report for the year 1964-65 while Mrs. Lewis Beal was president. This may be the first time that our association has achieved this goal.

We began our year with a Leadership Conference on September 27 at North Clinton Church in Dunn. One hundred and twenty-nine women attended and from these 17 churches were represented.

On October 15, 22 and 29 the Basic Leadership Courses were taught for WMS, GA, and Sunbeam Leaders. We met at Lillington Church for this study.

The YWA Banquet was held on February 14 at Neill's Creek Church. Miss Marjorie Spence was the speaker. A large group of YWA's and leaders from our association attended the YWA State Convention on March 25-26 in Greensboro.

We had our first Associational GA house party on February 25-26 at Neill's Creek Church with 210 attending. Miss Nancy Cousins, State GA director, was guest speaker at the evening service. The Junior and Intermediate Home Mission Books were taught. Other features included a panel for discussion of teenage questions, a talent show, song sessions and game periods. Mrs. John Griffin, Associational GA leader, said that many of the girls expressed their desire for this to be an annual event for GA's in our association.

One of the highlights of the year was the Annual Spring Meeting, held on March 21 at Angier Baptist Church. We had a record attendance of 310. Our theme was Christian Witnessing, based on the scripture, "Having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people." Rev. Tom Freeman spoke at the afternoon session on "Witnessing to our Mate and to our Children." At the night session Rev. William O. Hern, missionary to Jordan, brought a message and slide pictures on the work in Jerusalem.

On May 13 the Girls' Auxiliary met at Hillmon Grove Church for their GA Rally. Rev. James Stertz, former missionary to Germany and presently pastor of the Wake Forest Baptist Church, was the speaker. The theme for the meeting was "I'll Walk with God."

Sunbeam World Friends from over the association left from Chalybeate Springs Church on August 4, 1966 to attend the Annual Sunbeam Day Camp held at a nearby camp site. It was a big day for all as Sunbeam Director, Mrs. Gerald Denning, led in a planned program of Missions, Music, Nature, and Crafts. Missionary guest was Miss Marjorie Spence. At the end of the day when we gathered around the camp fire for the closing period, the children were given an opportunity to express what they had enjoyed most at the camp. Some said "Everything" and many expressed the "Mission Periods" led by Miss Spence. We shall never forget the interest in missions expressed by these eight-year-old children.

One of the emphasis for the year in Women's Missionary Union was Operation 100 Per Cent. We planned a special service for pastor and key women in churches that have no missionary organizations. It was held on February 22 at Harmony Church. Women and pastors from three churches came to the service. Rev. Douglas Farmer spoke on Foreign Missions, Rev. Julius Holloway on Home Missions and I explained "Why WMU in the Church." Almost all of the Associational Executive Board attended. All of the WMU Executive Board is especially interested in establishing ALL of the Missionary Organizations in ALL of the churches and missions in our association.

While the heartbeat of Brotherhood and Woman's Missionary Union keep a steady flow of Missionary Education into some of our churches, there are still six churches in our association with no missionary organizations. Many of the other 28 do not have organizations for all ages. One of the most needed organizations in our churches is YWA.

Mrs. Roald Sorensen, Associational YWA director, gives this report: "Out of 34 churches in the Little River Association, there are 28 with Women's Missionary Societies and only eight having Young Women's Auxiliaries. This may indicate a shortage of young women, ages 16-24. On the other hand it could be that the girls are available but counselors are not to be found.

"The absence of leadership may be due to a lack of interest in the needs of the young women of the church. It could also stem from a feeling of inadequacy because of lack of training. Both of these lacks are serious, and have a positive solution. A long look at the young women of the churches coupled with a surrendered heart and prayer, prayer, prayer will meet the first problem. The second can be solved before it is even a problem. Regular, annual training sessions are planned on the church-wide, associational, state and convention basis. If enough people (present counselors ad future counselor material) will attend, a confidence will be born of knowledge and association. Strength for the task will come through prayer. HOW CAN YOU HELP?"

We would like to say "Thank you" to those in our association who have "worked" for our Lord in teaching and enlisting women, girls and childrens in missions. We believe that future reports to our association will reveal what great things He hath done through you.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Wesley McLeod

19. The moderator recognized Rev. Julius Holloway who presented the Brotherhood Report for Larry Jones, who was unable to be present. The report was adopted as follows:

BROTHERHOOD REPORT

In Little River Association, the Brotherhood has made great strides in the increasing of God's work through men and boys in the field of Evangelism, Missions, Education and in knowledge of Brotherhood work.

We have 34 churches in our association. At the beginning of the associational year we had 15 churches with Brotherhood and RA chapters. During the year of 1966 we have had the privilege of helping to organize two additional Brotherhoods, East Erwin and Duncan churches. We are very happy to have these two churches joining in the work of Brotherhood and RA work for the coming year. This makes a total of 17 churches with Brotherhoods. This also leaves 17 churches without Brotherhoods and RA work. This should be a challenge for the coming year to us all.

We have found that working with these churches that have active Brotherhood and RA chapters have been a great aid to the pastors, churches, and community in increasing the knowledge of God's work. We have had the privilege of working with the Brotherhood of Antioch church in organizing a layman led witnessing revival using men from other brotherhoods which we feel was used by God. We also had the privilege of working with the brotherhood of Piney Grove church in establishing a program of audio evangelism which has meant much to the church and community.

We have had one Associational Brotherhood meeting this year at Hillmon Grove church, at which time we had two great speakers, Rev. Clyde Johnson and Brother Elbert Hogg of Clayton, who spoke of their call to God's work.

I am looking forward to working with you in the coming year for the cause of Christ.

Respectfully submitted,
Larry Jones

20. Rev. Tom M. Freeman was called upon to present the Report of Evangelism which was adopted as follows:

REPORT ON EVANGELISM

Little River Baptist cannot rejoice in our record in evangelism for 1965, for whatever comfort it might give us, the general trend in the Baptist churches of North Carolina is similar to ours. This is a troubled time for our nation, and the unrest, the tension, the doubts seem to be affecting the churches.

The general leveling off, and in many areas the decline, of Sunday School enrollment is reflected in the fewer baptisms. The militancy of the religious doubters, the critics of the churches, and those who are caught up in the hate and violence of our day, have had their effect. In many churches there is an unrest and uncertainty, and many churches are changing pastors more frequently than ever before. All this dampens the fires of evangelism.

Do we have the answer to these things? I believe we do. It is found in the New Testament. Our day calls for a new boldness on the part of Christians. We must stand up for Christ and be aggressive in our witness for Him. We must be living letters, known and read of all men, demonstrating in our lives the power of the gospel of Christ to transform and empower us for Christ-like living.

God's answer to those who down-grade and criticize, and even persecute his churches, has been the hot and holy fires of spiritual revival. From Pentecost to the last revival in a local church, God's answer has been conclusive and complete. Revival in the churches, new life and power in witnessing for Christ, can reverse the trend and bring a new day among our churches.

In an analysis of baptisms in the Baptist churches of North Carolina in 1965, Dr. Julian Hopkins reveals some encouraging things. Apparently our churches are winning and baptizing more adults than in the recent past, and we are winning more persons between revivals. He reported that 23 per cent of the total baptisms were adults, and that 50 per cent of the total were 13 years of age and upward. He also noted that 43 per cent were won during revivals. The importance of the Sunday School is seen in that 89 per cent of those baptized were enrolled in Sunday School.

Southern Baptists have turned their attention to the Crusade of the Americas, scheduled for 1969. With 21 countries cooperating, this could be the greatest evangelistic thrust since Pentecost. Let us all give priority to it.

Respectfully submitted,
Tom M. Freeman

21. The moderator opened the floor for miscellaneous business. Rev. Lewis Beal moved that the association send our regards and prayers to Mr. and Mrs. Crouch during her sickness. The motion was seconded and passed. Rev. Julius Holloway made a motion, which was properly seconded and passed, that the association send our regards to Rev. Everette Marion whose mother had passed away on the past Saturday. The moderator recognized Dr. McGee as a guest and in addition recognized some members of the Raleigh Baptist Association who were guests.

22. The Annual Session was led in the hymn, "More Like the Master."

23. The moderator called upon Rev. James E. Sams to present the report for the Baptist Homes for the Aging, which report was adopted as follows:

NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST HOMES REPORT

Reflection on the past year of life in our four Baptist Homes for the Aging is a reminder once again of the goodness of the Lord to us. We are constantly aware of the bountiful way in which He has blessed us, and this has been particularly true since our last report to the good people of the Little River Association.

During this time the homes have ministered to 172 deserving older men and women. All of these have been blessed by the love gifts of North Carolina Baptists through the Special Day Offering received on the third Sunday of February each year, and through our share in the Cooperative Program. The large majority, at least 85 per cent, have benefitted directly from these gifts and have actually been sustained at the point of their financial need.

The Special Day Offering for 1966 is at an all-time high and looks as if it might be $100,000.00 for the first time. This is very good, and we are profoundly grateful. The Little River Baptist churches have given $1,287.28 to this worthy ministry this year.

The Homes for the Aging are in the midst of miracles, and the past year has been one in which we have witnessed unusual blessings from the Lord. There have been fewer deaths than previously, and the critically ill in many instances have been brought back to a measure of reasonably good health. Nursing care has been of the highest quality, and you would rejoice to know how far your concern and your gifts go in ministering to the needs of the residents.

Perhaps the outstanding paradox in all of our homes is that the first resident, who never takes any medication at all and who does not need to see a doctor, or go to the hospital. She is Aunt Fannie Drumwright, who celebrated here 105th birthday in July.

It is anticipated that construction will begin on our fifth home at Yanceyville during the coming year, and when it is completed, we will be able to minister in all of our homes to 200 older men and women and relieve, in measure, the terrific pressure of a long waiting list of 170 people.

This ministry of love, in Christ's name, is dependent upon the concern, the love, the prayers, and the increased financial support of the Little River Baptists. Therefore, the Homes for the Aging of North Carolina are counting heavily on us and believe that we will not disappoint the aging people who are looking to us urgently for help.

Eighteen churches contributing, July 1965 through June 1966.

Respectfully submitted,
James E. Sams

24. The moderator recognized Roger Patterson who presented the Report for Children's Home. The report was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF THE BAPTIST CHILDREN'S HOME

Under the impact of the life, ministry and teachings of Christ and under the leadership of the Holy Spirit, North Carolina Baptists eighty-one years ago launched a Christian ministry of child care. This has grown considerably and is widely recognized for its qualities of service and pioneering spirit. Sons and daughters of the Children's Homes are scattered throughout the world. They are actively engaged in all walks of life and are making a significant contribution to the uplift of mankind as a result of their early Christian training made possible by North Carolina Baptists and other friends.

As we continue to build upon foundations already laid, special attention is being given certain areas of child care. An already strong program of group care is being strengthened at Mills Home, Kennedy Home and Odum Home. A good degree of progress has been realized in working with emotionally disturbed children at Greer Home in Chapel Hill. The demonstration Child Development Program for preschool children, conducted on the Mills Home campus, has had an excellent first year of operation. Churches throughout the state are studying the program and facilities preparatory to providing similar services. Prospects are encouraging for a home for children in the western part of the state more adequately to serve the needs of our people who live west of the Blue Ridge Mountains. Constant attention is being given to more effective ways of meeting the highly specialized needs of children coming out of broken and inadequate home situations.

We have a large number of good Christian homes for the care of foster children. More are needed in all sections of the state. Foster homes serve children of all ages and are of particular advantage for some who have special needs. Foster home parents may be of varying ages and circumstances in life. Couples with or without children of their own who have an abundance of love find this to be a challenging and rewarding opportunity of Christian service.

Sincere appreciation is expressed to all who have, in any way, helped to support our child care ministry. We are indeed grateful for increasing income through the Cooperative Program. Last year's Thanksgiving offering is approaching three hundred fifteen thousand dollars ($315,000.00) and is the largest ever. Special gifts and designations such as the once-a-month offering continue to provide a substantial part of our income. Through estate planning and the making of Christian wills an increasing number of individuals and families are investing in present and future generations of boys and girls who are in need of the services of the Baptist Children's Homes. Roger Williams, former pastor of the Mills Home Baptist Church, is devoting full time to working with our Baptist people in this area, and he or other members of our staff will count it a privilege to assist you in exploring this field of Christian stewardship.

We covenant with you to face the future as we have the past; to offer Christian nurture to distressed children in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

From: W. R. Wagononer,
General Superintendent

The story of the Baptist Children's Homes is made alive every week for those who read the Charity and Children. You learn of the needs and accomplishments of the children through this paper that is printed on the campus at Mills Home in Thomasville.

The source of income for the past twelve months breaks down like this: Cooperative Program, 36 per cent; Thanksgiving Offering, 31 per cent; Designations and Once-A-Month Offering, 14 per cent, and Special Gifts, Endowment, and designated support of children, 19 per cent. By these percentages we can easily see the importance of a special Thanksgiving Offering and designated gifts to this very important work.

Today's children are going to become the adults who will shape the world of tomorrow. Helping these children is one of the most important tasks ahead of North Carolina Baptists.

25. Mr. L. M. Beck of Fuquay Baptist was called upon to present the Baptist Foundation Report for Gordon Maddrey who was unable to be present. The report was adopted as follows:

BAPTIST FOUNDATION REPORT

Sometimes in writing an annual report we are tempted to make a very large mistake to discover that people really read the reports. The only mistake in this report may be one of over-enthusiasm for the fine way the Baptists of North Carolina are beginning to understand and use the Foundation. I wish it were possible for me to share with you all of the responses we have been privileged to participate in during the year. This has been a good year in Baptist Foundation work. And we are eternally grateful to each of you for having a part in promoting the work of the Foundation.

We are indeed grateful to the pastors of this state for the wonderful cooperation they have accorded the Baptist Foundation. They have encouraged us greatly by furnishing the names of individuals who may be interested in the Foundation; they have invited us to their church to speak on various occasions; they have been most generous with their time in discussing the problems, programs, and purposes of the Foundation whenever we had the opportunity to discuss it with them. Many of our lay friends, lawyers, bankers, trust officers, and other interested individuals have given of their time and helped us in promoting our work.

Assets of the Foundation have increased during the past year and at the last accounting, around December, the total assets of the Foundation had reached approximately one million dollars including our real estate. Right many of our people are setting up memorial funds, trust agreements, annuity agreements, and are using other services provided by the Baptist Foundation. We believe we are organized in such a manner that we can answer most any request an individual makes of us, either through the church or as an individual, if he will make his wishes known to us. By this I mean that we can visit him individually and explain the work of the Foundation and how he may participate in it, or we can go to any group meeting that would provide an opportunity to discuss will making and uses of the Foundation. We covet your continued prayers for this work and hope that in the future you will make use of the facilities of the North Carolina Baptist Foundation, Inc.

26. Rev. Julius Holloway presented the Baptist Hospital Report for Rev. Doug Farmer. The report was adopted as follows:

NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST HOSPITAL REPORT

Our Baptist Hospital and Medical School are a center of healing for body, mind and spirit, a center of training of medical personnel and Christian workers, and a center of scientific research for the advancement of medical care.

Without a vast amount of medical research, there would be no heart surgery today by which lives are saved in our Baptist Hospital almost every week; and the same would be true of almost every new method of treating us when we are sick. Without schools for training of doctors, nurses, technicians and others, there soon would be no skilled persons in our hospitals or in our communities to care for us when illness comes. Without a staff of highly trained and experienced specialists and a vast amount of expensive specialized equipment, our Baptist Hospital could not offer the highly skilled medical care which is available to us when serious illness strikes and a fine medical center is needed. Another very important fact is that the medical care of our hospital is made available to people who need it and cannot pay for it. These important services are the work of our Medical Center in Winston-Salem.

The kind of medical care provided by our hospital is very expensive, and the hospital has no choice but to ask full payment of all who can pay. The hospital has been spending in free care for our people far more than it receives from our Mother's Day offerings, the Cooperative Program, and all welfare agencies combined. This has caused the hospital to run in debt the past two years and the same has been happening this year. Of course, the hospital simply cannot continue to operate this way. Medicare is not going to change the situation greatly. Our people need to understand this and to recognize that we are going to have to provide much greater support if the hospital is to continue to provide free service in the same measure for those who cannot pay for it.

While some of our churches support the hospital well indeed, most of them could do far more than they have been doing. We want to bring this to your attention, asking you to go back to your church and give this information to your people and help to lead them to give serious consideration to the hospital's vital ministry and its urgent need.

27. The moderator recognized Dr. McGee who spoke for a few minutes concerning all social services available to Baptist ministers and related workers.

28. The moderator called for the report on Ministers' Retirement which was adopted as follows:

MINISTERS' RETIREMENT PROGRAM

The Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention is now offering several plans for the protection and retirement of convention ministers and employees.

The SOUTHERN BAPTIST PROTECTION PLAN provides benefits for age, disability and widow. Cost for the protection plan is based on the minister's salary, and is ten percent of any amount up to $4,000.00 a year. The minister's church is encouraged to pay the total cost. In some cases the minister and church share the cost. The maximum amount a church can pay in the basic plan is $400.00 a year if its minister is under 60 years of age.

The HEALTH BENEFIT PLAN enrollment has reached 10,054. During the past year promotional emphasis has been placed on this plan. The Health Plan is an all-inclusive program of hospital, surgical and major medical benefits. Enrollment is open on a semi-annual basis. The next enrollment will be open early in the fall with the deadline on November 30, 1966.

BENEFITS PAID are continuing to increase annually. In 1965, almost $4,000,000.00 was paid in age retirement, disability or widow benefits to annuitants through the Annuity Board's protection program. The annuitants' checks vary in amounts, depending on the length of time each was a member and the amount of dues he paid. Since the beginning of the Annuity Board in 1918, almost $51,000,000.00 have been paid out in benefits which annuitants have termed "manna from heaven."

MEMBERS IN ANNUITY BOARD PLANS are also increasing each year. Today more than 16,660 churches are providing protection through the Protection Program for their ministers. Approximately 10,764 of these churches are paying the ten per cent dues. There are 135 of the 176 aducational institutions, hospitals, children's homes, homes for the aged and other convention agencies who have protection programs with the Annuity Board. There are more than 28,000 members in the retirement plans of the Annuity Board.

There are seven states with 70 per cent or more of the churches in the program. At present, North Carolina has 48 per cent of the churches in the Protection Program for ministers.

The Little River Association has 20 participating churches in some type of retirement plan. Eleven of these churches are paying the full ten per cent.

Do you know to what extent your pastor is developing a retirement plan? Industry, business and government accept the moral responsibility of taking the initiative for this. Can your church afford to do less?

For a few dollars per month your church can join 20,000 other Southern Baptist churches in a cooperative plan that will provide (1) disability payments, (2) dependents' benefits, and (3) retirement.

Rev. Guy Cain, whose office is in the Baptist Building, 301 Hillsboro Street, Raleigh, is jointly employed by the North Carolina Baptist Convention and the Annuity Board to promote and explain this program to those who may wish to participate in the same.

Paul Bradley

29. The association was led in the singing of the hymn, "Am I a Soldier of the Cross." The moderator recognized Rev. Floyd Enzor who delivered the morning sermon. His sermon was entitled "The Holy Spirit and Us." At the conclusion of the sermon, the Campbell College Choir, under the direction of Dr. Paul Yoder, presented special music to Association Session. Rev. Bowen was called upon to deliver the benediction and blessing.

AFTERNOON SESSION

30. The association was led in the singing of the hymn, "He Lives." Rev. C. W. Driver was called upon to lead in scripture and prayer.

31. The moderator recognized Rev. Phillip McLean to present the report for the Bible Society. The report was adopted as follows:

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY REPORT

"God's Word for a New Age" is the theme for the 150th Anniversary of the American Bible Society which is being observed during 1966. It is also the theme of a program of worldwide missionary advance. Bible societies of many nations are working together to provide greatly increased quantities of scriptures needed urgently for mission work around the globe. If the PEOPLE OF THE WORLD are to know Jesus Christ the one hope of men and nations, they MUST HAVE THE BIBLE. EACH PERSON MUST HAVE THE BIBLE IN HIS OWN LANGUAGE because it speaks to his heart as no other language can speak. But, in most countries, people CANNOT AFFORD EVEN THE COST OF PRINTING the scriptures.

The Bible is the essential tool of missions and evangelism. The missionary uses it in all his work. The Bible itself is a missionary. It can go where the human missionary cannot go. It can stay on after he must leave—and keep on speaking to a person's heart.

The American Bible Society is an active partner of Southern Baptists. It serves mission work at home and abroad, helps missionaries translate the Bible, publishes without note or comment and distributes without profit, usually below cost. For the blind, it supplies scriptures in Braille and other raised-letter systems, Talking Bible records and tape recordings.

The current goal of the program, "God's Word for a New Age," is to increase total worldwide scripture distribution to 150 million volumes per year (three times total of recent years). Half of this (75 million volumes per year) is to be done by the American Bible Society. LONG-RANGE GOALS ARE: A Bible in every Christian home. A Testament in every Christian's hand. A Scripture Portion for every reader. Supplies of Scriptures for Christians to share.

DURING 1965 THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY—

1. Rejoiced that some part of the Bible has been published in 1,250 languages; the full Bible in 237, a Testament in 297 more, a Gospel or other complete book in 716 more—but still counted over 1,000 more languages in which not one book of the Bible has yet been published—and continued to expand its service in Bible translation work throughout the world.

2. Gave over 745,000 scripture volumes for distribution by chaplains to our Armed Forces and Veterans' hospitals, as a vital link between the home churches and men in service.

3. Continued programs throughout Latin America for training laymen in scripture distribution in their own communities—and planned for similar work in other areas of the world.

4. Distributed a record total of over 54 million scripture volumes in more than 400 languages, in 149 countries—with more than half of the total going to other countries—and continued in the task of greatly increasing its annual distribution to meet urgent worldwide needs.

SOUTHERN BAPTISTS SUPPORT THE WORK because the Bible Society serves mission work—and Southern Baptist missionaries depend on the society for scriptures they need for the people—Southern Baptists believe in missionary importance of giving to the American Society. In 1966 Southern Baptist churches gave $226,731 to the American Bible Society and ranked first among all denominations. Gifts from all the churches in the U.S.A. totaled $1,333,058.

The help of every Southern Baptist church is needed. SOUTHERN BAPTIST CHURCHES CAN CONTINUE TO LEAD—IF EVERY CHURCH WILL GIVE. Has your church given this year? Give any amount—5-to-600 or more. SEND GIFTS TO THE BAPTIST STATE OFFICE MARKED, AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

Phillip McLean

33. The moderator called for the report of the Resolutions Committee. The following resolutions were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS

Be it resolved:

That the Little River Baptist Association, meeting in its Ninety-first Annual Session, the night session with Rawls and the day session with the Lillington Baptist Church, on October 25 and 26, 1966, express our gratitude to:

1. The host churches and members for their graciousness and hospitality and for the bountiful meal.

2. The moderator, Rev. Walter Gentry for his leadership the past two years.

3. Mr. Sid Seymour, our visiting organist for the day.

4. Rev. Charles W. Stafford for his service as music director.

5. Dr. Paul Yoder and the Campbell College Choir.

Now therefore, with the passing of James P. Morgan—our State Training Union Secretary—we express our appreciation for his work and our sincere prayers for the family. This being his home association.

Be it resolved that we dedicate the minutes of this Ninety-first Session in loving memory and tribute to this humble servant of our Lord.

37. The moderator recognized Mr. Alton Stephenson who reported for the Missionary Home Building Committee. He pointed out that the association had approximately $7,100.00 in the Building Fund and that the committee felt that it was time to proceed with our building program. Mr. Stephenson moved that the association build a Missionary Home according to plans and specifications heretofore presented by Mr. R. M. Turlington, general contractor, and that the association accept Mr. Turlington's contract bid of $29,995.00 to build the Missionary Home. The motion was seconded and passed by the session. Rev. Don Bowen moved that the association authorize the Finance Committe and Trustees to raise the balance of the money needed to build the Missionary Home by selling bonds under the Fidelity Plan of Church Financing as programmed by Fidelity Plan, Inc. and that the Trustees be allowed to work out the necessary details involved therewith. The motion was seconded by Alton Stephenson and was passed by the association.

38. The moderator recognized Rev. John C. Moyner to present the Social Service and Civic Righteousness Report which was adopted as follows:

SOCIAL SERVICE AND CIVIC RIGHTEOUSNESS REPORT

The whole world is being engulfed in a rising tide of social ferment and moral revolution. The issues of family breakdown, racism, inadequate citizenship, technological revolution, poverty, war, and immorality are ever before us. Christians do not propose simplictic answers for these incredibly complex problems. They do affirm without equivocation, however, that Christ is the answer to all human needs, not only for individuals in their relationship to God but also in their relationships to others in society. God's people are therefore called to minister courageously and creatively in the midst of social evils and moral compromises of our day as they accept the concept that Christianity must not be divorced from life.

It is time for the church to take its place in our society. The church has been standing idly by too long without lifting its voice in opposition to many of the social evils that the world has accepted as a way of life.

We do not have to look to the uttermost parts of the world to see the decay of our society. This year Lillington went wet by a vote of 351 to 243, or a ratio of 1.4 to 1. Surely there were enough professing Christians to have voted this issue down, but either they voted for the town to go wet or they were so unconcerned over the issue, they did not vote at all. One of the gratifying things to come out of the issue was the fact that the deacons of the Lillington Baptist Church made a public statement opposing the issue. It is most refreshing to see a group of men take a stand against alcohol.

Alcohol is by no means the only problem we face. There is a decline in morality. The appalling factor concerning this is that it is being endorsed by some men of the clergy. The news medium reports that in England some clergymen endorsed premarital relationships. An English instructor at the University of North Carolina assigned his class to write a theme dealing with seduction. After an investigation the instructor was assigned other duties. The statement given by the university was that the class misunderstood the assignment. It seems a little hard to believe that the entire class could have misunderstood. This will lead to an even greater breakdown of morality among our young people.

The number of children born out of wedlock is further evidence of the breakdown of morality. In Harnett County alone in 1961 out of a caseload of 1,045 children reported, 209 were born out of wedlock. This year out of the same number of caseloads there were 250 children born out of wedlock.

The above alone will cause the Christian to realize how we need to stand against these social evils. Nevertheless, there is still another area which shows the breakdown of the family. As of September of this year marriage licenses have been granted to 217 couples in Harnett County. In the same number of months 112 divorces have been granted. Of this 112 there were 120 children involved. This is a glaring sin against our county.

What is to be the depth which we will fall before the church will lift its voice and be heard? Surely the command of the Lord, "Ye are to be my witness," was meant for us today even as it was meant for those in His Day.

John C. Joyner

39. Rev. Ben Fisher was recognized by the moderator to speak a few words concerning the Cooperative Program Report which is as follows:

COOPERATIVE PROGRAM REPORT

A pressing need of each church in our association is an undergirding of the Cooperative Program with prayer. Information on the worldwide missionary work carried on through the Cooperative Program will form a basis by which your church can pray with knowledge and zeal.

The Cooperative Program must be nurtured in prayer because information alone is not enough. It is hoped that every church will have a special prayer for some special cause supported through the Cooperative Program in the prayer service each week in the month of October.

We are witnessing the greatest missionary advance in Southern Baptist history in missionaries being sent, benevolent work done and training of young people for worldwide service. This advance is being made through our missionaries, orphanages, schools, homes for aging, and our Baptist hospitals. Through the Cooperative Program you literally feed the hungry, clothe the naked, heal the sick, and preach the gospel to the far corners of the earth.

We are making progress in our concern for those Jesus came to seek and save. Each year more of our churches are increasing Cooperative Program giving and at the same time others are beginning wholehearted participation.

Several associations in North Carolina have 100 per cent of their churches giving through the Cooperative Program. According to available records our association gave a total of $ .... this past year through the Cooperative Program. .... of our churches shared in world mission through Cooperative Program Giving.

With enthusiasm let us be faithful in worshipping with tithes and offerings and our church sharing regularly through the Cooperative Program for the benefit of a lost world. . . . Plan, promote and subscribe to an inclusive budget. Have special prayer for the causes listed in your budget. Give as God prospers for all who are in need.

40. The moderator recognized Mrs. Lewis Beal to introduce Miss Marjorie Spence who brought the afternoon message after special music. Rev. Doug Farmer introduced soloist Donnie Williams who sang "I'll Tell the World that I'm a Christian."

41. After Miss Spence's talk, the moderator invited everyone to attend the groundbreaking ceremony for the Missionary Home.

Mr. H. R. Starling delivered the benediction.

CONSTITUTION

1. This association shall be known as "Little River Baptist Association."

2. The object of this association shall be the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ, and the means of accomplishing this shall be in strict conformity with the principles of the New Testament.

3. The association shall have no authority over the internal right of any church belonging to it and shall act only as an advisory council.

4. The association shall be composed of messengers chosen by the churches connected with it, each church being entitled to five messengers, plus one additional messenger for each one hundred members or fraction thereof. Ordained ministers having oversight of the churches in the association, or having their membership in these churches, shall be received as messengers.

5. A quorum shall consist of messengers from a majority of the churches of the association.

6. The messengers from each church to the annual meeting of the association shall bear a letter certifying their appointment and giving an account of the condition of the church and a statement of all funds contributed for local and benevolent purposes.

7. The officers of the association shall be a moderator, a vice-moderator, a clerk, and a treasurer, who shall be chosen annually from the messengers composing the association, and shall continue in office until their successors are elected. The term of the office of the moderator shall begin at the conclusion of the session at which he is elected and continue until the close of the next annual session.

OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES

8. General Officers and Associational Missionary

a. Moderator—The moderator shall preside over all sessions of the association and the executive committee, preserve order, appoint all committees not otherwise provided for and exercise all other duties of a presiding officer according to the principle of parliamentary usage; he shall also, as far as his private duties permit, visit and communicate with the churches between sessions to promote and encourage the spirit of cooperation and Christian fellowship. The moderator shall be ineligible for more than two one-year terms in succession.

b. Vice-Moderator—The vice-moderator shall assist the moderator and discharge the duties of the moderator in his absence.

c. Clerk—It shall be the duty of the clerk to keep a faithful record of the proceedings of the body, and use all diligence in having same printed and distributed to the churches as soon as possible; to mail to the church clerks forms for the annual letters, and to keep on hand the printed minutes and other important documents belonging to the body. He shall make an annual report to the association.

d. Treasurer—It shall be the duty of the treasurer to receive all funds sent by the churches or collected during the session of this body and to disburse the same for the objects stated. He shall present a report on all funds received and disbursed by him quarterly to the executive committee and at each annual session. The treasurer shall be bonded at an amount of not less than $1,000.00. The books of the treasurer shall be audited at the close of each year at the direction of the Finance Committee.

e. Associational Missionary—It shall be the duty of the Associational Missionary:

(1) To work with and promote the Sunday School, Training Union, Brotherhood, Woman's Missionary Union, Music and Evangelism through a strong associational program.

(2) Work with all churches of the association with the purpose of strengthening the work in each and especially the smaller churches.

(3) Counsel with all churches of the association, where churches desire, in regard to securing pastors, forming church fields, building pastors' homes, retirement, adequate salaries, etc.

(4) Be a counselor and brother to the pastors of the association.

(5) Lead in surveying new areas, and setting up new work, and direct the missions program of the association.

(6) Visit in all the churches each year and preach when invited to do so, to supply in the churches as the pastors invite him to do so.

(7) Seek to find and enlist the strongest leaders in the associational program.

(8) Promote teaching and training courses in the local churches and on an associational-wide basis.

(9) Encourage cooperation with the denominational program in the association and the churches.

(10) Supervise such special efforts as deacon schools, enlargement campaigns and simultaneous efforts.

(11) Be on the alert for soul-winning opportunities at all times.

(12) To develop work where not in existence, to coordinate work between churches and organizations, to find and develop leadership to keep our work in line with state and southwide work, and to assemble and distribute information pertaining to our associational program.

9. Associational Officers:

a. Sunday School Superintendent—It shall be the duty of the Associational Sunday School Superintendent to plan and promote the total program of the Sunday School within the bounds of the association with special emphasis on better trained teachers and officers, more and better Vacation Bible Schools, and a wider participation in January Bible Study and Sunday School Preparation Week. He shall make a quarterly report to the Executive Committee and an annual report to the association.

b. Training Union Director—It shall be the duty of the Associational Training Union Director to plan and promote the total Training Union program within the bounds of the association using the special emphasis listed in the Training Union Calendar. He shall make a quarterly report to the Executive Committee and an annual report to the association.

c. Brotherhood President—It shall be the duty of the Associational Brotherhood President to promote the total Brotherhood program with special emphasis on enlisting more laymen in the support of the total church program. He shall make a quarterly report to the Executive Committee and an annual report to the association.

d. Woman's Missionary Union President—It shall be the duty of the Woman's Missionary President to plan and promote the work of Woman's Missionary Union work within the bounds of the association with special emphasis on the special weeks of prayer and the enlistment and training of youth in the support of the total missionary effort of the church. Make a quarterly report to the executive committee and an annual report to the association.

e. Music Director—It shall be the duty of the Associational Music Director to plan and direct the music for all the meetings of the association. He shall seek to stimulate interest in good church music through clinics, study courses, music schools, hymn sings, in the churches and in association-wide efforts. Make a quarterly report to the executive committee and an annual report to the association.

f. Chairman of Evangelism—The Chairman of Evangelism shall promote a vigorous program of evangelism throughout the association, using materials, suggestions, and programs of our state and Southern Baptist Department of Evangelism where possible. He shall upon request, assist churches desiring his help in securing evangelists for revival meetings. He shall plan and direct simultaneous evangelistic efforts in the association when desired. Make an annual report to the association.

10. Committees:

a. Nominating Committee—The Nominating Committee shall be composed of three (3) members, appointed by the moderator at the annual session to nominate all officers of the association except as otherwise provided for in the constitution. This committee shall submit the name of Sunday School Superintendent, Training Union Director, Brotherhood President, and WMU President to the executive committee for approval at its July meeting in order that they may assist the nominating committee in an advisory capacity in nominating a full slate of organizational officers.

b. Program Committee—The Program Committee composed of not less than three (3) members shall be appointed by the moderator at the annual session to plan the program for the next annual meeting of the association. The committee shall make sure that those who are to make reports and others appearing on the program are notified well in advance of the meeting so they will have ample time to make preparation for such. The committee shall prepare tentative copies of the program to be distributed among the churches and to those appearing on the program prior to the annual meeting.

c. Resolutions Committee—Composed of three (3) members, appointed by the moderator, at the beginning of the first session of the annual meeting, shall draw up and present to the association, resolutions of appreciation and any other resolutions it may deem expedient.

d. Place and Preacher Committee—Composed of three (3) members appointed by the moderator at the beginning of the first session of the annual meeting, shall receive or solicit invitations for the place or places of meeting for the next annual meeting of the association, and shall recommend the place or places. It shall also recommend the preacher and alternate for the Missionary and Doctrinal sermons which shall be given one on the first day and the other on the second day to be alternated from year to year.

e. Missions Committee—Composed of the following associational officers: Sunday School Superintendent, Training Union Director, Woman's Missionary Union President, Brotherhood President, Chairman of Evangelism, Treasurer, and Moderator. This committee shall work with the missionary in promoting the work of the association, and lead and assist in organizing new churches and in beginning new mission stations. If such advice is sought it shall advise any group seeking to organize a new church. It shall also seek to help any member church desiring assistance with its problems. This committee shall receive applications from churches desiring to join the association and make recommendations to the association. When without a missionary, this committee shall seek out and recommend to the association, or its executive committee, for electing a new missionary.

f. Evangelism Committee—Composed of the heads of the associational organizations and the Chairman of Evangelism, shall promote the work of evangelism in the association in cooperation with the association and the State Department of Evangelism. All plans and programs to be subject to the approval of the association or its executive committee.

g. Finance Committee—Composed of three (3) members including the Treasurer, shall study the association's financial needs for an adequate program, present a budget to the association for the following year, devise plans for securing the cooperation of the churches in raising funds to meet the budget, and make a written report to the annual meeting. In the event that the treasurer cannot fulfill his duties, the chairman shall be empowered to act and sign checks until such time as a new treasurer is secured.

h. Ordination Committee—Composed of the Moderator and four (4) other members, shall when requested by a member church, assist with the examination and ordination of a candidate for the Gospel Ministry. Each candidate shall be examined as to his Christian experience, call to and preparation for the ministry, doctrinal beliefs, and attitude toward our denomination and its program.

i. Constitution and Policy Committee—Composed of three (3) members, shall be available to study any changes or revisions in the Constitution, and to make recommendations as needed to keep the Constitution in line with the policies and programs of the association.

j. Calendar Committee—Composed of the heads of the associational organizations, the Chairman of Evangelism, and Missionary, shall work out as soon as possible each year an associational calendar for the coming year and present same to the executive committee for adoption.

k. Standing Committee—Composed of Chairman of Christian Literature, Chairman on Baptist Hospital, Chairman on World Missions, Chairman on Social Service and Civic Righteousness, Chairman on Christian Education, Chairman on American Bible Society, Chairman on Children's Homes, Chairman on Homes for Aging, Chairman on Ministers' Retirement, Chairman on Evangelism, and Chairman on Memorials. Their duties shall consist of communicating (personal visitation if possible), and promoting through the churches of the association the work of each institution or agency they represent. They shall make an annual report to the association.

11. The Executive Board or Committee shall be composed of all associational officers, the associational missionary (ex-officio), each active pastor, one lay member chosen by each member church from its membership and certified to the association in its annual report, and chairmen of all standing committees of the association. The executive board or committee shall have the authority to act for the association between sessions, except as limited by the constitution. It shall be the duty of this board or committee to meet quarterly, and to make reports and recommendations to the association at its annual meeting.

12. The association shall hold an annual meeting commencing on Tuesday after the fourth Sunday in October.

13. A meeting of the association may be called by the moderator at any time by the consent of five members of the executive committee. Each church shall be notified of such a meeting in time to send messengers.

14. This association shall have the right to exclude from its membership any church that departs from New Testament principles.

15. Any church desiring to become a member of this association may make application through the Missions Committee of the association. This application must be made at least one month prior to the annual meeting of the association. The church, upon the recommendation of the Missions Committee, shall be received under the watchcare of the association for one year. In the interim the Missions Committee shall examine the doctrine of the church and the church's acceptance of Baptist witness.

16. The association may invite visitors to seats and extend to them all the privileges of the messengers except that of voting.

17. By appointment, at each annual meeting, an introductory sermon or address on missions shall be delivered.

18. This constitution may be amended at any annual session, by a vote of two-thirds of the messengers present, provided that notice shall be given in the morning of the day on which such motion will be presented.

19. The association shall elect three trustees from the members composing the association, who shall serve with the moderator, as the trustees of the Little River Baptist Association, and whose duty it shall be to take and hold title to the property, both real and personal, owned by the association. The term of office of the trustees so elected shall continue until their successors are elected or until they shall be removed or deceased. The moderator of the association shall serve as a trustee until such time as his successor is elected and qualified.

ANGIER BAPTIST CHURCH, ANGIER, N. C.

PROCEEDINGS

1. The Ninetysecond Annual Session of the Little River Baptist Association opened at 7:00 p. m., October 24, 1967 in the Friendship Baptist Church, Bunnlevel, North Carolina. Reverend Charles Stafford led the congregation in the singing of "Stepping in the Light." Rev. Clyde Johnson then led in the scripture reading. The Friendship Baptist Church Choir presented special music—"Teach Me to Pray." The Rev. Clyde Johnson then led the congregation in the opening prayer.

2. The moderator recognized the Clerk who called the roll of churches. It was noted that nine churches were absent from the roll call. A motion that the members of the association now present and those later reported, constitute the Ninety-second Annual Session of the Little River Baptist Association was properly made, seconded and passed. The moderator recognized Rev. Everett Marion who moved that the printed program now in the hands of the delegates be adopted as the program for the associational meetings of this annual session. The motion was seconded and passed.

3. The Moderator recognized the Associational Missionary, Julius Holloway, for the purpose of recognizing new pastors in the association.

4. The Moderator, Rev. Tom M. Freeman, appointed the following committees:

NOMINATING COMMITTEE:
Charles Stafford, Chairman
Alvin S. Ellis
Mrs. Weldon Johnson

PROGRAM COMMITTEE:
C. W. Driver, Chairman
Alton Stephenson
Howard Roseman

RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE:
Alva Ellis, Chairman
Mrs. Wesley McLeod
H. Paul Strickland

PLACE AND PREACHER COMMITTEE:
Floyd Enzor, Chairman
Sam Hudson
Walter Dobbins

5. The Moderator called on Mrs. Wesley McLeod who presented the Associational W.M.U. Report, which was adopted as follows:

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION'S REPORT

For the year 1966-67 Woman's Missionary Union's work was planned under the theme, "A Church Fulfilling Its Mission through Education," using the Scripture, "Grow in Grace and in Knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ." (2 Peter 3:18).

Knowing that we need training and study in order to serve Christ well, we began the new year with a Leadership Conference and the Basic Leadership Courses.

We met at Buies Creek Baptist Church on September 15, 1966 for the Leadership Conference and at Friendship Baptist Church for the Basic Leadership Courses on October 6, 13, and 20.

Woman's Missionary Union joined with Brotherhood in planning and promoting an Associational Prayer Retreat for January 16, 1967 at Oak Grove Baptist Church. We hope that in the future we can have more meetings such as this.

On April 3, 1967 our W.M.U. held its Annual Spring Meeting at the First Baptist Church of Erwin. Mrs. R. Knolan Benfield, State W.M.U. president and Miss Dee Ann Dozier, daughter of missionaries in Japan, were guest speakers. Mrs. Walter Gentry was elected as W.M.U. president for next year. Total registration was 259 with 26 churches represented. The theme of the meeting was "Growing in Grace and Knowledge of our Lord."

And our youth met. . . . Our Y.W.A.'s had an overnight house party on May 12 at the Angier Baptist Church.

The G.A.'s had a rally at Antioch Baptist Church on May 20. Rev. Everett Marion, pastor of Chalybeate Springs Church, was speaker.

We had our Third Annual Sunbeam Day Camp at Camp ABRA near Angier on August 2. The highlight of the day for the children and leaders was a message on mission work in Nigeria given by Mrs. D. B. Andrews of Chalybeate Springs.

Special efforts were made to promote W.M.U. week at Ridgecrest August 10-16 and 14 of our women responded by attending.

During the summer mission organizations were started in Macedonia and Piney Grove Chapel Churches. There are mission organizations in 29 of the 34 churches and missions in our association.

"To God be the Glory both now and to the day of eternity" (2 Peter 3:18). May He be glorified in us . . . that our children might know Him . . . that our neighborhood might see Him . . . that those in another land might hear about Him and be drawn unto Him.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Wesley McLeod

6. The Moderator recognized Larry Jones who presented the Associational Brotherhood Report, which was adopted as follows:

BROTHERHOOD REPORT

When the Brotherhood began in 1907 as a layman's missionary movement, its purpose was to stimulate the zeal and activity of laymen to a more thorough consecration of their time, prayers, and means to the glory of God in world-wide evangelism.

A prime objective of the movement was the enlistment of men in the affairs of Christ's Kingdom. It was a systematic effort on the part of those laymen who had a constraining vision to bring the great mass of laymen face to face with their religious obligations. It was an appeal to laymen from the standpoint of laymen. It urged men to pray daily, study diligently, plan wisely, serve zealously, and give generously that the Kingdom of Christ might prosper.

However, the heart of the Brotherhood work has always been missions and missionary education. Thus, in recent years it has turned more to its original objectives, so that now it carries the responsibility for missionary education for boys, young men, and men. Such education seeks to develop a Christlike concern for all peoples, an intimate knowledge of how Christian fellowship is being extended at home and abroad, and a hearty participation in all efforts to enlarge this fellowship of Christian faith until it covers the earth.

There will be hope for world evangelization as long as there are men and boys in our churches who organize themselves for the purpose of becoming informed about world needs, and who are willing to become personally involved in world missions.

In our own Little River Association other great strides have been made in our Brotherhood enrollment plans, but it has fallen far short of what it should be. I would trust that in the year to come that through our Brotherhood we would have a much greater outreach for Christ.

Respectfully submitted,
Lawrence Jones

7. The Moderator called on Rev. Julius Holloway who presented the Associational Missionary's Report, which was adopted as follows:

MISSIONARY'S REPORT

I have preached in our churches 23 times for worship services. I have attended Thursday prayer meeting and preached most of the morning services at Crestview Mission, spoke at eight WMU meetings, three Sunbeam meetings, 10 prayer meetings other than Crestview, devotions at garment factories seven times, dedication of churches and parsonages eight times, in rest homes three times, at homecomings five times, taught seven mission studies, showed 47 filmstrips, 10 motion pictures, attended 11 pastors' conferences, helped ordain three ministers, helped ordain deacons in 12 churches, worked in four Vacation Bible Schools, officiated at one wedding, eight funerals, made 35 hospital visits, attended 21 association meetings, 17 State and Southern Baptist meetings, attended 35 committee meetings, heard 12 professions of faith, drove 28,623 miles.

We have had the following pastors come to us this year:

Layton's Chapel, Stacy Carter; Holly Springs, Morris Andrews; Swann's Station, W. R. Schillinger; Lillington, Westfield, Jimmy Johnson (supply); Pleasant Memory; Piney Grove Chapel, Scott Mears; East Erwin, Walter R. Dobbins; Duncan, Lawrence Jones, Neill's Creek, Erwin First, Scott Turner, (supply); Erwin South, Ewell Woolard (supply).

Baptists first came together in associations for fellowship and for cooperation in MISSIONS and EDUCATION. They did not draw up a creed on which they could agree as a basis of their association. They never tried to force any statement or creed on any individual or congregation. They felt that each Baptist and each congregation must seek the will of God and the light of the New Testament to guide them in matters of faith and practice. Often statements of faith were made and published to express beliefs which they held in common but even these expressions left room for freedom of interpretation. Congregations gathered and prayed and did what seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to them.

The life of our denomination is dependent upon the life and power of the local church and the life and power of the local churches is related to the strength and effectiveness of the association. If our denominational policies and programs are to be of the people, by the people and for the people we must strengthen our associational life. The association can and must fill a vital role in the on-going work of the churches.

The association must provide for the spiritual welfare and fellowship of all the churches in the association. Just as Christians are urged to watch over one another in love, so churches should watch over one another in love. The association is a channel through which this watchcare is expressed. It will be difficult to watch over one another unless we know one another. Perhaps some time should be given on the annual program when a messenger from each church could report on the state of their church. Some more time might be given to discuss what we believe and why we believe. Then some time could be spent on evaluating denominational plans, policies, and proposals. I believe more of the people somehow should be involved in expressions and reports. This would take more time but I believe we need plan for it.

The Association must also serve as a two-way channel of information and assistance between the churches and State and Southern Baptist Conventions and their agencies. The association and its leaders must help the churches to choose wisely what programs and materials will help them the most. No one church can do all that is suggested nor is it expected to try. After all, churches were not made for the denomination, but the denomination for the churches. The association can be a meeting ground for the exchange of Baptist experience and information about Baptist work. Any Baptist body beyond the local church exists to help the church when help is needed or be a channel through which one can help another and all work together to win the lost and train the saved in worship, proclamation, education and ministry.

The association can discover areas of need and channel the resources of the churches and other denominational agencies jointly or separately to meet these needs.

We are told that we are destined for a shiny, chrome-plated, gadget-filled world of tomorrow. The computer and microfilm will make it possible to compress a million pages of print into a stack of 3x5 cards four inches high. One hundred million cars will clog the highways and streets. Telephones will be equipped with viewers so you may see the one with whom you are speaking. The work week is expected to drop to thirty hours. Automation will make it possible to produce the same amount of goods with one-tenth of present labor force.

These changes make it urgent that the association and churches become more concerned about the future, the people and their relation to God and one another. We will need to discover where we are and who we are. We will need to break out of our self-centeredness and get a vision of the need to reach people for Christ and train them to reach others.

This year of ministry will give us an opportunity to burst out of tradition and come to grips with the needs of the world around us. Through ministry we will have a chance to prove the church vital and concerned with man and the circumstance in which he lives. SOME are saying the church is dead, it no longer speaks to the needs of people, it is not reaching people. Increase in membership has slowed to an almost halt. Attendance in all church meetings and organizations has dropped.

Jesus said, "And I, if I be lifted up will draw all men unto me." Christ must be lifted up in preaching and personal witness, in Christ-like deeds by Christ-like people. Too long we have tried to grow great institutions. The outsider sees the church as a self-centered organization without much concern for people as individuals with deep spiritual needs. They do not see our concern to give them joy and a better life.

This year of ministry offers the church an opportunity to prove the worth of the church to the world to seek to meet the needs of persons in Jesus' name. Ministry has a two-fold purpose: To express Christian love in Jesus' name and to meet the total needs spiritual and physical of all persons. Ministry is not optional, it is the mission of the church.

The Little River Association stands ready through its missionary and other officers to help the churches conduct surveys, train leaders, provide motivation, present challenges, inform about resources offered by the denomination to assist you.

If our churches and association sleeps through this opportunity of ministry to the needs of the people in our area we may just wake up to find the world has moved on and left us or even worse, wake up and find that the Lord has departed from us.

OUR CHURCHES MUST GATHER FOR WORSHIP AND DEDICATION AND THEN SCATTER ABROAD TO WITNESS AND MINISTER.

9. The Moderator recognized Mrs. Tom Freeman to present the World Missions Report which was adopted as follows:

WORLD MISSIONS REPORT

In his year-end report for 1966, Dr. Jesse C. Fletcher, secretary for missionary personnel, said, "The Southern Baptist Missionary force numbered 2,212 on December 31, 1966, a net gain of 142 for the year, and the third year in the past four that a gain in excess of 100 has been achieved." We had missionaries in 65 countries or political entities on May 1, 1967, with a total of 2,290 on the overseas staff.

Southern Baptists continue to increase their missionary giving. The Lottie Moon Offering for World Missions totaled $13,760,147 last year, the largest love offering for worldwide mission work given by any Christian body in the history of foreign missions, so far as we know. In addition to this, Southern Baptists gave through the Cooperative Program a total of $11,829,531, which with miscellaneous gifts, brought our total giving for world missions to $28 595,730 for the year.

This sounds very large, and it is. But it amounts to only $2.47 per member of our Southern Baptist churches for the year, and it is only 4 per cent of our total gifts through the churches. Even with the gain of 142 missionaries the past year and the giving of 28½ million dollars for our mission work, many missionary personnel needs are still not met and many needs remain in the areas of church development, schools and student work, publications, hospitals and benevolent ministries.

The leading of persons to faith in Jesus Christ is the ultimate purpose of all our missionary endeavors. The cultivation of New Testament churches is still the wisest investment of our resources. At the close of 1966 there were 4.407 churches (3,076 of them self-supporting), 6.542 missions points and 3,904 national pastors related to our Southern Baptist work.

These reported a total of 51,680 baptisms, a far higher rate than our Southern Baptist churches at home. Evangelistic campaigns were held in 10 Latin-American countries and in Ghana and Japan. Baptist radio and television efforts were strengthened in all areas, particularly in the Orient.

Dr. Fletcher says: "Despite the chaotic conditions in which we work and the increasingly complex nature of the work itself, God's people have no excuse for anything less than a total response to His call for a ministry of reconciliation. No generation ever had a better opportunity to evangelize than this one."

SECOND DAY

11. The meeting for the second day opened at 9:30 a. m. in the Angier Baptist Church with the congregational song. Morris Andrews read the scripture and led in the morning prayer. The host pastor, R. Lewis Beal, welcomed the association to the Angier Baptist Church.

12. The Moderator presented the Executive Committee Report which was adopted as follows:

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORT

The Executive Committee has met four times since the last annual session, and the actions taken have been often historic. We are concerned with the sale of the bonds for the construction of the home for our missionary, and with the construction of that home, but also with the attendance and participation of our pastors and churches in our cooperative work.

Attendance at the quarterly meetings has been about as usual for us, but this leaves much to be desired. It is a cause for concern that so few of our laymen attend these meetings. We need to try to find some way to increase the interest and participation of our laymen, as well as some of the pastors, in these meetings.

During the year we promoted Campbell College Appreciation Day, with Lewis Beal, of Angier, chairman of the committee to plan and carry out the program. An excellent program was planned. Although the day selected turned out to be a rainy day, so that we could not have the outdoor picnic, we ate in the college cafeteria and had a fine program in Turner Auditorium. We presented a color television set to Dr. and Mrs. Leslie Campbell and expressed our appreciation to him for his contributions to our churches, our association and to Campbell College through the more than a half century of his work in this area.

A Construction Committee for the Missionary's Home was appointed by the Moderator with the approval of the Executive Committee: W. Earl Jones, William A. Johnson, Thomas Allen, Mrs. Harvey O'Quinn, and Mrs. Mary Jo Mann. This committee has met several times during the summer and fall.

The first meeting with the contractor, Mr. R. M. Turlington, revealed that the house we had planned could not be placed on the lot we had purchased on Highway 421 on the western edge of Lillington. A prayerful search for some way out of this impasse resulted in the selection of a new site. At a meeting in the Friendship Church on May 22, 1967, the Executive Committee voted to accept an offer of Mr. A. J. White to sell us a lot for $1,500 and to donate another lot adjacent to it, providing a frontage of 236 feet on a paved street with both water and sewer available. The lot is in an excellent residential section of Lillington at the intersection of Garden and 13th Streets.

By the time we had settled the matter of the site, costs had risen to the extent that we had to renegotiate the contract with Mr. Turlington to build the house. Athough the actual contract was raised less than $1,000 we had to face the fact that water and sewer tap, driveway, shrubbery and some other items not in the contract will raise the total cost to about $35,000 for the house.

The bond issue of $25,000 has been sold and we have the responsibility of selling the original site. We expect to secure a sale on it that will return its total cost to the association, to be applied to the missionary home project.

The minutes of our last annual session have not been printed, and the Executive Committee at the July 31st meeting asked the Clerk to have no more than 200 printed, since they will be of use only as history from now on. The Moderator again urges our pastors to place a first priority on the regular quarterly meetings of the Executive Committee and to secure to attendance and participation of the laymen from your pastorates.

In a time when church growth is declining, a time when many churches are just "holding on," we need to rededicate ourselves to the challenge of Christ to be faithful and fervent witnesses for Him in our communities.

Tom M. Freeman, Moderator

13. The Moderator recognized Jesse Croom who presented the Sunday School Report which was adopted as follows:

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

The Great Commission of our Lord continues to be the marching orders for the twentieth century church. We are reminded that Christ commanded those who would continue his work to "Go and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things. . . ."

Southern Baptists have designated the Sunday School as the organization with the primary responsibility of teaching the Biblical revelation. One way that the church can fulfill the purpose of Christ on earth is by leading its members in meaningful Bible study. It teaches to members God's self-revelation—His redemptive purpose—in order that these persons may learn about God as revealed in Christ and respond to Him in daily life.

The Sunday School does not teach "the Bible" alone, but has been assigned the task of Biblical revelation. Knowledge of the Bible as a book is not sufficient for the Christian life. The Sunday School's purpose in teaching the Biblical revelation is that individuals may see God at work in history and specifically in Christ; and then that they may respond to Him through faith, love, and obedience.

Other tasks assigned to the Sunday School include: leading in reaching all prospects for the church; leading all church members to worship, witness, learn and minister daily; providing organization and leadership for special projects of the church; and, providing and interpreting information regarding the work of the church and the denomination. All of these tasks are significant means by which we can help our church to fulfill its mission.

This year we are asking the churches of our association to accept a goal of at least 5 per cent net increase in enrollment. This is our part in helping North Carolina Baptists reach a goal of one million enrolled in Sunday School by 1970. This goal is not an end in itself, but rather it is a means of challenging us to greater concern and greater outreach. If we are able to do this, we must enlist and train workers, locate prospects, provide needed organization and space, and then reach out to persons. Growth will come.

"A church fulfilling its mission through ministry" will be the emphasis for Southern Baptists in 1967-68. This presents a challenge to us, but only as the words become a living and vital part of our Christian experience. We are all encouraged to make this a year in which we shall be more concerned about our mission to minister . . . as a church and as individuals.

There are many things the Sunday School can do to help the church fulfill the purpose of Christ on earth. Among the more significant in 1967-68 are: January Bible Study, Weekday Bible Study, Mission and Church Vacation Bible Schools, Bible Study Provisions for those who cannot attend Sunday School, and Fellowship Bible Classes. Your church can do all, or at least part, of these. Plan now to make your Sunday School a meaningful part of your church.

Respectfully submitted,
Jesse Croom, Jr.

14. The Moderator recognized Walter Gentry who presented the Training Union Report. Upon motion of Walter Gentry, seconded by Everett Marion, the following report was adopted by the session:

TRAINING UNION REPORT

The suggested objective of the Associational Training Union program is to assist the churches in accomplishing their training tasks. These basic tasks are:

1. Training church leaders to establish, conduct, enlarge and improve the training program of their churches.
2. Train church general officers and committees.
3. Provide and interpret information regarding the work of the churches and denomination.
4. Provide organization and leadership for the special projects of the association.

To fulfill these objectives your Associational Training Union organization has planned and promoted the following activities.

1. ASSOCIATIONAL TRAINING UNION LEADERSHIP CLINIC was held at the Buies Creek Church on October 17, 1966. Our State training workers lead the conferences and our attendance was 55 with 11 churches as represented.

2. MOBILIZATION which is our biggest Training Union meeting of the year was held at the Lillington Church on December 5, 1966. The theme was "Disciples Trained and Committed." A drama, presented by the Antioch Training Union, with taped narration challenged us to be better trained and more committed disciples for our Lord. The total attendance was 375 with 18 churches represented.

3. ASSOCIATIONAL TOURNAMENT NIGHT proved very successful this year with participants in each tournament. There were 112 present at the Swann's Station Baptist Church.

4. REGIONAL TRAINING UNION CONVENTION was held in Raleigh and our association was well represented. All 12 of our Juniors were winners in the Junior memory work. Three of these were declared State winners for four years at Caswell.

5. SUMMER ASSEMBLIES are always enjoyed by those attending. Many of our people attended our Assembly by the Sea at Caswell during Training Union Weeks. Much could be said of the information, and inspiration one receives there. These experiences are very valuable to old and young alike.

If our Associational Training Union Program is to continue to make progress, then we must face up to a great need; that of more churches lending a hand in our Associational Training Union work. The task is not an easy one to be sure but it is a most challenging one and a most worthy one. Let us not grow slack in our efforts as we continue Training in Church Membership.

Rev. Walter F. Gentry, Director

15 The Moderator recognized Julius Holloway to present the Christian Literature Report for Mrs. Haywood Penny. The report was adopted as follows:

CHRISTIAN LITERATURE REPORT

In this demanding twentieth century we, as Christians, find ourselves in competition with almost every worldly affair. All too often we compromise with the world. We find time to read the daily news, to keep up with world affairs and local events but neglect to read the things that make us better Christians.

Perhaps the reason we do not read more good books is because we do not read The Book—the Bible—more. When we leave God's Word unread, no time is given for God to speak to us through His Holy Scriptures. Someone has said that our American people are more ripe for sects and hersies than ever before because we do not know what is truth as our Bible reveals it. The Bible is the greatest literature ever written, "For prophecy came not in old time by the will of man, but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Spirit." God saw fit to reveal His nature and will through writing. All other Christian literature has its basic origin in the Holy Word of God.

As Baptists we can place before our people—regardless of age, a wealth of attractive and helpful literature published by our denomination. We have two Baptist papers, the Biblical Recorder and Charity and Children, which informs and encourages us concerning Baptist work in our state. Information of foreign mission work around the world comes to us through the Commission; our home mission work information furnished to us through the Home Mission Magazine. Through the Woman's Missionary Union we can have mission magazines for all age groups and the men can have the Brotherhood Journal and the boys the Ambassador Life.

Our Sunday School Board also provides us with literature for reaching and training every age group in our church. "Open Windows," a devotion booklet, is very good for private or family devotions. "Home Life" is just what the title suggests—a family magazine. It points toward founding and maintaining a Christian atmosphere in the home. It includes inspirational, entertaining and informative articles each month.

The consideration of Christian literature could hardly be complete without some mention of the reading of constructive books. "Christianity Today" tells us that good books are wanted and needed, and especially in our churches. We should think of our library as a ministry. Biographies of great Christians should be circulated and other books that inspire and challenge the readers to higher living. Many inquiring Christians turn to the public library and they find there that evangelical books are in short supply, even though every other religion may be present in profusion. We are grateful for our Baptist Book Stores and the books they sell.

May we take advantage of the opportunity which is ours through the ministry of providing Christian literature for the minds of our young people.

Respectfully yours,
Mrs. Haywood Penny

Morris Grant, editor of the Biblical Recorder, spoke to the report. Rev. Sam Hudson was recognized by the Moderator; Rev. Hudson briefly spoke in favor of the churches putting the Biblical Recorder in their respective budgets.

16. The Moderator recognized Dr. L. S. Beard who presented the Christian Education Report. The report was adopted as follows:

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION REPORT

The Baptist Education Study Task* has identified a number of problems and issues that face Southern Baptists in the operation of their colleges. The most critical of these relate to rising operating costs in face of inadequate funds a shortage of dedicated Baptist teachers, and lack of clearly defined objectives in higher education. A serious problem of a different sort is the decline of students preparing for the gospel ministry, the mission fields, and other professions that would place them in the vanguard of the evangelistic effort.

Financial problems have always been heavy, but never to the extent they now are. With rising operating costs, income from the convention, donations, and endowment (although arithmetically greater than ever) are proportionately smaller in magnitude than in the past, and the colleges have been forced to rely ever more heavily upon student fees. This has resulted in mounting tuition costs since World War II, and the end of the trend is nowhere in sight. Rising tuition is making it increasingly difficult for many worthy young people to attend Baptist colleges.

A shortage of both classroom space and dedicated Christian teachers has resulted in crowded conditions and lessened individual contact between student and teacher. Baptist colleges have traditionally been institutions where young people with problems could receive personal attention and help, but more and more, especially in lower division courses, the individual student is becoming swallowed up in the crowd. The instructor does well to learn his name, let alone identify areas of need and provide special help.

Federal aid for Baptist colleges is not a dead issue in North Carolina, for some Baptists continue to turn a wistful eye in that direction. The recent report of the Federal Aid Study Committee of the South Carolina Baptist Convention, which would permit acceptance of Federal funds by individual colleges at the discretion of their trustees, may well intensify the temptation for North Carolina Baptists. Past and current practice regarding such things as Social Security benefits for pastors, welfare funds for children's homes, fire and police protection for churches, construction funds for Baptist hospitals, low interest government loans for dormitory construction, and low-rate mailing privileges for churches have been cited as inconsistencies relating to our refusal to accept Federal funds for college use. These matters need thoughtful consideration, although some fail to distinguish between such things as individual rights of citizens and institutional rights, privilege to use of public facilities by non-religious organizations and discriminatory denial of such privileges to sectarian institutions, payment for services rendered and receipts for anticipated services. In short, we need to make explicit both in word and in deed what we mean by separation of church and state. As it is could well find ourselves taking the position that Paul should not have preached in Rome since he got there at government expense.

Whether Federal funds will result in loss of control is a proper question to ask. Assurances have been proffered that no Federal control will be exercised. Such assurances, however well intended, can apply only to the present, for no one can foresee all future implications. No one has a right to expect public funds to be made available without giving responsible interests in return. If such funds are accepted, we would have no moral right, if indeed the legal privilege, to reserve our colleges for Baptist young people should the need arise, but would be obligated to accept any and all without regard to religious affiliation. If we conclude that support for the Baptist colleges in North Carolina should come from those who own them, it becomes imperative then that we North Carolina Baptists become more determined in our support of them.

Overshadowing in importance the matter of control is the use of public tax money to support the work the Lord assigned to His followers. Past and present practice, unless demonstrably concordant with the scriptures, is certainly not the criterion for determining what is righteous in such matters.

North Carolina Baptists decided that higher education constitutes a proper part of their Christian endeavor when they undertook the establishment and operation of their seven colleges. That the education administered by these colleges was to be Christian in character was taken for granted and has been reiterated time and again. Education that fails to expouse academic excellence is unworthy, and that which does not predicate salvation by grace through faith in the crucified and risen Lord is not Christian. Having its roots in Christian faith on the one hand and scholastic endeavor on the other, the task of Christian education requires the cooperative labors of our Baptist churches and our Baptist colleges.

Respectfully submitted,
L. Stanford Beard

*Report of the Findings Committee, Baptist Education Study Task, Education Commission, Southern Baptist Convention, Nashville, Tenn., 1967.

Jerry Jackson spoke to the report and briefly discussed the "Best Program" which is a study concerning higher education in Baptist Colleges. "Best Program" will be held at Campbell College on March 11, 1968.

17. The Moderator opened the floor for the consideration of any business to come before the session. The Moderator informed the association that a $250.00 option check for a ninety-day option had been delivered to the officials of the association as an offer to purchase the Parrish lot near the Town of Lillington for a total purchase price of $2,250.00, a balance of $2,000.00 being due upon the delivery of a deed by the association with general warranties of title. It was pointed out by the Moderator that the Parrish lot was the land purchased for the purpose of constructing an Associational Missionary Home, but that said land proved to be inadequate for said purpose in that the lot was too small to construct the Missionary Home which the association had authorized. Upon motion properly made and seconded, the following resolution was adopted:

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the lot purchased from W. H. Parrish and wife as the site for the home for the Association's Missionary was not large enough to accommodate the building selected by the building committee and by reason thereof it was necessary to acquire from A. J. White and wife a lot in Forest Hills Subdivision in Lillington, North Carolina, as the site for said Missionary's Home, said lot fronting 236 feet on the west side of the 13th Street and 144 on the south side of Garden Street; and

WHEREAS, the Little River Baptist Association has no further need for the site purchased from W. H. Parrish and the same should be sold, and W. H. Parrish has secured a prospective purchaser who is willing to pay the sum of Twenty-Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($2,250.) for said lot, this being the amount the association paid for said property at the time it was acquired; and

WHEREAS, the site purchased from W. H. Parrish and wife has been heretofore pledged to secure the payment of bonds in the amount of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.) heretofore issued to provide funds with which to erect said home and by reason of the action of this association taken at its 1966 Annual Session said Parrish property was subjected to the terms of that Trust Indenture and that Mortgage dated October 29, 1966, from Little River Baptist Association to W. A. Johnson, Trustee, for the benefit of the holders of said bonds; and

WHEREAS, by reason of the change in the site of the home for said Associational Missionary as hereinabove set forth the property acquired from A. J. White and wife should be substituted for said bonds and the Parrish property should be removed and released from said Trust Indenture and said Mortgage.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LITTLE RIVER BAPTIST ASSOCIATION IN ANNUAL SESSION ASSEMBLED:

1. That the action of the executive committee in shifting the site of the home for the Associational Missionary from the Parrish property to the A. J. White property be and the same is hereby in all respects ratified and approved and the action of the executive committee in acquiring said new site from A. J. White and wife and paying the purchase price thereof be and the same is hereby in all respects ratified and confirmed.

2. That the sale of the Parrish property to the proposed purchaser at and for the cash sum of Twenty-Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($2,250.) be and the same is hereby authorized and the proper officers of this association are directed and empowered to execute such documents as may be necessary to convey the title to said property to the purchaser upon receipt of the purchase price in the agreed amount of Twenty-Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($2,250.).

3. That the officers of this association be and they are hereby authorized, directed and empowered to take such action as may be necessary to remove the Parrish lot from the lien of said hereinabove referred to Trust Indenture and Mortgage and to execute and deliver a new Trust Indenture as well as a new Mortgage covering the property upon which the home is now being constructed to secure the heretofore issued bonds, and said Trust Indenture and Mortgage shall contain the same terms and provisions as are set forth in said original Trust Indenture and Mortgage, except that said document shall cover the White property in lieu of the Parrish property.

18. After the singing of a congregational hymn the Moderator recognized Franklin Womack to present the Baptist Children's Home Report, which was adopted as follows:

BAPTIST CHILDREN'S HOMES REPORT

Helping children and young people to grow and develop toward Christian maturity is one of the greatest privileges in life. No task is more important than helping a child to grow into healthy, well-adjusted responsible citizenship. At the Children's Home we seek to provide the proper atmosphere, encouragement and supervision to assure the development of inborn, God given talents of our children.

This agency offers a variety of quality services to the children of families who have not been able to continue a satisfactory pattern of living together. A total of 33 cottages on five campuses provide group care of different kinds. There are two residences for emotionally disturbed children, convenient to a great medical center where psychiatric services are available. This fall, for the first time, a single cottage at Wallburg is being opened for the rehabilitation of boys.

In addition to group homes, the needs of many children are met through the use of foster homes. A growing interest in this phase of our work is encouraging. Many families are finding happiness and opportunity for service in caring for foster children. Thus, many boys and girls, who otherwise would not have this opportunity, are privileged to grow up in Christian homes. Should you have an "extra measure of love" to share in this way the homes would like to know of your interest.

Regional case work centers, staffed by trained social workers, are located in six prominent areas of the State and add to the ability of the homes to offer counseling services to distressed families and to those for whom family rehabilitation has been achieved.

In June of 1967 the first of the new family living cottages was completed and is being used by brothers and sisters who can profit by sharing the same home. This building was provided by Mr. and Mrs. William M. York of Greensboro, and is named the York Cottage. It is a model for the family living approach in group child care. A similar cottage is already under construction at Mills Home and two buildings of this type are now being built on the Kennedy Home campus.

The Child Development Center on the Mills Home Campus was established to serve the local community as a means of strengthening family life and to provide a demonstration and informational program which can offer assistance to churches in beginning any phase of weekday care and education for preschool children. During the 1967-68 session the center will serve 70 children and their families in two kindergarten groups and nursery school groups, with about 35 children in full day care. The staff is providing consultation services upon request to churches interested in the program.

Member of the Board of Trustees and the Staff of the Children's Homes are committed to the task of maintaining a Christian Program of Child Care, a program that will merit the undivided support and loyalty of our people and that will bring favor to our Lord. To that end it is our purpose to meet, as effectively as possible, the challenges of our day.

Respectfully submitted,
Franklin Womack

19. The Moderator recognized A. Howard Beard to present the Baptist Hospital Report, which was adopted as follows:

OUR BAPTIST MEDICAL CENTER: THE NEW DAY IN MEDICINE

In this day of rapid change in almost every area of our lives, there are few places in which change has been more rapid than in the field of medicine. In the last twenty-five years we have witnessed in medical care a transformation as dramatic as in almost any other area of life.

This period parallels the period of development of our Baptist Medical Center in Winston-Salem. This began in 1941, when our Hospital and our Medical School were joined to form the first and only such Baptist combination. Today it stands as one of the very fine medical centers of our country, reflecting the vast progress which has come in the field of medical care. All indications are that this progress will continue at an ever growing rate.

It is a day of increasing specialization, with men and women highly trained and dedicated in their special fields of medicine. It is a day of expanding research in medicine, as in industry, agriculture and business.

Many of the fruits of this work seem almost like modern miracles. There are new means of diagnosing our ills, such as the brain scan and the use of sound waves. New drugs are being developed almost daily for combatting disease, including antibiotics and new chemicals. There are new techniques in treating our ills, as in heart surgery, inhalation therapy, and replacing of organs of the body. There are new instruments to perform these miracles, as the cobalt machine, the heart-lung pump, the pacemaker for the heart, the laser beam in surgery. There are new facilities for better care of the patient, such as the intensive care unit and the progressive or minimal care unit.

There has developed a new concept in medicine in recognizing the patient as a person, and not just as a virus or a broken bone. He is now treated as a whole person, including his emotional and spiritual need as well as his physical problems. Psychiatry has developed, spiritual therapy is an important factor, and pastoral care is a part of the total care of the sick.

Such important progress necessarily means greatly increased cost in medical care. But the high cost is more than offset by service which gives us better health, more relief from suffering and handicaps, and added years to life.

This is not the work of an institution alone—it is a cooperative enterprise. It is a ministry in which we as churches and individual Christians join hands with those who serve in our Medical Center. If this service is made available to all our people who need it, we of necessity have to provide much of the means, for there are many who cannot pay for it. This is a wonderful opportunity when we by simply giving our money can share in so important a service to our brother in need—and even hear a "Well done," for "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

20. In the absence of Frank McLeod, the Moderator presented the Baptist Home for the Aging Report. The Rev. William Poole, Superintendent for the Homes for the Aging, was present and spoke to the report. The report was adopted as follows:

BAPTIST HOMES FOR THE AGING REPORTS

Your North Carolina Baptist Homes for the Aging have been on the move during the past year. In fact, we will be ready to move into our new home at Yanceyville in September and will be able to receive 30 more dear old people into the family of our homes. When the Yanceyville home, our fifth, is occupied, we will have a total of 200 deserving older men and women in our care in all of the homes.

As you know, we now have four homes and an infirmary in operation. Resthaven and the Hayes Home in Winston-Salem; the Albemarle Home at Albemarle; the Hamilton Home at Hamilton.

In these homes you have an eternal investment and can rejoice in the loving care which you are making possible for our older people. The majority are financially needy persons. and are supplemented through the love gifts of North Carolina Baptists. Two sources of income from the churches are increasingly vital in the support of our residents—the Special Day Offering, received on the third Sunday of February each year, and our share in the Cooperative Program.

The Special Day Offering for 1967 is at an all-time high and has increased by 10 per cent over last year. This is most commendable, but when we face the reality of costs, which have advanced by 20 per cent, and the maintenance of a new home and the care of 30 additional residents at Yanceyville, we could face a real crisis during the new year, unless the gifts from our Baptist people continue to increase in proportion to our needs.

We wish to thank all of our Baptist people across the State who are enabling us to minister to the aging in Christ's name, and we want all of you to know that each of your five homes exists for the people from all over our great State. We could not operate without your love, your prayers, your concern, and your financial support.

In the midst of our joys have been our sorrows. Our oldest resident, Aunt Fannie Drumwright, passed away in June, just short of her 106th birthday. She came to live with us at the age of 93, and the 13 years of her presence with us have been a shining example of the special significance of a Christian ministry to older people. The compassionate nursing care alone which this little lady received is reason enough to thank God for the people called Baptists, whose vision and concern for mankind have included the aging in answering the Master's call in the service of the Lord.

21. No report was made for the American Bible Society. However, the moderator, Tom Freeman, spoke about some of the work of the Bible Society.

22. The Moderator recognized Ted Williams of the Baptist State Convention for some remarks.

23. After a hymn of worship, the sermon was delivered by the Rev. John Joyner of the Kennebec Baptist Church. After the sermon the Campbell College Choir presented special music for the session. The morning session was adjourned with prayer.

AFTERNOON SESSION

24. The afternoon session was opened with the singing of a hymn. Walter R. Dobbins read scripture and led in the opening prayer.

25. The Moderator recognized Mrs. Haywood Roberts who read selective scripture and led in silent prayer as a memorial service to the deceased members of the association during the past year. The memorial service was concluded with the singing of a solo, "Come, Ye Disconsolate" by A. Howard Beard, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. McLean.

26. The Moderator recognized Walter F. Gentry to present the Social Service and Civic Righteousness Report, which was adopted as follows:

SOCIAL SERVICE AND CIVIC RIGHTEOUSNESS REPORT

For many years now these reports have been given to associations in annual meetings. Over the years they have been called by various names. Fifty years ago this report was called "Temperance Report," then it came to be called "Public Morals Report" and maybe by some other name. Today it is called Social Service and Civic Righteousness Report. I am prone to believe that what is involved in this report is more clearly revealed by the term "Applied Christianity".

The gospel is pertinent to every area of life. However, the Bible is not a rule book which clearly defines a specific course of action for every situation in life. It does reveal the principles which are applicable to every area of life. The task of applying these principles of life situations is left up to the individual Christian. Here is where we very often become confused and all mixed up. But the Lord does promise to give us wisdom and the Holy Spirit's help in this vastly important matter today.

There is no area where action on the part of Christian people is more desperately needed than in the area of social service and civic righteousness. Because we have not lived up to our profession as Christians and as churches the world at large has lost its respect for us.

The Christian today needs to examine all socially accepted customs in light of New Testament teaching and then have the courage to live accordingly and thus move toward the ideal. Complete fulfillment of the Christian ideal may not be possible in our sinful world but we can move in that direction. Most Christians today are tempted to praise the ethical principles and standards of the New Testament rather than practice them. What we need today is a belief that behaves, not only profession but practice.

Now because we do not have sufficient space nor time we will not attempt to define the current issues that we face in our society and apply Christian principles to them. However, we would like to suggest one of the best sources of help along this line that we know anything about today and that is ten study pamphlets entitled "Issues and Answers," published by the Christian Life Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention. They deal with ten current issues such as Poverty, Alcohol, Honesty, Juvenile Delinquency, Race Relations and What Christians Today Can Do. The packet is available for $1.00 and can be secured from the Christian Life Commission, Nashville, Tenn.

Respectfully submitted,
Walter F. Gentry

27. The Time, Place and Preacher Committee Report was presented by Chairman Floyd Enzor as follows:

Place—Night Session: First Baptist Church of Dunn Day Session: Piney Grove Baptist Church
Preacher—C. W. Driver
Alternate—Irwin Stephens
The report was properly adopted by the association.

28. The Moderator recognized R. Lewis Beal for the Budget Committee Report, which was adopted as follows:

SUGGESTED GOALS TO MEET THE SUGGESTED BUDGET ABOVE FOR 1968

The finance committee of the Little River Association has been requested to present a workable and worthy budget to our association this October. We will include within this budget a new item—Missionary Home Sinking Fund Account—which covers the amount of payment due on our bonds during the year 1968.

We are urgently requesting that each church consider the following goal as a possible amount for associational missions as you think of your local budget and allocations for the coming church year.

In practically every case the amount suggested is less than the three per cent of total receipts in the local churches for the church year of 1966.
WE SUGGEST THE FOLLOWING AMOUNT FOR YOUR

30. The Moderator recognized Alva S. Ellis to present the Resolutions Committee Report, which is as follows:

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas: Our moderator, the Reverend Tom Freeman, has guided our association with such dedicated leadership during the past year,

Be it resolved that we express to him our profound gratitude for this devotion to the cause of Christ and to this association.

Whereas: We have been so graciously entertained by the Friendship Baptist Church and the Angier Baptist Church,

Be it therefore resolved that we express our warmest thanks for every kindness shown and be it also resolved that we extend our thanks to the ladies of the Angier Church who helped in providing the meal on the second day of our annual meeting.

Whereas: Music is always a high moment in every meeting, lifting us in spirit as we sing and as we listen,

Be it resolved that we express our appreciation to the Campbell College Choir, Rev. Charles Stafford, our music director, the Kennebec Youth Choir, the Friendship Baptist Church Choir, and all others who participated in the music.

Whereas, Our hearts were moved by the message given by Dr. Harold G. Basen on Foreign Missions,

Be it resolved that we urge all Baptist families to create a more spiritual atmosphere in our homes and make an effort to train our children in such a manner that they will understand and appreciate the World Missions Program.

Whereas: There are certain objectionable types of television programs, such as movies for adults only, given at this time and whereas we are of the opinion this is a bad influence on our children,

Be it resolved that we ask our clerk to write a letter to Mr. Mort Werner, National Broadcasting Company, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, N. Y., expressing our objections to this type of television program.

Whereas: We have been challenged and enlightened by the representatives of our various state convention agencies, and their program personalities,

Be it resolved that we give thanks unto God for our past accomplishments and look forward in prayer that He will continue to guide us toward even greater heights.

Alva S. Ellis
H. Paul Strickland
Mrs. Wesley McLeod

Out of 34 churches and three missions only 13 received study course awards.

32. The Moderator reported to the association that Mr. R. M. Turlington has proposed to buy a 36-foot strip of land from our association, said strip to be carved from our present Missionary Home lot located on River Road in the Town of Lillington, North Carolina. After a discussion by the associational delegates, a motion was made that the association authorize the trustees of the association to sell a 36-foot strip of land adjoining the lands of R. M. Turlington, said strip to be carved from the present Missionary Home site recently purchased from A. J. White and wife, at a price which the trustees deem fair and advantageous to the association, to Mr. R. M. Turlington and that the said trustees are hereby fully authorized to execute a deed for said strip of land, with general warranties, to Mr. R. M. Turlington, upon receipt of the aforesaid purchase price. The motion was seconded and passed by the association.

33. The Annuity Board Report was adopted as follows:

ANNUITY BOARD

The New Southern Baptist Protection Program

Response to the new program of family and retirement protection during the first quarter of 1967 indicates enthusiastic acceptance by ministers and denominational employees. During the first three months of 1967, more than 1,000 persons joined some part of the three-plan program as compared with only 685 during the first quarter of 1966.

The new program, called the Southern Baptist Protection Program, provides additional benefits for disability, new benefits for children, education of children and dependent parent. These extra benefits are in Plan "A".

The new Protection Program incorporates the three plans into one certificate, which formerly required separate certificates for each plan. The three plans are: Southern Baptist Protection Plan, which is now Plan "A"; Age Security Plan, now called Plan "B"; and Variable Benefit Plan, now Plan "C".

Annuitants Receive Dividend Check

Because of action taken by the trustees of the Annuity Board in February, each person receiving a guaranteed benefit from the board was mailed a "dividend" check. This year each check was for an amount equal to one-twelfth of the person's annual benefit.

10 Per Cent Total Salary Encouraged

The cost of living continues to climb. A retirement program based on $4,000 salary is no longer adequate to meet the needs of a minister when he retires. There seems to be no hope of a leveling off of the inflationary trends. Because of this, the new Protection Program was started so churches could help their pastors increase their retirement protection. Now a church may participate on the total salary of its pastor or other employees. Ten per cent dues on total salary are recommended as minimum.

Churches participating in Annuity Board's Retirement Program—17 out of 35.

The Moderator recognized Mr. Guy Cain to discuss the Annuity Report. Mr. Cain pointed out the many benefits of the Southern Baptist Protection Plan.

34. Rev. Charles Stafford led the congregation in the singing of "The Old Rugged Cross." The Moderator recognized Floyd Enzor to present the Evangelism Report, which was adopted as follows:

REPORT ON EVANGELISM

There seems to be an underlying feeling among some of our people today that evangelism has lost its place in our modern church. But to the contrary, there is a place for it in almost all parts of the world. In Russia, under the leadership of Rev. Haralan Popov, underground evangelism is being very successful. And in our own association there were —— baptisms last year as a direct or indirect result of evangelism. We are grateful to all those who were instrumental in bringing souls to Jesus Christ through this medium. It is our heart's desire that every church in the Little River Association will give itself to world-wide evangelism in the years ahead. Without evangelism the very heart of the church becomes indifferent, or self-centered, the outreach of the church is stalled, and the unsaved people cannot find compassion in the hearts of the Christians. Evangelism, as I see it, has a two-fold thrust: 1. It is to proclaim that Jesus Christ is the Son of God who came to seek and to save that which was lost, and, 2. We as individuals must win others to Christ with our personal testimony. We have heard that every Christian should be a witness. This is true, but let's not make it a slogan, but a reality in our lives.

Our churches face a tremendous challenge in the Crusade of the Americas the next two years. I hope this will not just be a two-year period when mass evangelism becomes a part of our Christian experience but that it will be the beginning of a fire that cannot be quenched.

Some of the challenges in the Crusade of the Americas are:

1. NATIONWIDE EMPHASIS ON PRAYER. Two days of prayer, January 14, 1968 and January 12, 1969. PACT: A program of "prayer partners" with individuals, groups and churches on the "Other Americas" initiated July-August 1968. Watch Night Service December 31, 1968.

2. NATIONWIDE SEARCH FOR PROSPECTS: May-June-July-August, 1968.

3. NATIONWIDE VISITATION WITNESSING: September-November, 1968.

4. NATIONWIDE CRUSADE OF THE AMERICAS REVIVALS: March 16-30; April 6-20 (Little River date) April 27-May 11, 1969.

5. NATIONWIDE EMPHASIS ON NEW MEMBER ORIENTATION: Following the Crusade of the Americas Revivals. Study the book "Daring Discipleship" and launch new member orientation.

Constitution

1. This Association shall be known as "Little River Baptist Association."

2. The object of this Association shall be the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ, and the means of accomplishing this shall be in strict conformity with the principles of the New Testament.

3. The association shall have no authority over the internal right of any church belonging to it and shall act only as advisory council.

4. The association shall be composed of messengers chosen by the churches connected with it, each church being entitled to five messengers, plus one additional messenger for each one hundred members or fraction thereof. Ordained ministers having oversight of the churches in the association, or having their membership in these churches, shall be received as messengers.

5. A quorum shall consist of messengers from a majority of the churches of the association.

6. The messengers from each church to the annual meeting of the association shall bear a letter certifying their appointment and giving an account of the condition of the church and a statement of all funds contributed for local and benevolent purposes.

7. The officers of the association shall be moderator, a vice-moderator, a clerk, and a treasurer, who shall be chosen annually from the messengers composing the association, and shall continue in office until their successors are elected. The term of the office of the moderator shall begin at the conclusion of the session at which he is elected and continue until the close of the next annual session.

OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES:

8. General officers and Associational Missionary

a. Moderator--The moderator shall preside over all sessions of the association and the executive committee, preserve order, appoint all committees not otherwise provided for and exercise all other duties of a presiding officer according to the principal of parliamentary usage; he shall also, as far as his private duties permit, visit and communicate with the churches between sessions to promote and encourage the spirit of cooperation and Christian fellowship. The moderator shall be ineligible for more than two one year terms in succession.

b. Vice-Moderator--The vice moderator shall assist the moderator and discharge the duties of the moderator in his absence.

c. Clerk--It shall be the duty of the clerk to keep a faithful record of the proceedings of the body, and use all diligence in having same printed and distributed to the churches as soon as possible; to mail to the church clerks forms for the annual letters, and to keep on hand the printed minutes and other information documents belonging to the body. He shall make an annual report to the association.

d. Treasurer--It shall be the duty of the treasurer to receive all funds sent by the churches or collected during the session of this body and to disburse the same for the objects stated. He shall present a report on all funds received and disbursed by him quarterly to the executive committee and at each annual session. The treasurer shall be bonded at an amount of not less than $1,000.00. The books of the treasurer shall be audited at the close of each year at the direction of the Finance Committee.

e. Associational Missionary--It shall be the duty of the associational missionary

(1) To work with and promote the Sunday School, Training Union, Brotherhood, Woman's Missionary Union, Music and Evangelism through a strong Associational program.

(2) Work with all churches of the association with the purpose of strengthening the work in each and especially the smaller churches.

(3) Counsel with all churches of the association, where churches desire, in regard to securing pastors, forming church fields, building pastor's homes, retirement, adequate salaries, etc.

(4) Be a counselor and brother to the pastors of the association.

(5) Lead in surveying new areas, and setting up new work, and direct the missions program of the association.

(6) Visit in all the churces each year and preach when invited to do so, to supply in the churches as the pastors invite him to do so.

(7) Seek to find and enlist the strongest leaders in the associational program.

(8) Promote teaching and training courses in the local churches and on associational-wide basis.

(9) Encourage cooperation with the denominational program in the association and the churches.

(10) Supervise such special efforts as deacon schools, enlargement campaigns and simultaneous efforts.

(11) Be on the alert for soul-winning opportunities at all times.

(12) To develop work where not in existence, to coordinate work between churches and organizations, to find and develop leadership to keep our work in line with state and southwide work, and to assemble and distribute information pertaining to our associational program.

9. Associational Officers

a. Sunday School Superintendent--It shall be the duty of the Associational Sunday School Superintendent to plan and promote the total program of the Sunday School within the bounds of the association with special emphasis on better Vacation Bible Schools, and a wider participation in January Bible Study and Sunday School Preparation Week. He shall make a quarterly report to the Executive Committee and an annual report to the association.

b. Training Union Director--It shall be the duty of the Associational Training Union Director to plan and promote the total Training Union Program within the bounds of the association using the special emphasis listed in the Training Union Calendar. He shall make a quarterly report to the Executive Committee and an annual report to the association.

c. Brotherhood President--It shall be the duty of the Associational Brotherhood President to promote the total Brotherhood program with special emphasis on enlisting more laymen in the support of the total church program. He shall make a quarterly report to the Executive Committee and an annual report to the association.

d. Woman's Missionary Union President--It shall be the duty of the Woman's Missionary President to plan and promote the work of Woman's Missionary Union work within the bounds of the association with special emphasis on the special missionary effort of the church. Make a quarterly report to the executive committee and an annual report to the association.

e. Music Director--It shall be the duty of the Associational Music Director to plan and direct the music for all the meetings of the association. He shall seek to stimulate interest in good church music through clinics, study courses, music schools, hymn sings, in the churches and in association wide efforts. Make a quarterly report to the executive committee and an annual report to the association.

f. Chairman of Evangelism--The chairman of Evangelism shall promote a vigorous program of evangelism throughout the association, using materials, suggestions, and programs of our state and Southern Baptist Department of Evangelism where possible. He shall upon request, assist churches desiring his help in securing evangelists for revival meetings. He shall plan and direct simultaneous evangelistic efforts in the association when desired. Make an annual report to the association.

10. Committees:

a. Nominating Committee--The nominating committee shall be composed of three (3) members, appointed by the moderator at the annual session to nominate all officers of the association except as otherwise provided for in the constitution. This committee shall submit the name of Sunday School Superintendent, Training Union Director, Brotherhood President, and WMU President to the executive committee for approval at its July meeting so that they may assist the nominating committee in an advisory capacity in nominating a full slate of organizational officers.

b. Program Committee--The Program Committee composed of not less than three (3) members shall be appointed by the moderator at the annual session to plan the program for the next annual meeting of the association. The committee shall make sure that those who are to make reports and others appearing on the program are notified well in advance of the meeting so they will have ample time to make preparation for such. The committee shall prepare tentative copies of the program to be distributed among the churches and to those appearing on the program prior to the annual meeting.

c. Resolutions Committee--Composed of three (3) members, appointed by the moderator, at the beginning of the first session of the annual meeting, shall draw up and present to the association, resolutions of appreciation and any other resolutions it may deem expedient.

d. Place and Preacher Committee--Composed of three (3) members appointed by the moderator at the beginning of the first session of the annual meeting shall receive or solicit invitations for the place or places of meeting for the next annual meeting of the association, and shall recommend the place or places. It shall also recommend the preacher and alternate for the Missionary and Doctrinal sermons which shall be given one on the first day and the other on the second day to be alternated from year to year.

e. Missions Committee--Composed of the following associational officers: Sunday School Superintendent, Training Union Director, Woman's Missionary Union President, Brotherhood President, Chairman of Evangelism, Treasurer, and Moderator. This committee shall work with the missionary in promoting the work of the association, and lead and assist in organizing new churches and in beginning new mission churches. It shall also seek to help any member church desiring assistance with its problems. This committee shall receive applications from churches desiring to join association and make recommendations to the association. When without a missionary, this committee shall seek out and recommend to the association, or its executive committee, for electing a new missionary.

f. Evangelism Committee--Composed of the heads of the associational organizations and the Chairman of Evangelism, shall promote the work of evangelism in the association in cooperation with the association and the State Department of Evangelism. All plans and programs to be subject to the approval of the association or its executive committee.

g. Finance Committee--Composed of three (3) members including the Treasurer shall study the association's financial needs for an adequate program, present a budget to the association for the following year, devise plans for securing the cooperation of the churches in raising funds to meet the budget, and make a written report to the annual meeting. In the event that the treasurer cannot fulfill his duties, the chairman shall be empowered to act and sign checks until such time as a new treasurer is secured.

h. Ordination Committee--Composed of the Moderator and four (4) other members, shall when requested by a member church, assist with the examination and ordination of a candidate for the Gospel Ministry. Each candidate shall be examined as to his Christian experience, call to, and preparation for the ministry, doctrinal beliefs, and attitude toward our denomination and its program.

i. Constitution and Policy Committee--Composed of three (3) members, shall be available to study any changes or revisions in the Constitution, and to make recommendations as needed to keep the Constitution in line with the policies and programs of the association.

j. Calendar Committee--Composed of the heads of the associational organizations, the Chairman of Evangelism, and missionary, shall work out as soon as possible each year an associational calendar for the coming year and present same to the executive committee for adoption.

k. Standing Committee--Composed of chairman of Christian Literature, Chairman on Baptist Hospital, Chairman on World Missions, Chairman on Social Service, and Civic Righteousness, Chairman of Christian Education, Chairman on American Bible Society, Chairman on Children's Homes, Chairman on Homes for Aging, Chairman on Minister's Retirement, Chairman on Evangelism, and Chairman on Memorials. Their duties shall consist of communicating (personal visitation if possible and promoting through the churches of the association the work of each institution or agency they represent. They shall make an annual report to the association.

11. The executive board or committee shall be composed of all association officers, the associational missionary (ex-officio), each active pastor, one lay member chosen by each member church from its membership and certified to the association, in its annual report, and chairmen of all standing committees. The Executive Committee shall have the authority to act for the association between sessions, except as limited by the constitution. It shall be the duty of this board or committee to meet quarterly and to make reports and recommendations to the association at its annual meeting.

12. The association shall hold an annual meeting commencing on Tuesday after the fourth Sunday in October.

13. A meeting of the association may be called by the moderator at any time by the consent of five members of the executive committee. Each church shall be notified of such a meeting in time to send messengers.

14. This association shall have the right to exclude from its membership any church that departs from New Testament principles.

15. Any church desiring to become a member of this association may make application through the Missions Committee of the association. This application must be made at least one month prior to the annual meeting of the association. The church, upon the recommendation of the Missions Committee, shall be received under the watchcare of the Association for one year. In the interim the Missions Committee shall examine the doctrine of the church and the church's acceptance of Baptist witness.

16. The association may invite visitors to seats and extend to them all the privileges of the messengers except that of voting.

17. By appointment, at each annual meeting, an introductory sermon or address on missions shall be delivered.

18. This constitution may be amended at any annual session, by a vote of two-thirds of the messengers present, provided that notice shall be given in the morning of the day on which such motion will be presented.

19. The association shall elect three trustees from the members composing the Association, who shall serve with the Moderator, as the Trustees of the Little River Baptist Associaton, and whose duty it shall be to take and hold title to the property, both real and personal, owned by the association. The moderator of the association shall serve as a trustee until such time as his successor is elected and qualified.

Proceedings

1. The ninety-third annual meeting of the Little River Baptist Association held its first session with the First Baptist Church of Dunn, Tuesday, October 29, 1968. The meeting was called to order by the Moderator, T.M. Freeman, pastor of the host church at 7:00 p.m. Charles W. Stafford, pastor of Friendship church, led the congregation in singing, "We Have Heard the Joyful Sound." Alvin B. O'Shields, pastor of Erwin First church read a lesson from the Scriptures and led in prayer. The Moderator extended a welcome to the messengers and visitors present.

2. The clerk called the roll of the churches and twenty churches responded. Bro. Paul Strickland moved that the messengers from these churches, and those reporting later, constitute the ninety-third annual session of the Little River Baptist Association. The motion carried.

3. The clerk announced that messengers, and a statistical report, had been sent from a new church, the Memorial Church of Buies Creek, He then read the following petition from the church, which was addressed to the Moderator.

PETITION FROM MEMORIAL BAPTIST CHURCH

In behalf of Memorial Baptist Church, Buies Creek, North Carolina, constituted July 14 this year. I do respectfully request membership in the Little River Association.

I advise that the church is duly constituted, and is performing the regular duties of a Baptist church, holding regular worship services, and engaging in a comprehensive church education program.

The Church Clerk, Mrs. Evelyn Howard, working in conjuncture with Dr. and Mrs. Perry Q. Langston, is providing the Association with factual and detailed information concerning the total church program.

The congregation of Memorial Baptist Church looks forward to actively and constructively participating in the program of the Association and the Baptist State Convention.

This petition is respectfully submitted, and your attention to this matter would indeed be much appreciated.

Sincerely yours, Robert L. King, Chairman Deacon Board

Paul Strickland moved that the Memorial Church be received under the Watch care of the Association for one year, as specified by the constitution of the Association, pending full fellowship in the body. The motion was seconded and received the unanimous consent of the meeting. The Moderator then recognized the messengers from the church.

4. The chairman of the porgram committee presented a tentative program for the meeting. W.F. Gentry, pastor of Antioch Church, moved that the program be adopted as the order of business, subject to any changes that might be necessary. The motion was seconded and carried. The program will be found on the page before " proceedings."

5. Julius Holloway, the Associational Missionary, introduced the following Pastors new to the Association.

PASTORS NEW TO THE ASSOCIATION

Present were: Glen Fasanella, James E. Allen, Carey Todd, Barry Landrum, Alvin B. O'Shields, Johnson Gupton. Not present were John R. Moody, Robert Clark, Norman Wheeler, Jack Bratton.

The Moderator extended a hearty welcome to these new pastors.

(A list of the new pastors, the churches they serve, and their addresses will be found in the Associational Directory)

6. The Moderator appointed the following committees:

NOMINATING COMMITTEE: Barry Landrum, Chmn., Alva Ellis, Mrs. Wesley McLeod.

Committee on PLACE AND PREACHER: E. Weldon Johnson, Chmn. H.Everett Marion, John Joyner.

PROGRAM COMMITTEE: Lewis Beal, Chmn. James E. Allen, Norman Wheeler, Mrs. Harvey O'Quinn, W.A. Johnson.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS: Sam F. Hudson, Chairman, Morris Andrews, Howard Roseman.

7. The report on the work of the Women's Missionary Union was presented by Mrs. Walter Gentry. On motion of Mrs. Gentry the report was adopted. (See REPORTS at back of minutes.)

8. The report on the work of the Brotherhood was given by James Brown. On his motion the report was adopted.

9. The Moderator called upon Julius Holloway, missionary, for his report on Associational Missions. The report was accompanied by a display of interesting slides depicting the buildings, and the work of some of the churches and their missions. On motion of Brother Holloway the report was adopted. (see "REPORTS".)

Brother Stafford then led the congregation in the singing of a hymn.

10. Charles Stafford then presented the report on World Missions, for Mrs. Stafford who could not be present. On motion the report was adopted. (see "Reports".) The Moderator called the attention of the meeting to the coming "Crusade of the Americas," and urged each church in the Association to take part in it.

11. The Moderator presented Mr. George Earnshaw the director of music of the First Church of Dunn. The Dunn choir then sang an anthem.

12. The registeration cards were then taken up. There were one hundred thirty-two messengers and visitors registered.

13. The report on Christian Education was presented by Dr. Norman Wiggins, President of Campbell College. Dr. Wiggins delivered an address on Christian Education. On motion of George Souders the report was adopted. (see "Reports.")

14. Paul C. Willis, pastor of Harmony Church, led in a closing prayer and the meeting adjourned to meet with Piney Grove Church the following morning.

SECOND DAY

Morning Session

15. The second days meeting of the Little River Baptist Association was held with the Piney Grove Church, Wednesday, Oct. 30, 1968. The Moderator, Rev. Tom Freeman, called the meeting to order at 9:30 a.m. Brother Stafford led in the singing of the hymn "God of Grace, and God of Glory." James Allen, pastor of Neills Creek Church, read a passage of Scripture and led in prayer. Floyd Enzor, pastor of the host church, extended a cordial welcome to the messengers and visitors. There were two hundred seven registered messengers and guests.

16. The report of the Executive Committee was given by the Moderator, Tom M. Freeman. On motion the report was adopted. (See "Reports".)

17. The Training Union Report was presented by Brother Enzor for Norman McIver who could not be present. On motion of Brother Enzor the report was adopted. (See "Reports.")

18. The report on Christian Literature was presented by Sam Hudson, retired minister. Mr. Hudson then discussed some features of the report and it was spoken to by Rev. Bob Mullinax of Cary, representative of the Biblical Recorder. On motion of Sam Hudson the report was adopted.

19. The report on Minister's Retirement was presented by the clerk, G.S. Turner, and was dopted on his motion. (See "Reports.")

20. The clerk then called the roll of the churches and messengers from 27 churches responded.

21. Miscellaneous business was then taken up. The Moderator added the name of A. Howard Beard, pastor of Coats church to the committee on "Place and Preacher." There being no other business to be attended to at this time Charles Stafford led in the singing of the hymn, "More Like the Master."

22. Burrell Lucas, representing the Baptist State Convention, addressed the meeting on the subject, "C0-operative Program Emphasis."

23. In the absence of the appointee, Felix R. Hockaday, the Moderator drew attention to the report on Baptist Homes for the Aging. (See "Reports.")

24. representative of the Baptist Hospital at Winston-Salem spoke on the work of the Hospital. A report on the work of the Hospital will be found under, "Reports."

25. The report on "Baptist Children's Homes" was presented by Charles Stafford who moved its adoption. Roger Williams, representative from the Homes addressed the meeting. The motion was adopted. (See "Reports)

26. The report on the, "American Bible Society" was presented by Brother J. A. Senter, and was adopted on his motion. (See "Reports.")

27. An hour of Worship was then observed. Brother Stafford led in the singing of "Seal Us O Holy Spirit." Barry Landrum, pastor of Lillington Church, read the Scripture Lesson from John 17:1-9 and led in prayer. Irwin Stephens, pastor of Hillmon Gove Church, then delivered the annual sermon. His subject was the Lord's command, "Go." The Campbell college choir, led by Dr. Paul Yoder, rendered the following selection. "Jesus, Precious Treasure," Bach. "Little Road to Bethlehem," Head. "A Virgin Unspotted," Arr. Chambers. "Beautiful Saviour", Arr. Christensen. Clyde Johnson, pastor of Broadway and Baptist Chapel Churches, led the closing prayer. The meeting then adjourned for lunch, which was served in a delightful manner by the Piney Grove Church.

Afternoon Session

28. After the singing of "Stand Up For Jesus," Johnson Gupton Jr. pastor of the Second Church of Dunn, read a Scripture Lesson and led in prayer.

29. Mrs. Floyd Enzor conducted a beautiful memorial service for those of our number who had died during the year. This service was partially planned by Mrs. Donald Swinney who was not able to be present. The service included the reading of a poem by Rev. Donald Swinney and a duet sung by Mrs. Enzor and Mrs. McLaren. A list of our beloved dead will be found in an early page of these minutes.

30. The report on "Social Service and Civic Righteousness" was given by Donald Swinney, pastor of Bethel Church, who moved its adoption. (See "Reports)

31. The Moderator then called for reports from various committees, and they were given as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TIME, PLACE AND PREACHER

We recommend that Rev. Donald Swinney, pastor of Bethel Church, be appointed to deliver the annual sermon, and that Rev. Johnson Gupton be his alternate, that the evening service be held with Harmony church, and the day service with Holly Springs Baptist Church.

Weldon Johnson, Chairman

It was moved and seconded that the report be accepted. The motion was adopted by unanimous vote.

32. RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

Be it resolved:

(1) That we express our appreciation to the moderator and the program committee for their fine work in arranging this program.

(2) That we express our appreciation to the executive committee who has worked throughout the year in keeping our association informed of all happenings and also to our associational missionary for his labors.

(3) That we express our appreciation to Dr. Yoder and the Campbell College choir for their contribution of music to our worship service.

(4) That we express our deep appreciation to our speaker this morning, Bro. Irwin Stephens, for the challenging message.

(5) That we express our appreciation to all the associational officers for their contribution to the associational work during the year.

(6) We further resolve that we express our sincere appreciation to Bro. Tom Freeman for the fine work he had done as the Moderator of the Little River Baptist Association.

(7) That we express to Dunn First Church our appreciation for having the evening session of our annual meeting.

(8) That we express to Bro. Floyd Enzor and Piney Grove Church our appreciation for their hospitality and very fine lunch that was served. Mr. Sam Hudson, Chairman, Mr. Morris Andrews, Mr. Howard Roseman.

33. The Moderator presented the report of the "Missionary Home Building Committee" and gave some explanation of parts of the report. On Motion the report was adopted. (See Reports)

NOMINATING COMMITTEE REPORT

34. The report included the following:
For Moderator, H. Everette Marion
For Vice Moderator, Charles Stafford
For Clerk, G. Scott Turner, Sr.
For Treasurer, Halford O'Quinn
For Missionary, Julius Holloway
The complete report will be found under Reports.

Charles Stafford, Chairman

It was moved and seconded that the report be adopted and the vote was unanimous.

35. The Report on "Evangelism" was presented by Brother Enzor, who moved its adoption. The report was adopted. He then urged all the churches of the association to participate in the "Crusade of the Americas" which is to observed in our association on April 6 - 20, 1969. The Moderator reminded the messenger of the importance of the rally for the Crusade which is to be held in the Lillington Church on November 18, at 7:30 p.m.

36. After the singing of the hymn "Trust and Obey", the Moderator introduced Dr. I.N. Patterson who addressed the meeting on the Theme "The Church Fulfilling its Mission through Evangelism and World Missions.". Dr. Patterson spoke mainly about the work in Nigeria, where he served many years as missionary. He gave a glowing tribute to Dr. L. Connell Smith, medical missionary to Nigeria from this Association. Dr. Smith was killed in an accident during the year.

37. The new general officers of the association were called to the platform and introduced to the association by the Moderator. The meeting then adjourned with prayer by the Moderator.

Thomas M. Freeman, Moderator
G. Scott Turner, Sr., Clerk

W.M.U. REPORT

This year we have emphasized the scripture passage Matthew 25:40: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these ... ye have done it unto me." As we have attempted to get our women and young people to see that the need for Christian service is all around us. And that we need to become aware of what each one can do to advance the Kingdom of God in every community.

We began our W.M.U. Year in 1967-68 with Leadership Conference held in the Lillington Baptist Church, October 2 with 128 women attending. And on October 16 a W.M.U. Workshop was held in the Neills Creek Baptist Church.

The Y.W.A. Banquet was held in the Piney Grove Baptist Church March 29, 1968. Forty-one people were present. The theme for the meeting was "Youth for Christ." Guest speaker was Mr. Jimmy Morris, Secretary of Program Services for the North Carolina Baptist State Convention.

Our Annual W.M.U. Meeting was held at First Baptist Church, Dunn, in April with 259 attending from 28 churches. Miss Bernice Popham, State Sunbeam Director, was guest speaker for the afternoon session. She presented our New Plan of Work for W.M.U. for 1968-69. Our evening session featured the Rev. John Poe, Missionary from Brazil. His message presented a challenge to us.

Mrs. John Oliver, Missionary from Brazil, was guest speaker for our Associational G.A. Rally. The meeting was held at First Baptist Church, Erwin on May 18, with 207 attending.

The Sunbeam Day Camp was held in August at Camp ABRA near Neills Creek Baptist Church. The Missionary speaker was Mrs. Michael Ray, Missionary to India.

A new program of work for W.M.U. began the first of October, 1968 and we feel that our work will advance through its use. W.M.U. is a great organization, and it has a great task to perform in helping "The Church Fulfill Its Mission." We accept the challenge, because we are "Laborers Together With God."

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. W.F. Gentry

REPORT ON BROTHERHOOD

Our Association has a challenge in front of our Baptist Men. The purpose of the organization is to help churches fulfill their objective of bringing men, young men, and boys to God through Christ by leading them in the following ways.

(1) To a deeper commitment to missions.
(2) To a more meaningful prayer life for missions.
(3) To a larger stewardship on behalf of missions.
(4) To a personal involvement in missions.

The objective of our associational Brotherhood organization is to help churches establish, conduct, enlarge, and improve their Brotherhood Programs.

A well defined objective serves as a "guiding star" for a program. It is an ultimate goal. This objective guides in the development of plans and actions to fulfill the role for which it exists. This objective also provides a criterion for evaluating the degree of success of the associational Brotherhood program.

A task is a basic, continuing activity designed to help achieve an objective. The work of the associational Brotherhood can be grouped under five tasks. These are to provide opportunity for fellowship and inspiration; to interpret the Brotherhood program; to train church Brotherhood leaders; to consult with church leaders about Brotherhood programs; and to provide organization and leadership for cooperative work among the churches.

During the past year we visited with churches without Brotherhood or Royal Ambassadors, to introduce the Baptist Men's program. Also, we made visits in some of our more active Brotherhoods.

We had some boys to attend our Royal Ambassador camp, Camp CaRAway. We also had leadership for the Royal Ambassadors program at World Mission Week. The Associational Workshop for the leaders was attended from nine of our churches which was very successful.

Since the associational Brotherhood programs exists to help church Brotherhood units, may we work together for advancement of Christ's kingdom among men. We hope to have Baptist Men's work in all of our churches in the Association in the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,
James B. Brown

REPORT OF THE ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONARY

You have helped me to do the following in Little River this year: Preached 45; Prayer meeting 24; Dedications 4; Homecomings 8; Ordained Deacons 8; Rest Homes 4; W.M.U. Meetings 10; Mission Study 5; Films, filmstrips and slides 38; Weddings 4; Funerals 7; Hospital Visits 25; Vacation Bible Schools 5; GA 3; YWA 3; RA 4; Brotherhood 5; Garment factories 4; Pastor's conference 14; Associational Meetings 21; Committee Meetings 38; State and SBC Meetings 20; Special meetings 25; 1 week at Caswell; 3 ground breaking services; Revivals 2; heard 5 professions of faith; worked at Crestview Mission October through June, Sunday mornings and Thursday nights. Glenn and Nancy Fasanella, from Campbell are now working, Glenn as pastor, Nancy teaching. Also, Billy and Gail Bates, from Dunn 1st teaching in Sunday School.

Thank you so much for your prayers and support and the opportunity to serve with you.

The Associational Home and office is not complete. We have moved in at 600 Thirteenth Street, Lillington, come and see us and the Home. Thank you for providing it. Now, let us get those bonds redeemed and provide a full-time secretary for our Association. We can.

The following pastors have come to us this year:

Crestview Mission - Glenn Fasanella
Neills Creek - James Allen
Pleasant Memory - Cary Todd
Westfield - Norman Wheeler
Dunn Second - Johnston Gupton
Gourd Springs -
Lillington - Barry Landrum
South Erwin - Jack Bratton, Sr.
Erwin First - Alvin O'Shields
Baptist Grove - John R. Moody
Rawls - Robert Clark

We had one person to go as missionary Journeyman from Little River Association this year. Miss Phillis Thomas, Daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Neill B. Thomas of Route 3, Lillington and the Antioch Baptist Church. She will be employed by the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and will teach missionary children in Guadeloupe, French West Indies. She was commissioned by the Foreign Mission Board in Richmond Va., August 8, 1968. She will work along side career missionaries for two years.

The Journeyman Program is open to all College graduates, under 27 years of age, with skills in demand overseas for a two year period.

Does your church have one who could qualify? If we could get some of the fine young people in our Association to go, it would create an interest in missions in our churches and also make the whole world a better place in which to live.

We had a World Mission Conference, formally, School of Missions, in February. Twelve of our churches had a live Missionary on the churchfield for a week and heard six different Missionaries speak. We had a total attendance of 6,140 and daily average attendance of 1,024. There were 8 professions of faith, 7 dedications, and 40 subscriptions to our Mission magazine. Two churches had the Home mission study this week also with a total attendance of 139 and an average attendance of 35.

The Missionaries spoke 72 times in the churches, 4 times in public schools, 2 times at Campbell College, 5 times at WMU meetings, 1 Brotherhood and in 2 of our missions.

Our one big event now is the Crusade of the Americas. Fourteen of our churches and one of our missions has voted to participate in this great effort: to locate the lost, confront them with, "Christ the only hope," unite with others in prayer, witnessing and preaching the word. The time for the simultaneous preaching of the word in our Association is April 6-20, 1969. However this alone will not do the job. There must be a prayerful planning, searching and seeking before this date and a follow-up in training those saved and placing them in service guiding their new life toward maturity (perfect in Christ).

We will not show much interest in the lost or make much of an effort to train the saved unless more of us join in the Crusade or some other worthy effort. To win the lost and train the saved we must unite our efforts. No one pastor, church, association, state, or nation can do what Christ has commanded for all the world alone. This is one reason for this united effort. Do you care, "Really Care" enough to join the others?

Pray for us and use us when we can help you.

Respectfully submitted,
Julius Holloway

WORLD MISSIONS REPORT

"The Church Fulfilling Its Mission Through Ministry has placed emphasis on Home and Foreign Missions working together for the glory of God in the spreading of the Gospel.

World Missions has shown an increase in offerings, missionary personnel, and evangelism. Although needs have been met through World Missions, the challenge is still great.

At the close of 1967 total contributions of Southern Baptist for foreign missions amounted to $28,286,597.00 (an increase of $1,239,397.00 over 1966) The 1967 Lottie Moon Christmas Offering has reached a total of $14,664,679.30 by May 1, 1968. Home Missions report the largest support in history through the Co-operative Program and the Annie Armstrong Offering with $5,253,718.00 coming from the Co-operative Program, including $323,268.00 from the advance section and the Annie Armstrong Offering brought $4,088,513.00.

The Missionary Force of the Home Mission Board totaled 2,300 a gain of over one hundred, although 460 appointments were made of Associate and Career Missionaries. At the close of 1967 Foreign Missions report 2,277 missionaries, a gain of 65 for the year.

The leading of people to new life in Jesus Christ is the ultimate purpose underlying all our missionary endeavors. The cultivation of New Testament churches is the wisest investment of missionary resources. At the year's end, Foreign Missions report 4,918 churches (3,211 self-supporting), 6,463 mission points and 4,119 national pastors. Home Missions report 487 new missions started and new churches constituted 197. Reported baptisms at home 58,889 - foreign missions baptisms 46,275. The Foreign Mission Board shared in seven major evangelistic campaigns, in which more than 17,000 decisions were reported. Preparation for the Crusade of the Americas dominated much of the work of evangelism during the past year of the Home Mission Board. The response was excellent to many special projects, such as the numerous crusades in the Northeast. Southern Baptists continue to minister through Communications, Schools and Student work, Publications, Hospital Care, and Benevolent Ministries.

Our Christian task at home and overseas grows with each passing day. More than 75,000,000 people in the United States are unchurched and our national involvement around the world constitutes a heavy burden. We must pray and work for a renewal of spiritual vitality, a revival of Christian faith.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Charles Stafford

CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION REPORT

This year our seven Baptist Colleges, Campbell, Chowan, Gardner-Webb, Mars Hill, Meredith, Wake Forest, and Wingate will be educating between 12,000-13,000 students. It will be another active year when our colleges will be endeavoring to train the future leaders of our church.

Again, the Baptist Council on Christian Higher Education will schedule forums on each campus to which pastors and other church leaders will be invited.

Baptist College Day will play an important role in the support of our colleges. Our churches should invite from our colleges a team of Baptist young people to give their testimonies concerning what going to a Christian college means to them. These young people, said one pastor, can change the attitude of the congregation towards the Baptist

The Executive Committee meets quarterly, and the attendance has not been as much as we hoped for, but a good representation of pastors and laymen from the churches showed up for each meeting.

In February we had to work hard to bring our Schools of Missions to pass, and although the time was not the most favorable, a good response was observed in the churches that participated. We were disappointed that only 12 churches participated, but others could not.

The home of our Associational Missionary was completed during the year, and work on this consumed much time and interest. All the bonds are sold, the contractor has been paid, and the W.M.U. of our Association provides funds for the carpet in the living room of the home. Work on the grounds, landscaping and shrubbery is not complete, and this must be done.

In June the Layton's Chapel Church requested that the Association convey to it a clear title to their church property so that they could borrow money for repairs and renovation. The Executive Committee voted by mail to authorize the Association's trustees to execute this title.

In July a new Baptist congregation in Buies Creek met with the officers of the Executive Committee to request our help in organizing them into a new Baptist church. The Memorial Baptist Church of Buies Creek was organized on July 14th, and their petition for membership in the Little River Baptist Association is on file with us.

One of the concerns of the Executive Committee, the Moderator and the Missionary has been our Minutes for the past two years, which have not been distributed to the churches. It has been time-consuming, and frustrating, but these are being printed now. Hopefully they are in the hands of the churches at the time of the annual meeting. Considerable rewriting had to be done, and the statistical tables had to be done over for the printer.

There are a number of pastoral changes during the year, and we are encouraged by the fine men who have come to serve among us. With the "Crusade of the Americas" in 1969, and with some indications that the work of the Lord here is looking up, we face the future with faith and optimism. Our troubled times call for renewed commitment to Christ and His gospel, to renewed efforts to evangelize our area, to renewed efforts to revive the churches and see them open to the power of the Holy Spirit.

Tom M. Freeman, Moderator

REPORT OF TRAINING UNION

Training Union is an organization set aside for the purpose of mobilizing or training Christian workers. Paul said that church is like a mighty army. Training Union is the way a church has to train its Christian Army. Training Union gives people an opportunity to express their own ideas and beliefs. It also enables people to be able to speak before others. Training Union also shows people the way to live throughout the week as well as on Sunday. Training Union provides the Christian with the food he needs to mature in a Christ-like way. If the Training Unions of our Association work together, more work can be accomplished for our Lord.

To aid in carrying out these activities your Associational Training Union Organization has planned and promoted the following activities:

1. Associational Training Union Leadership Clinic was held at the Bethel Baptist Church on November 9th, 1967. Our state Training Union workers led the conference. Our attendance was 46, with 12 churches represented.

2. Mobilization Night, which is the most important of our Training Union meetings, was held on December 12, 1967, at the Angier Baptist Church. There were 300 people and 17 churches represented.

3. Associational Tournament Night was held this year at the Lillington Baptist Church. There were 127 people present from 11 churches. This is an area our association needs to place more emphasis, because several group areas did not even have any contestants entering them.

If we continue to have a strong Associational Training Union Program, we need more churches to take part and share in our Associational Training Union work. The task to keep a strong Training Union is not an easy one but it is worthy of our time and consideration. Let us not give up the Training Union programs in our churches. Let's all make an extra effort to support the Training Union in our churches.

Respectfully submitted,
Norman L. McIver, Director

CHRISTIAN LITERATURE REPORT

We are more and more becoming a reading people. Our children are learning to read earlier, and have more time to read. Printed matter is without limitation, but unfortunately, much of it is not fit to read. But much that is written is informing, enlightening, and inspirational, and can be read with great profit.

It certainly behooves Baptists to make available for themselves, and for their children, good books and clean literature. Churches that have libraries should ever seek to improve their supply of books and their use. The churches that do not now have libraries should seek to establish them. We should search for, and read, good literature.

The BIBLICAL RECORDER should go into every North Carolina home in which a Baptist lives. It ought to be in every church budget, and if it is not, no church could better serve its mission than to put it in. A church needs an informed membership, and that is what the RECORDER does.

We commend the reading of the CHARITY AND CHILDREN, and the publications of the Home Mission and Foreign Mission Boards, and the Sunday Schools, and in fact all the Boards of our denomination. We could make teaching of the Sunday School lessons more interesting and effective, if we would study our lesson each week by reading our quarterlies and our bibles.

Respectfully submitted,
Sam F. Hudson

REPORT MINISTER'S RETIREMENT

It is a matter of the greatest urgency that every church in our Association participate in the Southern Baptist Protection Plan administered by the Annuity Board. The plan provides for an income for the pastor in case of retirement at age 65, in case of disability at any age, or for his widow in case of death. There are other plans that offer more extended benefits. According to the latest figures available there are only twenty churches in this Association that are participating in the protection plan and thus making provisions for the future of their pastors. We give below a list of the churches which are not participating and we urge the messengers from these churches, when they return home, to try to persuade their churches to make this provision for their pastor's protection. There are folders available, here, today that explain the plan. Our missionary, Rev. Julius Holloway, will be glad to visit any church, show a film that presents the plan, and give full explanation to any church that desires to participate. Mr. Guy Cain, Baptist Building, Raleigh, N.C. is the State representative of the Annuity Board. He, also, is available to any church desiring information or help in providing this protection for their pastor.

BAPTIST HOMES FOR THE AGING

The past year in your Baptist Homes for the Aging has been one of the most eventful in the history of the Homes. Of primary significance was the opening of the Yanceyville Home on November 1, 1967, and dedicatory services on April 25, 1968, with governor Dan K. Moore as the principal speaker.

When the Yanceyville Home, accommodating 31 residents, is filled to capacity, the number living in all our Homes will reach 200. Residents at Yanceyville, Resthaven, the Albermarle Home, the Hayes Home, and the Hamilton, and the Infirmary constitute a large and ever-growing family of elderly people who receive compassionate and tender care.

The waiting list for admission to one of our five Homes continues to grow, but has been revised and is a bit more realistic than ever before. The opening of the Yanceyville Home has released the pressure greatly on this waiting list, and persons are encouraged to make application from the various section of our great state.

Baptists of North Carolina can be grateful for their record in ministering to the residents in their five Homes for the Aging. Recent reports reveal that our Baptist Homes for the Aging are giving more financial assistance to their needy aging than any denominational Home In North Carolina. About 85% of the residents ministered unto receive assistance through the love gifts of North Carolina Baptists. These love gifts from our Baptist churches come from two main sources:

(1) The Special Day Offering, received on the 3rd Sunday of February each year, from which the Homes derive 22 1/2% of their total support;

(2) The Cooperative Program from which we receive 12 1/2% of total income Gifts for 1967 through these two sources were at an all time high and amounted to around $200,000.00 The 1968 Special Day Offering at this time, is reflecting an encouraging increase. Unless these two vital sources of income are increased considerably, your Baptist Homes cannot be maintained, either on the basis of quality of care, or quantity.

More than in any previous years the ministry of the Homes has been extended beyond the day to day care of the residents to our local churches and communities. Experiences have been shared in more than one Association, in World Missions Conferences, Family Life Conferences, High School classes in Family Living, etc.

Life among the residents in the Homes is most interesting, and if one wonders about the activity among those whose average age is 80, let him come and see. Let everyone who is contributing to this great area of human need be grateful to the Lord to be a part of a great denomination that has had the vision to plan for the aging and is moving forward in meeting the needs of this very deserving group.

BAPTIST HOSPITAL REPORT

This is a full year at our Baptist Hospital with more than thirty thousand sick people being given medical services and Christian ministry, and more than 165,000 visits being made to the clinics of the hospital. In addition to this, more than 700 persons are receiving training in various fields of medical care and Christian service and a vast amount of medical research is being done in the causes and treatments of the diseases which afflict us and our loved ones.

The Development Program, which is greatly to increase the capacity of the Medical Center to train and to serve, is progressing on schedule. The new power plant is scheduled to go into operation in October. The paramedical school building is due to be ready by next April. It will provide to double the capacity of our nine schools and to add new schools. The Medical School addition is to be ready by September, 1969, and will allow that school to enlarge by 35%. Contracts are due to be let in October for the new patient building, which is to be completed in 1971. This building and the remodeling of the oldest part of the present plant will provide more than 200 new patient beds and greatly enlarge space and facilities for offices and for examinations and treatment of patients.

The cost of this large Development Program is being provided by interested individuals, corporations, foundations and government agencies, which recognize the valuable service our Medical Center is rendering and the urgent need for greatly enlarging these services.

But this is a very difficult year financially, and our hospital has been forced to make important changes in its financial policies. In the face of the mounting costs and the increasing needs of our people, the hospital has been struggling with a growing deficit. We have been told this for several years but the gap has continued to increase between the cost of free service and the money we have provided for this service. The amount of the free service now will have to be governed by the Mother's Day Fund. A patient's hospital bill will be estimated in advance, any available hospital insurance will be deducted, and the balance must be paid before the patient is admitted unless he is certified by his county welfare department or some other agency. Any balance beyond the estimated bill must be paid before the patient is discharged. In case of an emergency, the patient may be admitted but the hospital bill must be paid as soon as possible after admission. The Mother's Day Fund will be used, as it has been, to pay the difference between the amount paid by the certifying agency and the total cost of caring for the patient.

The great concern at our Baptist Hospital is for these patients who must have financial assistance if they are to get the specialized care they need. But the hospital has come to the point that it cannot continue to operate without the money necessary to cover the cost. In view of the circumstances, we believe the great majority of our pastors and our people will understand these changes and give their full cooperation. The Mother's Day Offering will need to be increased greatly if our hospital is to fulfill its mission to our people who most need it. We want to assure our hospital that it can depend upon us in full measure.

On the following page is a comparison of the gifts to the Mother's Day Offering for years 1967 and 1968, by the churches in the Little River Association.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY REPORT

The American Bible Society is a mission organization and complements rather than duplicating mission work of Southern Baptist. The program of the Bible Society is founded on three basic Missionary principles.

1. People must have the Bible for its presents Jesus Christ, our only hope.
2. People must have the Bible in their language for it speaks to individuals.
3. The Bible is essential in bringing all men and women to Jesus as Savior and Lord. The Bible is able to go places we can not go and stay after we leave.

The American Bible Society is non-profit and serves all denominations at home and abroad. The Society translates the Bible in many languages without note or comment and distributes them without profit. In case of overseas, many times without charge. It even supplies the Scripture in Braille, in Talking Bible Records and on Tape.

A Program of Worldwide Missionary Advance with the theme, "God's word for a new age," is being carried on in cooperation with other Bible Societies. Long range goals are:

A Bible in every Christian home
A Testament in every Christian hand
A Scripture portion for every reader
Supplies of Scripture for Christians to share

During last year in excess of 500,000 scriptures were given for distribution by Chaplains to our Armed Forces and Veterans Hospitals, as a vital link between the home churches and men in service.

During 1966 the Bible Society published, "GOOD NEWS FOR MODERN MAN" which is a translation into modern day English. This has been widely accepted and costs less than a Coca Cola.

Southern Baptist do support the work of the Bible Society. Southern Baptist lead all denominations in total gifts, but we only give an average of two cents per member. During 1967 we gave almost a quarter million dollars but only two cents per Southern Baptist. Does this characterize us as being Missionary? We should lead in per capita giving as no people have been blessed of God more than Southern Baptists. Did your church contribute to the cause? Could not each church contribute a minimum of $10.00? Could not my church and some others give $100.00?

Do you have extra Bibles or New Testaments that you could give a friend who does not have one? These are available at a nominal cost from the American Bible Society, 1865 Broadway, New York, N.Y. 10023. Could each of us use a Testament while witnessing and then leave the Testament? People have been converted of sin while reading a Testament?

REPORT ON SOCIAL SERVICE AND CIVIC RIGHTEOUSNESS

I should like to begin this report "in medias res" by stating that Christians are Christ-ones, acting as He acted, living as He lived, walking as He walked, talking as He talked, and armed with the same mind as He was armed.

Abstemious Christianity is like a knife at the throat of the Twentieth-Century church. An ounce of spiritual commitment is hardly enough to rid our world of its ever mounting problems of sin and despair. Self-denial and cross-commitment are sacred unconditionally ordered to the well-armored Christian soldier by our Superior Officer, Jesus Christ, who leads each Christian with his mighty hand stretched forward, flies his banner of love over every child, and provokes each disciple into the very thick of battle.

It is not enough for us to fill our respective pews on Sunday and Wednesday. It is not enough for us to teach a Sunday School lesson to an assembled group once each week. It is not enough for the pastor to preach sermons to those who attend regular services each week. We are in need of practicing Christians, not just preaching Christians. Too many of us are suffering from spiritual obesity because we have been storing rather than disseminating the Word of God unto those who need to have these blessed precepts unprejudicedly and rightfully divided unto them. To be repetitious of preceding reports on this subject, "Applied Christianity" can and will alleviate a large part of existing social and civil injustices faster than any method known to mankind. To put it more bluntly, we need to practice more actively, "out yonder," these sermons and lessons which we have been dictating to others. Our Lord requires justice from those who walk justly. We need to realize that the church is not something that you go to; but rather, the church is something that your are. We cannot attain to a radiant, vibrant witness as long as we continue to hide our candles under the church steeple. The proper place for the Christian candle is mounted upon the golden Candlestick, even Jesus Christ the itinerant, altruistic servant unto others.

The Christian Faith was never intended to be an egocentrical, sophisticated, selfish way of life. There must be purpose and unity correlating between God and man at all times. Our dependence must be centered in Christ and our fellowman; for, we have learned in these recent years that the term "independence" is obsolete, antique; in fact, we have every reason to believe that this term is a transfer from Satan's dictionary. One who claims independence is a mocker to himself and through some form of avarice has lost sight of the true purpose of living.

In a time like this, we need to face the truth squarely. It seems as if we are reliving the days of Isaiah when the old prophet looked about and said, "Truth is fallen in the streets." Jeremiah, Daniel's contemporary, had a similar feeling when he examined the situation and uttered "the people are not valiant for the truth." We hear the question of a procrastinating Pilate, "What is truth"? He who knew truth as its author, who was full of grace and all wisdom, declared to a group of believing Jews, "If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." Jesus became more insistent and distinct when in the fourteenth chapter of John he said, "I AM the TRUTH." When you find truth in any matter, hang your harp upon it and never let go."

Hear our Lord again as he speaks through Paul the epistler: "For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jew or Gentile, whether we be bond or free." But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit." "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither male or female: for ye are all ONE in Christ Jesus." We sing

"Christ for the Whole Wide World," but do we really intend this in complete freedom? We preach fervently from John 3:16, but do we really feel the nearness of such love? We talk about charity enduring all things, but do we really resolve to patiently bear all things?

If a man comes into our congregation and he happens to be a banker, lawyer, or college professor, do we have a tendency to make him Chairman of the Board of Deacons? If a man comes into our congregation and he happens to be poor, ignorant, shabbily dressed, or black, do we have a tendency to make him sweep the walk, mow the lawn, and tell him that because he is black we cannot accept him into our dignified presence? The Bible at this point becomes a fervent furnace and strongly declares that God is not a respector of persons. Who am I to have contempt for any living thing that God has created and ordained? Did not our Savior die for all people? Is not the Body of Christ ONE Body?

Isn't it strange that we will go to any amount of trouble and strain to support and send a missionary to the black people of Africa and at the same time reject those who live within the shadow of our church steeple? Isn't is odd that a man will drive from South Carolina, pick up a family of Negro migrant workers, work them in his tobacco fields beside his own wife and children, and then say to these poor people, "You stay away from my school and my church?" Again, isn't it strange that a white lady will hire a Negro lady to keep her house and children while the white lady goes off to work, and then will say to this one, "sorry you can't worship God in our church. It's made for white people only?" What a strange fire it is that a man who makes his living in the woods by a still, who belongs to a group that hated Negroes and burns crosses in cow pastures, will get up out of his bed at any hour of the night to sell a bottle of whiskey to any Negro who has the right price in his pocket. It is nearly as strange to hear a Baptist deacon say "If that Nigger (sic) steps his foot inside our church door, I'll cut his toes off." I suggested to this erring brother, who happens to be a member of a church that is not in Harnett County, that we let the Lord handle the situation. The Lord did a marvelous job. He always does.

What right do we have to keep any man out of the Church that Jesus Christ purchased with his own blood? The Bible says, "There is one body, one Spirit, one hope, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God the Father of all." The Bible did not say, "There are two bodies, two Spirits, two hopes, two Lords, two faiths, two baptisms, two Gods and Fathers of all."

I cannot find greater precedence to write about than this one Goliath-sized problem that we are presently facing in the form of racial hatred, unfair bigotry, and asinine stubbornness. My earnest prayer is that we will truly look to the Lord as we develop our opinions and attitudes concerning such a matter. The arm of flesh will fail us, but his strength is always sufficient.

Churchliness sometimes is not next to godliness. Churchianity is as limp as a withering stalk of celery when it is not conjunctive with the spiritual dynamo of Christianity. We have missed the mark entirely when we fail to take the message of our Lord to those who do not habitually frequent the doors of our Churches. Our Lord's commands may be summed up by these words: Come, Sit and Go. Go into every home in your neighborhood and teach them the ways of a Holy and Righteous God. Has your church ever been guilty of going only to white residences when taking a Religious Census in the community. If so, your church is tending only to half the vineyard. The early Christians went from house to house preaching, teaching, and fellowshipping within the confines of the Savior's Gospel. Would we sacrifice so much by being different from the early church?

As a rule, lost people do not go to the church; therefore, the church must go to the lost people. Personal witness out there in the homes, on the job, or street corner is the church's best and most potent investment for this age or any age yet to come. Rich dividends will be ours in the vaults of heaven if we are truly active soulwinners for Jesus Christ. The Bible says, "Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death and shall hide a multitude of sins."

REPORT OF THE MISSIONARY HOME BUILDING

When it became evident that we could not construct the home on the original site that had been purchased, we found another site, in a better location and larger in size that was purchased, after approval by the Executive Committee, and the original site was sold for what we paid for it to begin with.

The contract with R.M. Turlington, of Lillington, has to be renegotiated due to the rise in prices from the time he submitted his bid until we secured the new site. We signed the contract on August 16, 1967 calling for the turn key job, using standard brick and colonial blend dark grey-green shingles of asphalt. The price, which did not include the water and sewer tap, carpet, or driveway paving was $30,998.00. When other items were added, the cost was just $200.00 more than this.

The Association has an offer to do the landscaping gratis, and the women of the churches have raised the more than $350 needed to put carpet in the living room and dining room.

The house is all electric heated and air conditioned, and has three bedrooms, two baths, a two-carport and an office for the Missionary. It is located at 600 - 13th street in Lillington.

The Association owes a debt of gratitude to Mr. W.A. Johnson for the invaluable service in this project, not only in legal papers but in his ability to help us all during the project. Also we are indebted to W.Earl Jones, Thomas Allen, Mrs. Harvey O'Quinn and Mrs. Mary Jo Mann for their interest, time and effort on this project.

We have a home that is already worth more than we have invested in it, and is in an excellent residential area in the county seat. We need to plan an appropriate dedication service for this home.

I hope the churches will all give as much as the Finance Committee recommends, so that the retirement of the bonds can occur in due time and with a minimum of difficulty.

EVANGELISM REPORT

The first great responsibility of Baptists today is to proclaim the message of the Gospel clearly, plainly and under the empowering of the Holy Spirit. The second is to see that the new life and purpose of God found in Christ is in the foreground of all our motives, attitudes and actions in personal cultural and organizational life and that this involves us in helping meet the needs of all people. To express the same things another way is to say evangelism is our first great responsibility and the second is to follow our Lord Jesus Christ obediently, as taught in the Scriptures, that the true fruits of evangelism may issue from our total lives. Therefore, it must be of utmost concern to every Spirit-filled Baptist. To know there is a reliable source of divine knowledge found in the Bible to preach the Gospel of Christ one must know what the Gospel is, and this God has revealed and written for us in the Bible.

To move with God this year and next in the Crusade of the Americas means that we must be diligent in searching the Scriptures and proclaiming the glorious Gospel of Christ revealed therein; and that we must walk daily with God in the fellowship of prayer. Leaders in the churches must make sure these two most vital matters are constantly practiced in their lives and that these matters are always kept before the people in the churches. This done faithfully and sincerely day by day across the weeks and months will bring individuals and churches into vital relationship with God.

It is urgently important that every church be confronted with the opportunity and responsibility of participating with other Baptist across the Western hemisphere in prayerful concern for a spiritual awakening to be experienced in the simultaneous revival meetings next spring. Messengers of this association are therefore urged to see that every church rightly faces this challenge. For details on the Crusade consult the GUIDEBOOK FOR BAPTIST OF NORTH CAROLINA which has been mailed to all pastors, Sunday School superintendents, Training Union Directors, WMU presidents, and Brotherhood presidents.

In our association the following churches have voted to participate in the Crusade: Angier, Antioch, Antioch Mission, Buies Creek First, Chalybeate Springs, Coats, Dunn First, Erwin First, Friendship, Holly Springs, Kennebec, Lillington, Oak Grove, Piney Grove, Rawls.

An associational Crusade of Americas Rally is planned for November 18 at the Lillington Baptist Church, 7:30 p.m. Rev. Harold White will be the inspirational speaker. Some other features are planned also.

As soon as a church votes to participate, the Associational Chairman of Evangelism should be notified.

CONSTITUTION

1. This Association shall be known as "Little River Baptist Association."

2. The object of this Association shall be the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ, and the means of accomplishing this shall be in strict conformity with the principles of the New Testament.

3. The Association shall have no authority over the internal right of any church belonging to it and shall act only as advisory council.

4. The Association shall be composed of messengers chosen by the churches connected with it, each church being entitled to five messengers, plus one additional messenger for each one hundred members or fraction thereof. Ordained ministers having oversight of the churches in the Association, or having their membership in these churches, shall be received as messengers.

5. A quorum shall consist of messengers from a majority of the churches of the Association.

6. The messengers from each church to the annual meeting of the Association shall bear a letter certifying their appointment and giving an account of the condition of the church and a statement of all funds contributed for local and benevolent purposes.

7. The officers of the Association shall be moderator, a vice-moderator, a clerk, and a treasurer, who shall be chosen annually from the messengers composing the Association, and shall continue in office until their successors are elected. The term of the office of the moderator shall begin at the conclusion of the session at which he is elected and continue until the close of the next annual session.

OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES:

8. General officers and Associational Missionary

a. Moderator--The moderator shall preside over all sessions of the Association and the executive committee, preserve order, appoint all committees not otherwise provided for and exercise all other duties of a presiding officer according to the principles of parliamentary usage; he shall also, as far as his private duties permit, visit and communicate with the churches between sessions to promote and encourage the spirit of cooperation and Christian fellowship. The moderator shall not be ineligible for more than two, one year, terms in succession.

b. Vice-Moderator--The vice moderator shall assist the moderator and discharge the duties of the moderator in his absence.

c. Clerk--It shall be the duty of the clerk to keep a faithful record of the proceedings of the body, and use all diligence in having same printed and distributed to the churches as soon as possible; to mail to the church clerks forms for the annual letters, and to keep on hand the printed minutes and other information documents belonging to the body. He shall make an annual report to the Association.

d. Treasurer--It shall be the duty of the treasurer to receive all funds sent by the churches or collected during the session of this body and to disburse the same for the objects stated. He shall present a report on all funds received and disbursed by him, quarterly, to the executive committee and at each annual session. The treasurer shall be bonded at an amount of not less than $1,000.00. The books of the treasurer shall be audited at the close of each year at the direction of the Finance Committee.

e. Associational Missionary--It shall be the duty of the Associational Missionary:

(1) To work with and promote the Sunday School, Training Union, Brotherhood, Woman's Missionary Union, Music and Evangelism through a strong Associational program.

(2) Work with all churches of the association with the purpose of strengthening the work in each and especially the smaller churches.

(3) Counsel with all churches of the association, where churches desire, in regard to securing pastors, forming church fields, building pastor's homes, retirement, adequate salaries, etc.

(4) Be a counselor and brother to the pastors of the association.

(5) Lead in surveying new areas, and setting up new work, and direct the missions program of the association.

(6) Visit in all the churches each year and preach when invited to do so, to supply in the churches as the pastors invite him to do so.

(7) Seek to find and enlist the strongest leaders in the association program.

(8) Promote teaching and training courses in the local churches and on associational-wide basis.

(9) Encourage cooperation with the denominational program in the association and the churches.

(10) Supervise such special efforts as deacon schools, enlargement campaigns and simultaneous efforts.

(11) Be on the alert for soul-winning opportunities at all times.

(12) To develop work where not in existence, to coordinate work between churches and organizations, to find and develop leadership to keep our work in line with State and southwide work, and to assemble and distribute information pertaining to our associational program.

9. Associational Officers

a. Sunday School Superintendent--It shall be the duty of the Associational Sunday School Superintendent to plan and promote the total program of the Sunday School within the bounds of the association with special emphasis on better Vacation Bible Schools, and a wider participation in January Bible Study and Sunday School Preparation Week. He shall make a quarterly report to the Executive Committee and an annual report to the Association.

b. Training Union Director--It shall be the duty of the Associational Training Union Director to plan and promote the total Training Union Program within the bounds of the association using the special emphasis listed in the Training Union Calendar.

He shall make a quarterly report to the Executive Committee and an annual report to the association.

c. Brotherhood President--It shall be the duty of the Associational Brotherhood President to promote the total Brotherhood program with special emphasis on enlisting more laymen in the support of the total church program. He shall make a quarterly report to the Executive Committee and an annual report to the association.

d. Woman's Missionary Union President--It shall be the duty of the Woman's Missionary President to plan and promote the work of Woman's Missionary Union work within the bounds of the association with special emphasis on the special missionary effort of the church. Make a quarterly report to the executive committee and an annual report to the association.

e. Music Director--It shall be the duty of the Associational Music Director to plan and direct the music for all the meetings of the association. He shall seek to stimulate interest in good church music through clinics, study courses, music schools, hymn sings, in the churches and in association wide efforts. Make a quarterly report to the Executive Committee and an annual report to the association.

f. Chairman of Evangelism--The chairman of Evangelism shall promote a vigorous program of evangelism throughout the association, using materials, suggestions, and programs of our state and Southern Baptist Department of Evangelism where possible. He shall upon request, assist churches desiring his help in securing evangelists for revival meetings. He shall plan and direct simultaneous evangelistic efforts in the association when desired. Make an annual report to the association.

10. Committees:

a. Nominating Committee--The nominating committee shall be composed of three (3) members, appointed by the moderator at the annual session to nominate all officers of the association except as otherwise provided for in the constitution. This committee shall submit the name of Sunday School Superintendent, Training Union Director, Brotherhood President, and WMU President to the executive committee for approval at its July meeting so that they may assist the nominating committee in an advisory capacity in nominating a full slate of organizational officers.

b. Program Committee--The Program Committee composed of not less than three (3) members shall be appointed by the moderator at the annual session to plan the program for the next annual meeting of the association. The committee shall make sure that those who are to make reports and others appearing on the program are notified well in advance of the meeting so that they will have ample time to make preparation for such. The committee shall prepare tentative copies of the program to be distributed among the churches and to those appearing on the program prior to the annual meeting.

c. Resolutions Committee--Composed of three (3) members, appointed by the moderator, at the beginning of the first session of the annual meeting, shall draw up and present to the association, resolutions of appreciation and any other resolutions it may deem expedient.

d. Place and Preacher Committee--Composed of three (3) members appointed by the moderator at the beginning of the first session of the annual meeting shall receive or solicit invitations, and shall recommend the place or places. It shall also recommend the preacher and alternate for the Missionary and Doctrinal sermons which shall be given one on the first day and the other on the second day to be alternated from year to year.

e. Missions Committee--Composed of the following associational officers: Sunday School Superintendent, Training Union Director, Woman's Missionary Union President, Brotherhood President, Chairman of Evangelism, Clerk, Treasurer, and Moderator. This committee shall work with the missionary in promoting the work of the association, and lead and assist in organizing new churches and in beginning new mission churches. It shall also seek to help any member church desiring assistance with its problems. This committee shall receive application from churches desiring to join the association and make recommendations to the association. When without a missionary, this committee shall seek out and recommend to the association, or its executive committee, for electing a new missionary.

f. Evangelism Committee--Composed of the heads of the associational organizations and the Chairman of Evangelism, shall promote the work of evangelism in the association in cooperation with the association and the State Department of Evangelism. All plans and programs to be subject to the approval of the association or its executive committee.

g. Finance Committee--Composed of three (3) members including the Treasurer shall study the association's financial needs for an adequate program, present a budget to the association for the following year, devise plans for securing the cooperation of the churches in raising funds to meet the budget, and make a written report to the annual meeting. In the event that the treasurer cannot fulfill his duties, the chairman shall be empowered to act and sign checks until such time as a new treasurer is secured.

h. Ordination Committee--Composed of the Moderator and four (4) other members, shall when requested by a member church, assist with the examination and ordination of a candidate for the Gospel Ministry. Each candidate shall be examined as to his Christian experience, call to, and preparation for the ministry, doctrinal beliefs, and attitude toward our denomination and its program.

i. Constitution and Policy Committee--Composed of three (3) members, shall be available to study any changes or revisions in the Constitution, and to make recommendations as needed to keep the Constitution in line with the policies and programs of the association.

j. Calendar Committee--Composed of the heads of the associational organizations, the Chairman of Evangelism, and missionary, shall work out as soon as possible each year an associational calendar for the coming year and present same to the executive committee for adoption.

k. Standing Committee--Composed of chairman of Christian Literature, Chairman on Baptist Hospital, Chairman on World Missions, Chairman on Social Service, and Civic Righteousness, Chairman of Christian Education, Chairman on American Bible Society, Chairman on Children's Homes, Chairman on Homes for Aging, Chairman on Minister's Retirement, Chairman on Evangelism, and Chairman on Memorials. Their duties shall consist of communicating (personal visitation if possible) and promoting through the churches of the association the work of each institution or agency they represent. They shall make an annual report to the association.

11. The executive board or committee shall be composed of all association officers, the associational missionary (ex-officio), each active pastor, one lay member chosen by each member church from its membership and certified to the association, in its annual report, and chairmen of all standing committees. The Executive Committee shall have the authority to act for the association between sessions, except as limited by the constitution. It shall be the duty of this board or committee to meet quarterly and to make reports and recommendations to the association at its annual meeting. The members present at any meeting of the committee, after all members have been duly notified of such meeting, shall constitute a quorum.

12. The association shall hold an annual meeting commencing on Monday after the fourth Sunday in October.

13. A meeting of the association may be called by the moderator at any time by the consent of five members of the executive committee. Each church shall be notified of such a meeting in time to send messengers.

14. This association shall have the right to exclude from its membership any church that departs from New Testament principles.

15. Any church desiring to become a member of this association may make application through the Missions Committee of the association. This application must be made at least one month prior to the annual meeting of the association. The church, upon the recommendation of the Missions Committee, shall be received under the watchcare of the Association for one year. In the interim the Missions Committee shall examine the doctrine of the church and the church's acceptance of Baptist witness.

16. The association may invite visitors to seats and extend to them all the privileges of the messengers except that of voting.

17. By appointment, at each annual meeting, an introductory sermon or address on missions shall be delivered.

18. This constitution may be amended at any annual session, by a vote of two-thirds of the messengers present, provided that notice shall be given in the morning of the day on which such motion will be presented.

19. The association shall elect three trustees from the members composing the Association, who shall serve with the Moderator, as the Trustees of the Little River Baptist Association, and whose duty it shall be to take and hold title to the property, both real and personal, owned by the association. The moderator of the association shall serve as a trustee until such time as his successor is elected and qualified.

HOLLY SPRINGS BAPTIST CHURCH
BROADWAY, N.C.

PROCEEDINGS

1. The ninety-fourth annual session of the Little River Baptist Association held its first session with the Harmony Baptist Church, Tuesday, October 18, 1969. The meeting was called to order by the Moderator, H. Everett Marion, pastor of Chalybeate Springs Church, at 7:00 p.m. A. Howard Beard, pastor of Coats Baptist Church, led the congregation in the singing of a hymn. Mrs. John Ayscue was pianist. J.C. McQueen, Jr. pastor of Kennebec Church, read the first chapter of the Epistle of James and led the meeting in prayer. The Moderator recognized Paul C. Willis, pastor of the local church, who extended a cordial welcome to the messengers and visitors.

2. The clerk called the roll of the churches and messengers from twenty-seven churches responded. A motion was made that the messengers of these churches, and those reporting later, constitute the ninety-fourth annual session of the Little River Baptist Association. The motion carried.

3. The program chairman, R. Lewis Beal, presented a tentative program and moved that it be adopted as the order of business subject to any adjustments that might become necessary. The motion carried. (see "Program" page 23)

4. Julius Holloway, presented the names of the pastors new to the Association. The Moderator extended a welcome to those present. (see "Directory" page 7) A visitor, Rev. Mr. Marks from Kershaw, S.C., was also recognized.

5. The Moderator announced the appointment of the following committees:

Nominating Committee: Alvin O'Shields, Chr.
Tom Freeman
Mrs. Harvey O'Quinn

Program Committee: G. Scott Turner, Chr.
Mrs. Hubert Byrd
Weldon Johnson

Place and Preacher: Clyde Johnson, Chr.
Irvin Stephens
Norman Wheeler

Resolutions Committee: Barry Landrum, Chr.
Mrs. Walter Gentry
Earl Jones

6. The clerk presented a petition for membership in the Association from the Fellowship Baptist Church, Lillington, N.C. as follows:

Secretary of Little River
Lillington, N.C. 27546

Subject: Request for membership

Dear Rev. Turner:

In behalf of the Fellowship Baptist Church, Route 2, Lillington, North Carolina, constituted April 6, 1969, I respectfully request membership in the Little River Association of Baptist. The Church was duly constituted by representatives from various churches of the Association, and is performing the duties of a Baptist Church, conducting regular services of worship, and engaging in the implementation of missions, education and benevolence. The Church is Southern Baptist in character, promoting and maintaining the teachings and doctrines of the Southern Baptist Denomination.

The Church Secretary, working in conjuncture with the Church Council, is providing the Association with factual information concerning the entire church program in the associational letter.

The members of the Fellowship Baptist Church look forward to a great future and to an active and mutual helpfulness in the Association of Churches in the Little River Association of Baptist, the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, and the Southern Baptist Convention.

Your prayer, interest, and attention in this request will be greatly appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,
Robert West, Chairman of Deacons

On the motion of A. Howard Beard the Fellowship Baptist Church was received under the watch-care of the association as provided in the constitution.

7. Mrs. W.F. Gentry presented the report of the Woman's Missionary Society. On her motion the report was adopted. (see "Reports" page 32)

8. The Brotherhood report was presented by James B. Brown, President. On his motion it was adopted. (see "Reports" page 33)

9. The Associational Missionary presented his report, accompanied by slides illustrating the building and other activities of the churches during the year. On motion the report was adopted. (see page 33)

10. After the singing of a hymn, Mrs. Harold Owens presented the World Mission report. The report was adopted on her motion. (see page 34)

11. The Moderator then addressed the meeting on the subject, "Doing Together What We Cannot Do Apart."

12. R. Lewis Beal presented a film, "Mr. Big" which gave a much needed warning against driving cars under the influence of alcohol, and careless driving.

13. The congregation joined in the singing of a hymn and was led in a closing prayer by B. Worth Gerald, pastor of the new Fellowship Church. The meeting then adjourned to meet the following day at the Holly Springs Baptist Church.

SECOND DAY
Morning Session

1. The second session of the annual meeting of the Association was held with the Holly Springs Baptist Church, Wednesday, October 29, 1969. The Moderator called the meeting to order at 9:30 a.m. Charles W. Stafford led in the singing of a hymn. Tommy Wagner, pastor of East Erwin Church read from the eighth chapter of Romans and led in prayer. Thirty-one churches responded to the roll call. Morris Andrews, pastor of the local church, extended a warm welcome to those attending.

2. The Moderator recognized Stanley Webb, representing Gardner Webb College; Berles Johnson, representing Campbell College; and Cy Bazemore, representing the Biblical Recorder.

3. The Moderator presented his report which was adopted on motion. (see "Reports" page 35)

4. The Sunday School Report was presented by Morris Andrews. On his motion the report was adopted. (see "Reports" page 35)

5. In the absence of Miss Bonnie Bennett, the Training Union report was read by Julius Holloway and adopted on his motion. (see "Reports" page 36)

6. The report on Christian Literature was read by Mrs. I.K. Stafford and adopted on her motion. (see page 36) Mr. Cy Bazemore then spoke to the report. He said that we should ascertain these three things "What are the facts?" What do they mean?" and "What should we do about them?"

7. Sam F. Hudson then presented the report on the Ministers Retirement Program. He emphasized the importance of providing for our pastors in their old age, or in case of incapacity, and urged the messengers to see that their churches were participating in the plans of the Annuity Board. On his motion the report was adopted. (see page 37)

8. Miscellaneous business was then taken up.

(1) The clerk read the following letter from Cumberland Union Baptist Church.

Little River Baptist Association
Box 896
Lillington, N.C. 27546

Dear Sir:

The Cumberland Union Baptist Church in the business meeting in May voted unanimously to withdraw from the Little River Association.

With every good wish for your continous success in the future.

Sincerely,
Glenwood Caviness
Chm. of Deacons

The motion was made and adopted that the request of the church to withdraw from the Association be accepted and its name be dropped from the roll.

Paul C. Willis offered the following motion which was adopted unanimously:

"The members of the Little River Association wish to express their regret of the decision of Cumberland Union Church to drop from the fellowship of this association, and we wish to express our love to this sister church and wish them to know that this Association would welcome them back into our fellowship should they wish to reconsider their union with us."

(2) The Mission Committee presented the following report:

"The missions committee, after careful investigation of the Memorial Baptist Church, Buies Creek, N.C., recommends unanimously that the church be accepted to full membership in the Little River Baptist Association."

The motion was made to receive the Memorial Baptist church to full fellowship in the association and was adopted unanimously. The Moderator then recognized the messengers from the church and gave them a warm welcome.

(3) Thomas M. Freeman presented a request for aid from the State Mission Board by the Crestview Mission on Highway 421, South of Dunn, and asked the Association to approve the request. The amount asked was $1,200.00 to be applied to pastor's salary. A motion was made and carried to approve the request.

(4) Harry B. Stokes, pastor of the Memorial Church, read an application for aid to the State Mission Board from his church. The amount asked was $2,500.00 to be applied to the purchase of a lot in Buies Creek on which a church building is to be erected. On motion the association approved the application.

(5) R. Lewis Beal notified the meeting of certain changes in the Constitution that would be presented by the Constitutional Committee at the afternoon session.

(6) Brother Morris Andrews called the attention of the association to the great need for an address-o-graph machine for the missionaries office. This was referred to the Executive Committee.

(7) The report on Christian Education was presented by Mrs. Berles Johnson. Stanley Webb spoke, briefly, to the report which was adopted on the motion of Mrs. Johnson. (see page 38)

(8) E.C. Wilkie, Missionary of the Baptist State Convention, addressed the meeting. His subject was the "Co-operative Program."

(9) Mrs. David Hardison presented the report on Homes for the Aging, and spoke briefly on the work of the Homes. On her motion the report was adopted. (see page 38)

(10) The report on Baptist Children's Homes was given by Robert West and adopted on his motion (see page 39)

(11) Barry Landrum presented the report on the Baptist Hospital and moved its adoption. The report was approved. (see page 40)

(12) Dr. W.K. McGhee, representing the Baptist Hospital at Winston Salem, addressed the meeting on "The Three Social Service Agencies" "The Hospital" The Baptist Homes" and "The Children's Homes."

(13) The American Bible Society report was given by Charles Burns who spoke briefly on the important work of the Society. On his motion the report was adopted. (page 41)

(14) After the singing of a hymn Johnson Gupton, pastor of the East Erwin Baptist Church read the third chapter of the Gospel of John, led the congregation in prayer, and delivered an excellent sermon on the subject "The Challenge of Todays Living."

(15) The Campbell College choir, led by Dr. Paul Yoder, rendered a splendid musical program.

The meeting then adjourned to enjoy the delightful meal provided by the Holly Springs Church.

AFTERNOON SESSION

(16) The Moderator called the meeting to order at one fifteen p.m. After the singing of a hymn Henry B. Stokes, pastor of Memorial Church read a passage from the twelfth chapter of Romans and led in prayer.

(17) Mrs. Weldon Johnson conducted a Memorial Service for those in our churches who had died during the year. (see "Our Beloved Dead" page 17)

(18) The Moderator called for the report on Social Service and Social Righteousness but no report was presented.

(19) The Committee on Preacher, Place and Time reported as follows:

Time of next Annual meeting: Monday after the fourth Sunday in October.

Place: Broadway Baptist Church for the Monday evening session
Bethel Baptist Church for the Tuesday Session.

The annual sermon to be delivered by Morris Andrews or his alternate Barry Landrum. On motion the report was adopted.

(20) The Budget Committee presented their report. Barry Landrum moved that the report be amended to increase the annual salary of the clerk to $75.00. The report as amended was adopted. (see page 5)

(21) The report of the Nominating Committee was presented by Barry Landrum and on his motion adopted. (see Directory of Associational Officers page 3)

(22) The Resolutions Committee, Barry Landrum, chairman, offered the following resolutions which were unaminously adopted. (see page 42)

(23) R. Lewis Beal, chairman of the Committee on the Constitution, presented the following recommendations for changes in the Constitution:

A. That article 10, section E, Missions Committee be amended by adding the word "clerk" between the words "Chairman of Evangelism" and "Treasurer."

B. That article II, The Executive Committee, shall be amended by the addition, at the end of the article of this sentence "The members present at any meeting of the committee, after all members have been duly notified of such meeting, shall constitute a quorum."

C. That article twelve be amended by deleting the word Tuesday and inserting the word "Monday" in its place.

On motion of the chairman the recommendations were adopted unanimously, and the constitution so amended.

(24) After the singing of a hymn by the congregation, Julius Holloway, in the absence of the appointee, presented the report on Evangelism and moved its adoption. The motion carried. (see page 42)

(25) A. Howard Beard sang, as a solo, the hymn "I Am Satisfied With Jesus."

(26) The Moderator introduced George Bryce, Missionary to Brazil, home on furlough, who delivered a stirring missionary address.

(27) A motion was made and carried that the meeting adjourn and the Moderator led in a closing prayer.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORT

The Executive Committee, composed of the pastors and one lay representative from each church, meets quarterly between the annual meetings of the Association in order to carry on the business of the Association. The importance and the responsibilities of these representatives to attend these meetings needs to be emphasized.

In December, The Memorial Baptist Church requested and received approval from the Executive Committee for help from the Baptist State Convention in purchasing a lot for their church building in Buies Creek. This church has been under the watchcare of the Association for this past year, and they will be presented for membership into the Association at this session.

In January, The Executive Committee directed the Moderator to write letters to various Legislators and others in elected office to voice our concern over the possible liberalization of the liquor laws in North Carolina. There was response, from each person who was written, expressing gratitude for our interest.

Perhaps the most far reaching thing done this year in our Association was the Crusade of the Americas Revival. Thorough preparation was made throughout the Association for this revival effort.

There were two Associational Evangelistic Conferences held, a number of pastor's prayer retreats, and many prayer meetings in the local churches. The Holy Spirit moved in a wonderful way among our churches for which we thank God.

The Missionary Home and office looks good, and we are indebted to Baxter Lee and Bill Watkins, of the Angier Nursery, for landscaping, seeding and shubbery. A visit to the Associational Office will make you grateful for the part your church has in these improved facilities.

A number of new pastors have come to the Association since last year. We are pleased to welcome these dedicated men into our fellowship. We trust that the Lord will bless them and their work in the days ahead.

We are concerned that there are always a few churches and pastors which seem to have little or no feeling of belonging, nor sense of responsibility toward supporting the program, either in stewardship of time or money. Maybe a worthy goal for the new year would be to encourage and seek to enlist these pastors and churches into a closer relationship with the Association. We do need each other to do our best work.

Generally speaking, there is a decline in church attendance and church influence in the turblent times. However, there does seem to be some renewed interest, a desire for deeper experiences in the Lord and a desire for more involvement, on the part of many of our people, into the work of His Kingdom. May God's Holy Spirit guide individually and collectively to do His will.

Respectfully submitted,
H. Everett Marion, Moderator

ASSOCIATIONAL W.M.U. ANNUAL REPORT

Under the theme "A Church Fulfilling Its Mission," the convention selected Evangelism and World Missions to be emphasized in 1968-1969. The major thrusts of the emphasis were the Crusade of the Americas and Project 500.

The Crusade of the Americas was a cooperative evangelistic effort throughout the Western Hemisphere in 1969. Project 500 was a special project of the Home Mission Board to establish 500 new churches and missions in strategic areas of our country.

During the year Woman's Missionary Union focused on the task of teaching missions and leading persons to participate in missions.

The Associational W.M.U. Leadership Conference was held in the Antioch Baptist Church, October 1, 1969 at 7:30 p.m. 114 women attended with 18 churches and missions represented. Conferences were held for all of the W.M.U. officers of the local churches.

Our Annual Associational W.M.U. Meeting was held with the Friendship Baptist Church on April 15, 1969 at 4:30. 200 people registered from 21 churches.

Miss Linda Warren, State Y.W.A. Director, was guest speaker for the afternoon session. Rev. Barry Landrum, pastor of the Lillington Baptist Church spoke in the evening.

The Associational G.A. Rally was held in the Lillington Baptist Church May 17, 1969 at 11:00 A.M. Mrs. John Rogers planned and presided at the Rally. Mrs. Neal Peyton, Missionary among the deaf people in North Carolina, was the featured afternoon speaker.

Plans were made for the Sunbeam Day Camp to be held at Camp Abra, but because of rain it was held in the Lillington Baptist Church on August 6th. Mrs. Kenneth Tally, Associational Sunbeam Director, planned and directed the camp which featured a day of Mission Study, Campcraft, Handcraft, Nature Study, and Recreation for the twenty, eight year olds, attending.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Walter Gentry,
Assoc. W.M.U. Director

REPORT ON BROTHERHOOD

Our Association has a challenge in front of our Baptist Men. The purpose of the organization is to help churches fulfill their objective of bringing men, young men, and boys to God through Christ by leading them in the following ways.

(1) To a deeper commitment to missions
(2) To a more meaningful prayer life for missions
(3) To a larger stewardship on behalf of missions
(4) To a personal involvement in missions

The objective of our associational Brotherhood organization is to help churches establish, conduct, enlarge, and improve their Brotherhood Programs. A well defined objective serves as a "guiding star" for a program. It is an ultimate goal. This objective guides in the development of plans and actions to fulfill the role for which it exists. The objective also provides a criteron for evaluating the degree of success of the associational Brotherhood programs.

A task is basic, continuing activity designed to help achieve an objective. The work of the associational Brotherhood can be grouped under five tasks. These are to provide opportunity for fellowship and inspiration; to interpret the Brotherhood program; to train church Brotherhood leaders; to consult with church leaders about Brotherhood leaders; to consult with church leaders about Brotherhood programs; and to provide organization and leadership for cooperative work among the churches.

During the past year we visited with churches without Brotherhood or Royal Ambassadors, to introduce the Baptist Men's program. Also, we made visits in some of our more active Brotherhoods.

Many of our men and boys attended the State Brotherhood Convention in Winston Salem. We also had leadership for the Royal Ambassadors program at World Mission Week. The Associational Workshop for the leaders was attended by 28 men from eight of our churches which was very successful.

Since the associational Brotherhood program exists to help church Brotherhood units, may we work together for advancement of Christ's kingdom among men. We hope to have Baptist Men's work in all of our churches in the Association in the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,
James B. Brown

REPORT OF THE ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONARY

You have helped me do the following in Little River Baptist Association this year: Preach 43 sermons, 20 prayer meetings, 3 dedications, 5 homecomings, 5 pastor appreciations, 6 deacon ordinations, 11 W.M.U. and Brotherhood meetings, 8 mission studies, 3 weddings, 7 funerals, 10 GA, RA, and YWA, showed 43 filmstrips and films, 5 Lord Suppers, 7 V.B.S., 4 revivals, heard 8 professions of faith, served on 43 committees, made 21 hospital visits, attended 23 state meetings, helped ordain 2 ministers, attended 8 rallies - one week at Fruitland, 2 deacon studies, 2 rest homes, made 68 other visits to our Churches, 14 pastors conferences, 18 associational meettings. Brother Glenn Fasanella was licensed by Lillington Church, and is now pastor of South Erwin Church. Brother Ernest Packer was ordained by Highlands Baptist Church in Fayetteville to pastor Gourd Springs Church. Lillington mission was organized into Fellowship Baptist Church. Brother Furman Matthews was ordained by Fellowship Church to pastor Collins Grove Baptist Church in the Raleigh Association.

The following pastors have come to us this year:

South Erwin - Glenn Fasanella; East Erwin - Tommy Wagoner; Rawls - Robert Clark; Piney Grove - C. Paul Jones; Kennebec - J.C. McQueen; Memorial - Henry Stokes; Gourd Springs - Ernest Packer; Fellowship - Worth Gerald; Crestview Mission - Charles Ross. Laytons Chapel - George Denton; Bethel - Wendell Pearson (Nov. 23)

I call special attention to a "Shaping the 1970's" Conference in our Association on February 16, 1970 - 7-9:30 P.M., and February 17, 1970 - 7-9:30 P.M.

Nine of our associational leaders will go to Goldsboro January 19 and 20 for about 12 hours of clinic study. Then on February 16 and 17 will lead an associational clinic and study of about 5 hours, for our Church leaders. It will be important that our Church leaders attend this associational "Shaping the 70's" Clinic in order to know something about the changes, challenges, and opportunities for the 70's, what help is available, how to order literature, etc. I would suggest three books for your reading now: (1) A DYNAMIC CHURCH, by W.L. House and W.O. Thompson, (2) THE NEW TIMES, by Albert McClellan, (3) THE 70's OPPORTUNITIES FOR YOUR CHURCH, by James Daniel and Elaine Dickson.

I have a tape recording, "What will life be like in the 70's," one hour and 25 minutes long. I will be glad for any church to borrow and use it. Call or come by to see me if I can be of help anytime, in any way.

Respectfully submitted,
Julius Holloway

WORLD MISSIONS REPORT

"And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." (Mark 16:15)

"But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you; and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth." (Acts 1:8)

This is a commandment given by Jesus to those who would be his disciples. In the twentieth century of young people born in the after-math of the atomic bomb and living in fear of a nuclear world war, is this commandment falling on deaf ears? People seem to be so occupied with their own pursuits of pleasure of profit that they are unconcerned about issues affecting their fellowman or the world at large. Fewer young people than ever before are dedicating their lives to career missionary services.

A Missionary?
Who? Me?
I'm just a young person
How can I be a missionary?

I saw you today--
You were too busy to be kind to me.
I'm your little sister.
Your cruel, ugly words hurt me,
But you didn't care.

I saw you today--
You were too busy to notice me.
I'm in your classes at school.
I'm very lonesome -- why couldn't you be just a little friendly?

I saw you today--
You were too busy to help me.
I was the old lady with the heavy bag of groceries,
You knew I needed help, but you were too unconcerned.

We saw you today--
We saw you in many places,
We are the people you meet every day
You are always too busy to be kind and helpful
You don't even smile at us.

Listen to these voices!
Don't you care
A Missionary?
Who? Me?
I'm just a young person!
How can I be a missionary?

As of August 1969, there were 2,445 members of the Foreign Mission Board overseas staff. Career missionaries only numbered 2,167 while there were 145 missionary associates, 129 missionary journeymen, and 4 special project medical missionaries. There are now working in or are under appointment to the 70 countries now open to Southern Baptists. There is still a great need in many areas for missionary personnel. One hospital in Nigeria had to be closed for lack of Medical personnel. Other mission points have closed for lack of trained workers.

The Cooperative Program is regarded as the lifeline of world missions. It produces funds for work that Southern Baptist do both at home and throughout the world. None of us can be in all of these 70 foreign fields and our home fields at one time, but by means of our gifts and prayers we can be effective sharers with God's servants who labor on missions fields.

There are 2,400 home missionaries, over 600 of these are working with young congregations which look forward toward achieving self-support as quickly as possible. The Home Mission Board gives special attention to areas where Southern Baptist work is relatively new or weak.

Two programs have been in effect in 1968-69 to aid in the advancement of World Missions. Project 500 is a program designed to begin 500 churches in the United States and its territories. The "Evangelistic Crusade of the Americas" the largest evangelical crusade ever planned involving Baptist from almost all countries in North, South, and Central America, is the plan to combine strength to speak the good news of salvation to all people.

What will we as Southern Baptist, our churches, and our programs do about this tremendous, hurting world? Do we really care? Will we take the dare, spread good news everywhere, the cross of Christ to bear, do we really care?

In spite of the great spiritual need on the foreign field, or perhaps because of, we that call ourselves disciples of Christ should go back to Jerusalem and begin again.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Harold Owen

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

The statistics included in this report tell something of the Sunday School story of Little River Baptist Sunday Schools for the year 1968-69. During this period our total Sunday School enrollment will be up. At writing of this report 9 church letters had not come in, but the 26 reporting have an enrollment of 6,814. The total enrollment last year was 8,664.

30 of our 34 Churches reported Vacation Bible Schools with a total enrollment of 2,757. This shows a loss of 28 persons from last year.

The Vacation Bible Clinic was well attended with 23 of our Churches represented by 130 people.

This year will be a busy year for all who are willing to work as we shall be preparing ourselves for the "New Look of the 70's"

On January 19-20, 1970 the Sunday School director, Training Union Director, Brotherhood director, W.M.U. director and the Music director of the Association will attend along with the Secretary of Missions a conference on "Shaping the 70's" in Goldsboro, N.C. On February 16-17, 1970 there will be an Associational Clinic at the Lillington Baptist Church for all organizational and department heads.

This can be a great year for the Little River Baptists. We believe that we have enough qualified people in our Association to do the work that needs to be done. We challenge each church to give it their best effort.

Respectfully submitted,
Morris H. Andrews, Sr.
Assoc., Sunday School Supt.

TRAINING UNION REPORT

Since the church is the means by which we get our religious training, it seems to be of great necessity to have a Training Union in each church. However, many churches within the Little River Association have either let their Training Union die or have never seen the importance in starting one. To become a strong army for Jesus Christ we must be trained so that we may stand against the evils of the world. The Training Union Program has a place for each age·within the church.

This past church year the Training Union has had both "M" Night and Tournament Night. The theme for "M" Night, or Motivation Night, was Training for Christian Involvement. Twenty churches were present on December 2, 1968 at Friendship Baptist Church for "M" Night. The drama, "It's Not Too Late," was given by Friendship Baptist Church, and Rev. William Jones from Clinton, N.C. brought the message. There were only 203 people present while in 1967 there were 300 present.

Tournament Night was held at East Erwin Baptist Church on April 21, 1969 with 127 members present and eight churches represented. The Tournament Night is set aside for participants to show their skills; either in Adult Bible Reading, Young People Speeches, Intermediate sword drill, or Junior Memory work. This year there were only five participants in the Junior Memory work. Fourteen members from the Little River Association went to the Region 4 Tournament at New Hope Baptist Church, Raleigh on April 24, 1969. Five of these members participated in the Junior Memory work and they were all winners.

Training Union is essential if we plan to continue to carry the banner of Christ through this world. By training we can grow and while growing we can spread the Gospel story.

Bonnie Bennett

CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

We believe in the value of wholesome literature and know that as Baptists we are fortunate to have many good publications. But we have to admit that we do not subscribe to nor read these publications as we should.

Along with "Life" magazine and "Look," do we place in our homes before our youth: "The Commission" "Home Missions" "Tell" for GA's, "Ambassador Life" for RA's, the "Window" for YWA's? These give the missionary vision our youth needs.

Every Baptist church should have our state paper, the "Biblical Recorder" and "Charity and Children" made available to all its members. This can best be done by placing amounts for these publications in the church budget. Isn't it true that we usually oppose what we do not know or understand? Let's become better informed Baptists by reading more good Christian Literature.

Being reared in a home where Baptist publications were provided, read, and talked about, has brought richness to my Christian life and I am sure will add meaning to the lives of others.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. I.K. Stafford

ANNUITY BOARD REPORT

The Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention is necessary because Baptist preachers, and church employees, sometimes become disabled or get old, or die, nearly always leaving dependents. The purpose of the Annuity Board is to assist the disabled, or old, and care for the dependents of the dead. Since every denominational servant faces disability, old age, and death, every denominational servant needs to be covered by one or another of the several plans offered by the Annuity Board. Any pastor not covered, and any church not covering their pastor, needs to ask for information on the matter either from the Baptist Headquarters in Raleigh, or from the Annuity Board, SBC, 511 North Akard Building, Dallas, Texas, 75201.

The following is a testimony from Henry Register:

"Thank you for your letter of February 3 concerning my permission to use my statements concerning my pension benefits. You have my permission to use my case for any promotion at any time. Without the pension I don't know what I would do.

It is a great comfort to know that the first of every month I will receive a check for myself for the same amount I would receive had I been able to continue on working until I became 65. I am now only 46 years old and I have the full benefits of the 65 year old ministers who retired with the full years of service. I also receive 15% of the amount of my pension for each of my three children who are under 18 years of age; this amount comes the first of each month also.

Because of my disability, my insurance premium has been waived and will continue to be so as long as I am disabled. This is the Term Life Insurance, not the hospitalization. This is a great help, amounting to $90.00 a year.

Perhaps the greatest comfort to me is the fact that my oldest son is finishing high school this spring and will be going to Wingate College, thanks to the $600 per year furnished by the Annuity Board. This will be true for all of our children if I do not recover from this heart condition which prevents me from doing the work required for a minister.

I began this Annuity program in January, 1956, and have paid on the full $4,000 ever since. If I had paid on the additional salary, it would have been a much greater comfort to me now. I wish I had done so.

My monthly check is $157.92. I receive $23.69 for each of my three younger children, which amounts to $71.07, or a total each month of $228.99. This is a total of $2,746.88 each year. After the children all reach 18 years of age, if I am still disable, I will draw $1,895.04. This seems a small amount at the present day cost of living, but without it hardship would hardly be the word to describe our condition.

Thank you for writing, my good friend, and keep praying for me. I still have the faith that God in His own good time and in His own way will be able to use me again.

Cordially yours,
Henry L. Register

REPORT ON CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION

This fall our seven Baptist colleges: Campbell, Chowan, Gardner Webb, Mars Hill, Meredith, Wake Forest and Wingate, opened their doors to over 12,000 students. Of this number, approximately 600 were preparing for full-time Christian service. Some will become pastors, missionaries, directors of Religious Education, and others will be directors of church music, chaplains, denominational workers and Christian college teachers.

Because Baptist students want to be where the action is, they are already actively engaged in Christian service often without pay on their own time. For example, some of our own Campbell College students are participating in several church and community projects, among them a tutorial service to the local High schools. During the summer many students work in the local church in a new program called YOUTH CORPS, sponsored jointly by the Baptist colleges and the Church Training Department. Splendid reports come from churches who have employed these young people. Moreover, students work in summer assemblies, Vacation Bible Schools, Brotherhood department, Woman's Missionary Union, Audio-Visual Aids, Department of Work with the Deaf, Town and Country Department, and Interracial Cooperation Department.

In 1968, North Carolina Baptists held seven conferences on the college campuses, attended by pastors, deacons, W.M.U. leaders, and college personnel, to discuss the problems of Christian education as related to Baptist schools. Seven similar conferences were scheduled for 1969.

The October 11, 1969 issue of Biblical Recorder carries a full report of the Committee of 20 appointed to make a study of Baptist Higher Education. A careful reading of the entire report is urged. Under the section on FINANCES, we find an informative account of the findings and recommendations concerning the financial problems of our colleges. It is evident that our schools are in critical financial need in the face of the ever-rising cost of operation. The colleges are profoundly grateful to the Cooperative Program for its generous support last year. We are grateful also for the liberal offerings in June. It is our hope that all churches will lend support to our schools through this channel.

Please read this TWICE:

"Someone has said that America today is a place where people know the price of everything and the value of nothing. Baptists and other great Christian denominations have an unparalleled opportunity through their colleges to place a fresh emphasis on man's moral and ethical responsibilities. Christian colleges can play a major role in helping America to regain a Biblical sense of values. It is still more important to know how to live than how to make a living."

Let us support our Baptist colleges as they attempt to minister to the total support.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Berles Johnson

BAPTIST HOMES FOR THE AGING

Never before have your Baptist Homes for the Aging been more conscious of the Lord's Presence and of His Goodness than during the past year. At a time when the economy of the Homes was at its lowest ebb, with a sizeable deficit looming larger by the moment, when the weather was at its severest on the 3rd Sunday of February, the day of the Special Offering, the churches came through with an offering that promises, at this point, to be the greatest in the Home's history. The Lord, who is in charge of the weather and in charge of the Baptist Homes for the Aging, has surely rewarded our faith and moved upon our Baptist people to see the urgency of our needs, and we are grateful.

Ours shall continue to be a relationship of trust in the Lord and faith in our Baptist people. We earnestly hope that a continued and sustained effort will be made by our churches to increase and strengthen the amount of the main means of support for our ministry to the Aging--the Special Offering, and the Cooperative Program. Through these two sources, one third of the total income for the Homes is derived, and 85% of the residents, who are financially dependent, are cared for and supplemented. If we are to continue to assist these many needy persons, and if we are to reduce the deficit in the operation of the Homes, brought about by the rising cost of living, we must have more liberal support from our churches.

We do not believe that our Baptist people would want to curtail any of the vital ministries of the Homes and that they will respond to this urgent appeal.

Since last year, the Yanceyville Home, our newest Home, has been filled to capacity, and we now have almost 200 deserving older men and women living in our midst there and in our other four Homes--Resthaven and Hayes Home, in Winston Salem, the Albemarle Home, in Albemarle; and the Hamilton Home, in Hamilton. These wonderful people are finding much happiness in Christian companionship with persons of their age group, and great security in knowing that they will be loved and cared for in sickness as well as in health.

It is a deeply rewarding experience to see the light and joy of Christ on an older person's face and to hear words of deep appreciation almost daily for the Christian love and nurture that North Carolina Baptists are making possible through this ministry. We believe, therefore, that our Baptist people will want to have an ever-increasing part in so worthy a labor of love in the Master's Name. We know that the Lord will not fail us, and we also believe that our people will want to be as faithful as possible.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. David Hardison

REPORT OF BAPTIST CHILDREN'S HOMES OF NORTH CAROLINA

Among church supported agencies, North Carolina Baptists are fortunate to have one of the finest programs in the nation for the care and development of dependent children and for strengthening and supporting family life. This is an application of the teaching and example of Christ in His earthly ministry. More than 1200 children and their families are served annually.

The Children's Homes, through a variety of quality services, is recognized as a family service agency. This is made possible by well trained and professional staff who provide leadership for group care programs, foster home care, family services, consultation with churches in pre-school programs and planning for higher education of children who have been in care. This program unfolds in six campuses and through the work of regional casework centers throughout the State.

More requests for services are now coming to the Baptist Children's Homes than at any time in our previous history. All agency beds are filled and all available money is being utilized. We, too, have been caught in the rising costs of living and in an inflationary economy. A wider variety of quality services are being demanded to meet the needs of children who are the products of today's complex society. Present economic conditions make it necessary to have additional operating income with which to maintain the current program before any further expansion of services can be considered.

Friends of the Children's Homes, in Western North Carolina, have responded generously to the Founders and Builders Program to raise funds with which to establish the Broyhill Home to serve children in Western North Carolina. Sufficient funds have been given and pledged to purchase the land, to prepare the site and to construct the first two cottages for children. When the campus has been completed provision will have been made for four cottages for children, a multi-purpose administration and activities building and a home for the superintendent. With the support and cooperation of Baptists another home is being started at Asheville. A home in which to serve unwed mothers and their offspring will be opened during the fall of 1969.

By the use of designated gifts and bequests from individuals and families, significant progress is being made in the long range plans for up-grading of facilities. Two cottages are now under construction at Mills Home. A recreation building and an infirmary at Kennedy Home and two cottages for children at the Broyhill Home are scheduled for construction during the next year.

The contribution of our Baptist people through the Cooperative Program, the Thanksgiving Offering and special gifts are essential to our continued operation and are received with deep appreciation. An increasing number of friends are finding a rewarding stewardship opportunity through the establishment of trusts for the Homes and by means of wills and estate planning for the needs of dependent children and the preparation of wills.

Robert West

BAPTIST HOSPITAL REPORT

Our Medical Center continues a high quality program of medical care, training of medical personnel, and research in the causes and treatment of the diseases which afflict us. In the face of serious financial problems, the hospital staff is working more diligently than ever to minister to our people in keeping with their needs and to the limit of the hospital's resources.

The hospital has instituted more efficient admission procedures regarding patients' financial resources and plans for payment of hospital bills. Trained counselors are interviewing patients and their families regarding advance payments which are now required and for getting more accurate information on those who will need help. In this way they are able better to discover those patients who may be eligible for medical care assistance through Social Services departments or other health agencies, and can start proceedings at once for getting these patients certified if this has not already been done.

These agencies pay a major part of the cost for a patient they certify, but not the total cost, and the Mother's Day Fund must pay the balance. Amember of the family must go to the agency and give the necessary information, and getting this done is often a real program. Many of our pastors have helped in this connection and have rendered important service for the patients and the hospital.

If it were not for the help which comes from these health agencies, our Mother's Day Fund would not last for three months. After paying the difference between what the agencies pay and the total cost for these patients, the Mother's Day Offerings are used to help as many as possible of those who are not eligible for certification and who themselves cannot pay the total cost of their care. First preference must be given to those patients whose needs are greatest and most urgent. The free care the hospital gives must now be limited in keeping with the funds provided for this purpose, however, because the hospital cannot continue to go deeper in debt.

It is important that our people understand that all of the Mother's Day Offerings and designated gifts for this ministry are used for this purpose alone, and the hospital makes them go as far as it possibly can. The Trustees and Administration of the hospital are most grateful for the fine cooperation our pastors and our people are giving, and they earnestly solicit your understanding and generous effort.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY REPORT

When asked to give this report I'll have to admit that I was really unaware as to what a Bible Society is and its purpose. Maybe we should start by answering a few questions as such:

1. What are Bible Societies and what do they do?

Bible Societies are organizations whose main work is assisting in the faithful translation of the Scriptures, publishing them in convenient forms and whatever language necessary required and distributing them without profit to people who need them and might otherwise not get them.

2. What is the purpose and program of the American Bible Society?

Its single purpose is the encouragement of the wider circulation of the Holy Scriptures to every man on earth, and its purpose is four fold: Publication, Distribution of the Scriptures, Translation and the encouragement of the use of the scriptures.

When were the Bible Societies started?

The first Bible Society was established in England in 1804. The American Bible Society was established in 1816. There are 35 national Bible Societies now working together.

4. Do Bible Societies sell the Scriptures or give them away?

They do both. They sell the Scriptures at or even below cost to those who can afford them. They give them away to those who cannot afford even the low prices.

It is reported through 1968 that they have produced various Scriptures in 1,392 different languages, which was 66 more than at the end of 1967. The number of languages and dialects spoken in the world is estimated at 2,700 and the latest reports show that COMPLETE BIBLES have been published in 242 languages. Following is one example of how the Bible Society has helped:

GIFT OF BIBLE RESULTS IN NEW CHURCH

The sound of exploding fire crackers mingled with the singing of hymns at the recent dedication of the first Christian church to be built on the Island of Matsu just off the coast of mainland China. The story of the church begins in a Christian hospital where a Chinese woman who lives on Matsu was given a Bible. Reading this copy of Scriptures resulted in the woman's becoming a Christian. Later she formed a Bible Class in her home. The rapid growth of the class led to the organizing of a church.

There are many more stories such as this which tell us of the work of the Bible Society.

We ask the question - How can I help? We can help by reading the Scriptures and spreading the Good News and by making a gift of $5.00 or more you can become a member of the American Bible Society and share in its work of Scripture distribution.

In summarizing - A Bible Society is: An instrument blessed by God for the effective presentation of His word to the world. An instrument whose success depends on the People of God everywhere.

RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

BE IT RESOLVED:

(1) That we express our appreciation to the Moderator, Bro. Everett Marion, for the fine work he has done as Moderator of the Little River Baptist Association.

(2) That we express our appreciation to our Associational Missionary for his labors.

(3) That we express our appreciation to the program committee for their fine work in arranging this years program.

(4) That we express our appreciation to the executive committee which has served the association throughout the year.

(5) That we express our appreciation to Dr. Yoder and the Campbell College Choir for their excellent music program presented in our Morning Worship Service.

(6) That we express our appreciation to our speakers at all the sessions, and a special word of appreciation to Bro. Johnson Gupton, who preached the annual sermon.

(7) That we express our appreciation to all the associational officers for their contribution to the association's work during the year.

(8) We further resolve that we express to Bro. Paul Willis and the Harmony Church our appreciation for having the evening session of our annual meeting.

(9) That we express to Bro. Morris Andrews and the Holly Springs Church our appreciation for their hospitality and the very delicious meal that was served.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT ON EVANGELISM

The main purpose of Evangelism in our Association is to challenge every member of our Churches and all Pastors, as well as other Church and Associational Leaders, to have a Biblical understanding of total evangelism and to practice New Testament evangelism in all areas of life.

Perhaps the most far reaching thing done in our Association this year was The Crusade of the America's Revivals. Thorough preparation was made throughout the Association for this Revival effort. There were two Associational Evangelistic Conferences held: Rev. Harold White, of the Baptist State Convention spoke at one rally and Rev. Jack Wilder of Greensboro spoke at the other. There were about 200 people present for these rallies. There were a number of Pastors retreats, and many local prayer-meetings throughout our Association. The Holy Spirit moved in a wonderful way in our Churches for which we thank God.

There were a total of 23 Churches participating in The Crusade of the Americas this year in addition to an area-wide Revival with Dr. Vance Havner as the Evangelist. From these Churches only ten or eleven sent in reports of their meetings. These report a total of 64 decisions for Christ.

Our N.C. State Division of Evangelism as well as our Associational Department of Evangelism stand ready to assist us through provisions of Evangelism materials and plans on every facet of evangelism in order to discover and to utilize any worthy method to share Christ through a Redemptive message in our Churches and communities.

May each of us study and evaluate the specific needs of our Churches with regard to the involvement in total evangelism for this coming year. We can do so with the assurance that we are doing the will of Christ as He would have us to.

Respectfully submitted,
Robert L. Clark

Buies Creek First Baptist Church has a Mission Sunday School in the Adams-Kinton Home, Route 1, Lillington.

Dunn First Baptist Church has Mission Sunday Schools at the Hinson and Dunn Rest Homes, Dunn, and operates Missions on Route 5, Dunn, (Crestview) and Route 3, Dunn, (Harnett-Johnston).

NEWS OF PROGRESS IN THE CHURCHES

Antioch ordained Arthur Wall for the Gospel Ministry. The church sanctuary is being renovated, and the church began a day care center September 1, 1970.

Baptist Grove paid church debt and burned the note Easter Sunday.

Bethel has built and dedicated a Parsonage.

Buies Creek First ordained John A. Poe, Jr., August 30, 1970.

Duncan bought property upon which to build a Parsonage.

Dunn First began a new Mission on Highway 301 North, three miles from Dunn.

Hillmon Grove dedicated a new Parsonage and called Furman Matthews as Pastor.

Memorial is constructing new buildings.

Neill's Creek dedicated a Mavie Wojcik Memorial Carillon system on Easter Sunday, which was donated to the church. Voted a $20,000 bond issue for purpose of general repairs and renovation of church. Construction will begin in 1971.

Oak Grove added additional educational space.

CONSTITUTION

1. This Association shall be known as "Little River Baptist Association."

2. The object of this Association shall be the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ, and the means of accomplishing this shall be in strict conformity with the principles of the New Testament.

3. The Association shall have no authority over the internal right of any church belonging to it and shall act only as advisory council.

4. The Association shall be composed of messengers chosen by the churches connected with it, each church being entitled to five messengers, plus one additional messenger for each one hundred members or fraction thereof. Ordained ministers having oversight of the churches in the Association shall be received as messengers in addition to any lay members.

5. A quorum shall consist of messengers from a majority of the churches of the Association.

6. The messengers from each church to the annual meeting of the Association shall bear a letter certifying their appointment and giving an account of the condition of the church and a statement of all funds contributed for local and benevolent purposes.

7. The officers of the Association shall be moderator, a vice-moderator, a clerk, and a treasurer, who shall be chosen annually from the messengers composing the Association, and shall continue in office until their successors are elected. The term of the office of the moderator shall begin at the conclusion of the session at which he is elected and continue until the close of the next annual session.

OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES:

8. General officers and Associational Missionary

a. Moderator--The moderator shall preside over all sessions of the Association and the executive committee, preserve order, appoint all committees not otherwise provided for and exercise all other duties of a presiding officer according to the principles of parliamentary usage; he shall also, as far as his private duties permit, visit and communicate with the churches between sessions to promote and encourage the spirit of cooperation and Christian fellowship. The moderator shall not be eligible for more than two, one year, terms in succession.

b. Vice-Moderator--The vice moderator shall assist the moderator and discharge the duties of the moderator in his absence.

c. Clerk--It shall be the duty of the clerk to keep a faithful record of the proceedings of the body, and use all diligence in having same printed and distributed to the churches as soon as possible; to mail to the church clerks forms for the annual letters, and to keep on hand the printed minutes and other information documents belonging to the body. He shall make an annual report to the Association.

d. Treasurer--It shall be the duty of the treasurer to receive all funds sent by the churches or collected during the session of this body and to disburse the same for the objects stated. He shall present a report on all funds received and disbursed by him, quarterly, to the executive committee and at each annual session. The treasurer shall be bonded at an amount of not less than $1,000.00 The books of the treasurer shall be audited at the close of each year at the direction of the Finance Committee.

e. Associational Missionary--It shall be the duty of the Associational Missionary:

(1) To work with and promote Sunday School, Church Training, Brotherhood, Woman's Missionary Union, Music and Evangelism through a strong Associational program.

(2) Work with all churches of the association with the purpose of strengthening the work in each and especially the smaller churches.

(3) Counsel with all churches of the association, where churches desire, in regard to securing pastors, forming church fields, building pastor's homes, retirement, adequate salaries, etc.

(4) Be a counselor and brother to the pastors of the association.

(5) Lead in surveying new areas, and setting up new work, and direct the missions program of the association.

(6) Visit in all the churches each year and preach when invited to do so, to supply in the churches as the pastors invite him to do so.

(7) Seek to find and enlist the strongest leaders in the association program.

(8) Promote teaching and training courses in the local churches and on associational-wide basis.

(9) Encourage cooperation with the denominational program in the association and the churches.

(10) Supervise such special efforts as deacon schools, enlargement campaigns and simultaneous efforts.

(11) Be on the alert for soul-winning opportunities at all times.

(12) To develop work where not in existence, to coordinate work between churches and organizations, to find and develop leadership to keep our work in line with State and southwide work, and to assemble and distribute information pertaining to our associational program.

9. Associational Officers

a. Sunday School Director--It shall be the duty of the Associational Sunday School Director to plan and promote the total program of the Sunday School within the bounds of the association with special emphasis on better Vacation Bible Schools, and a wider participation in January Bible Study and Sunday School Preparation Week. He shall make a quarterly report to the Executive Committee and an annual report to the Association.

b. Church Training Director--It shall be the duty of the Associational Church Training Director to plan and promote the total Church Training Program within the bounds of the association using the special emphasis listed in the Church Training Calendar. He shall make a quarterly report to the Executive Committee and an annual report to the association.

c. Brotherhood Director--It shall be the duty of the Associational Brotherhood Director to promote the total Brotherhood program with special emphasis on enlisting more laymen in the support of the total church program. He shall make a quarterly report to the Executive Committee and an annual report to the association.

d. Woman's Missionary Union Director--It shall be the duty of the Woman's Missionary Union Director to plan and promote the work of Woman's Missionary Union within the bounds of the association with special emphasis on the special missionary effort of the church. She shall make a quarterly report to the Executive Committee and an annual report to the association.

e. Music Director--It shall be the duty of the Associational Music Director to plan and direct the music for all the meetings of the association. He shall seek to stimulate interest in good church music through clinics, study courses, music schools, hymn sings, in the churches and in association wide efforts. Make a quarterly report to the Executive Committee and an annual report to the association.

f. Chairman of Evangelism--The chairman of Evangelism shall promote a vigorous program of evangelism throughout the association, using materials, suggestions, and programs of our state and Southern Baptist Department of Evangelism where possible. He shall upon request, assist churches desiring his help in securing evangelists for revival meetings. He shall plan and direct simultaneous evangelistic efforts in the association when desired. Make an annual report to the association.

10. Committees:

a. Nominating Committee--The Nominating Committee shall be composed of three (3) members, appointed by the moderator at the annual session to nominate all officers of the association except as otherwise provided for in the constitution. This committee shall submit the name of Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, Brotherhood Director, and WMU Director to the executive committee for approval at its July meeting so that they may assist the Nominating Committee in an advisory capacity in nominating a full slate of organizations officers.

b: Program Committee--The Program Committee composed of not less than three (3) members shall be appointed by the moderator at the annual session to plan the program for the next annual meeting of the association. The committee shall make sure that those who are to make reports and others appearing on the program are notified well in advance of the meeting so that they will have ample time to make preparation for such. The committee shall prepare tentative copies of the program to be distributed among the churches and to those appearing on the program prior to the annual meeting.

c. Resolutions Committee--Composed of three (3) members, appointed by the moderator, at the beginning of the first session of the annual meeting, shall draw up and present to the association, resolutions of appreciation and any other resolutions it may deem expedient.

d. Place and Preacher Committee--Composed of three (3) members appointed by the moderator at the beginning of the first session of the annual meeting shall receive or solicit invitations, and shall recommend the place or places. It shall also recommend the preacher and alternate for the Missionary and Doctrinal sermons which shall be given one on the first day and the other on the second day to be alternated from year to year.

e. Missions Committee--Composed of the following associational officers: Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, Brotherhood Director, Chairman of Evangelism, Clerk, Treasurer, and Moderator. This committee shall work with the Missionary in promoting the work of the association, and lead and assist in organizing new churches and in beginning new mission churches. It shall also seek to help any member church desiring assistance with its problems. This committee shall receive application from churches desiring to join the association and make recommendations to the association. When without a Missionary, this committee shall seek out and recommend to the association, or its Executive Committee, a suitable person for this office.

f. Evangelism Committee--Composed of the heads of the associational organizations and the Chairman of Evangelism, shall promote the work of evangelism in the association in cooperation with the association and the State Department of Evangelism. All plans and programs to be subject to the approval of the association or its executive committee.

g. Finance Committee--Composed of three (3) members including the Treasurer shall study the association's financial needs for an adequate program, present a budget to the association for the following year, devise plans for securing the cooperation of the churches in raising funds to meet the budget, and make a written report to the annual meeting. In the event that the treasurer cannot fulfill his duties, the chairman shall be empowered to act and sign checks until such time as a new treasurer is secured.

h. Ordination Committee--Composed of the Moderator and four (4) other members, shall when requested by a member church, assist with the examination and ordination of a candidate for the Gospel Ministry. Each candidate shall be examined as to his Christian experience, call to, and preparation for the ministry, doctrinal beliefs, and attitude toward our denomination and its program.

i. Constitution and Policy Committee--Composed of three (3) members, shall be available to study any changes or revisions in the Constitution, and to make recommendations as needed to keep the Constitution in line with the policies and programs of the association.

j. Calendar Committee--Composed of the heads of the associational organizations, the Chairman of Evangelism, and missionary, shall work out as soon as possible each year an associational calendar for the coming year and present same to the executive committee for adoption.

k. Standing Committee--Composed of chairman of Christian Literature, Chairman on Baptist Hospital, Chairman on World Missions, Chairman on Social Service, and Civic Righteousness, Chairman of Christian Education, Chairman on American Bible Society, Chairman on Children's Homes, Chairman on Homes for Aging, Chairman on Minister's Retirement, Chairman on Evangelism, and Chairman on Memorials.

Their duties shall consist of communicating (personal visitation if possible) and promoting through the churches of the association the work of each institution or agency they represent. They shall make an annual report to the association.

11. The executive board or committee shall be composed of all association officers, the associational missionary (ex-officio), each active pastor, one lay member chosen by each member church from its membership and certified to the association, in its annual report, and chairmen of all standing committees. The Executive Committee shall have the authority to act for the association between sessions, except as limited by the constitution. It shall be the duty of this board or committee to meet quarterly and to make reports and recommendations to the association at its annual meeting. The members present at any meeting of the committee, after all members have been duly notified of such meeting, shall constitute a quorum.

12. The association shall hold an annual meeting commencing on Monday after the fourth Sunday in October.

13. A meeting of the association may be called by the moderator at any time by the consent of five members of the executive committee. Each church shall be notified of such a meeting in time to send messengers.

14. This association shall have the rights to exclude from its membership any church that departs from New Testament principles.

15. Any church desiring to become a member of this association may make application through the Missions Committee of the association. This application must be made at least one month prior to the annual meeting of the association. The church, upon the recommendation of the Missions Committee, shall be received under the watchcare of the Association for one year. In the interim the Missions Committee shall examine the doctrine of the church and the church's acceptance of Baptist witness.

16. The association may invite visitors to seats and extend to them all the privileges of the messengers except that of voting.

17. By appointment, at each annual meeting, an introductory sermon or address on missions shall be delivered.

18. This constitution may be amended at any annual session, by a vote of two-thirds of the messengers present, provided that notice shall be given in the morning of the day on which such motion will be presented.

19. The association shall elect three trustees from the members composing the Association, who shall serve with the Moderator, as the Trustees of the Little River Baptist Association, and whose duty it shall be to take and hold title to the property, both real and personal, owned by the association. The moderator of the association shall serve as a trustee until such time as his successor is elected and qualified.

Proceedings

1. The ninety-fifth annual session of the Little River Baptist Association held its first session with the Broadway Baptist Church, Monday, October 26, 1970. The meeting was called to order by the Acting Moderator, Alvin O' Shields, pastor of First Baptist Church, Erwin, at 7:00 p.m. Norman Wheeler, pastor of Westfield Baptist Church, led the congregation in the singing of a hymn. Rev. Jimmy Mize, pastor of Friendship Church, read a portion of Scriptures and led in prayer. The Acting Moderator recognized Clyde Johnson, pastor of the host church, who extended a cordial welcome to the messengers and visitors.

2. The clerk called the roll of the churches and messengers from thirty-one churches responded. A motion was made that the messengers of these churches, and those reporting later, constitute the ninety-fifth session of the Little River Baptist Association. Motion carried.

3. The report of the Nominating Committee was presented by Alvin O'Shields and on motion by Weldon Johnson, second by Scott Turner, adopted. (See Directory of Associational Officers, page 3)

4. Weldon Johnson moved that Alvin O'Shields serve as Moderator Pro-tem for all periods of this ninety-fifth annual session. Motion carried.

5. The clerk presented the following report from the Missions Committee of the Executive Committee:

The Missions Committee of the Executive Committee of the Little River Baptist Association met Tuesday Night, October 20, 1970, in the Associational Office for the purpose of considering the request of the Fellowship Baptist Church for affiliation with the Association. Representing the Fellowship Church were: Robert West, Glenn Oliver, Joyce Oliver, Irvin Stephens, Philip Spence, Patsy Nobles, Doris Willoughby, and Mildred Phelps. G. Scott Turner, Sr., conducted the questionning for the Association and Mr. West answered for the Church.

Specific questions elicited the following answers:

1. The Church does have a Constitution and By-laws.
2. Although they were not a part of the Constitution and By-laws, Articles of Faith have been adopted by the Church in the opinion of Mr. West and others present.
3. The Church has participated in missions by including mission allocations in the budget.
4. The Church has not been represented at quarterly meetings of the Executive Committee.
5. The Church has an interim Pastor, Rev. Irvin Stephens. A pulpit committee is working to secure a full-time Pastor. The Church has preaching services every Sunday Morning.

Other matters were discussed, including the Church's method of receiving members, attitude toward the Association and Conventions, Church organizations, Church Training, and the possibility of the Church receiving pastoral aid from the Baptist State Convention.

A motion was made by Morris Andrews, seconded by James Brown, that the Missions Committee of the Executive Committee recommend to the Association that the Fellowship Baptist Church be accepted into full fellowship of the Little River Baptist Association. Motion carried unanimously.

The Association accepted the above report and Julius Holloway extended the hand of fellowship to members of the Fellowship Church who were present.

6. The Moderator recognized pastors new to the Association as follows: Randy Godwin (supply), Second Baptist, Dunn; Jimmy Mize, Friendship; Furman Matthews, Hillmon Grove; James Pardue, Lillington; and Wendell Pearson, Bethel.

7. Scott Turner, Program Chairman, presented the program for this annual session and moved that it be adopted as the order of business subject to any necessary changes. The motion carried. (See Program, page 25)

8. Robert West presented the Brotherhood Report for James Brown. J. Edwin Bullock, Secretary of the State Brotherhood Department, spoke to the report. Quoting from Matthew 25, Mr. Bullock brought out that missions is not a matter of geography but what people do for other people. Christ made missions person-centered. Our business is witnessing, and we witness by meeting the needs of people, whether spiritual or material, in Jesus' Name." The 25th chapter of Matthew was directed to all people. The role of the saints is to do the work of the Lord. This is the most important work in the world because Jesus is coming again, Mr. Bullock concluded. (For Brotherhood report, see page 34)

9. Julius Holloway presented his report (see Reports, page 34). Assisting him was Mrs. Joyce Rosser of the Hillmon Grove Church. Mr. Holloway expressed thanks for prayer and financial support of Associational Missions. E.C. Wilkie, of the Baptist State Convention Stewardship Department, was introduced by Tom Freeman. Mr. Wilkie emphasized the Cooperative Program and world missions. He stated that the New Testament view of missions is world-wide. The whole world made Calvary necessary. There must be a literal love for a lost world in each New Testament Church. This is where world missions start. The New Testament Church must take the spiritual resources of lives in its membership and bring each to a mature investment in missions activity through the Church. The gifts given by the Spirit are for the purpose of bringing to maturity Christians, thus qualifying them for the work of ministering (which is missions). Every Christian has deposited in his life something that can be brought to maturity and used for Christ's sake for the blessing and healing of this world. That is the mission of the Church and the method of missions. The world waits on how quickly and how well the Church develops mature Christians who can work and witness for Christ's sake.

10. After the singing of a hymn, Mrs. Walter Gentry gave the Woman's Missionary Union report (see Reports, page 35).

11. Miss Phyllis Thomas, who recently returned from a two-year stay on Guadeloupe Island, French West Indies, as a Journeyman Missionary, gave a very interesting report on Baptist mission work on Guadeloupe. Miss Thomas appeared in the native dress of the island and illustrated her report with many colorful slides.

12. The session was adjourned with prayer by Scott Turner until the second day.

SECOND DAY
Morning Session

1. The second session of the annual meeting of the Association was held with the Bethel Baptist Church Tuesday, October 27, 1970. Moderator Pro-tem Alvin O'Shields called the meeting to order, and Norman Wheeler led in the singing of a hymn. Wendell Pearson, pastor of the Bethel Church, read a portion of Scripture and led in prayer. As host pastor, Mr. Pearson welcomed messengers and guests to the Bethel Church. Thirty-one Churches responded to the roll call.

2. Moderator O'Shields appointed the following committees:

Nominating:	Walter Gentry, Chairman
	Alva Ellis
	Edna Stephens
Program:	Tom Freeman, Chairman
	Jimmy Mize
	Howard Roseman
Resolutions:	J.C. McQueen, Jr., Chairman
	Tommy Wagner
	Mrs. Harvey O'Quinn
Place and Preacher:	Henry Stokes, Chairman
	Lewis Beal
	Henry Rawls

3. Howard Roseman, speaking in behalf of the Little River Pastors' Conference, encouraged all pastors to attend Conference meetings.

4. Scott Turner presented the report of the Executive Committee. Mr. Turner urged each Church to be represented on the committee through the pastor and one lay representative at the quarterly meetings. (See Reports, page 36)

5. Morris Andrews gave the Sunday School report (See Reports, page 37).

6. Walter Gentry presented the Church Training report (see Reports, page 37). Mr. Gentry spoke to the report, calling attention to changes in the program of Church Training. He asked the Churches to include all types of Christian Training in the Church Training Program and report them as such.

7. J.C. McQueen, Jr., gave the Christian Literature Report (see Reports, page 38). The Moderator introduced Mrs. Marse Grant, who brought greetings from Marse Grant and the BIBLICAL RECORDER. Mrs. Grant spoke on the subject, "Time and How We Use It." What do we read as Christians? We should read that which will help us to become better Christians. We should stay informed about what is going on around us today with regard to missions, politics, and conditions at home and abroad. Informed people are concerned people, Mrs. Grant stated. Of the 1,164 Churches which did not support the Cooperative Program, 988 of them did not receive the BIBLICAL RECORDER (speaking of North Carolina Churches alone).

8. Scott Turner presented the Church Libraries report (see Reports, page 38). Mr. Turner encouraged each Church to start a library through assistance of the Sunday School Board. He also called attention to the fact that the Church library is responsible for all educational material.

9. Howard Beard presented several proposed changes in the Constitution. They were as follows:

a. Articles 8e, 9a, 9b, 9c, 9d, 10a, and 10e: change wording to that currently in use throughout the Southern Baptist Convention.

b. Article 4, last sentence:
Change from: "Ordained ministers having oversight of the churches in the Association, or having their membership in these churches, shall be received as messengers."
Change to: "Ordained ministers having oversight of the churches in the Association, shall be received as messengers in addition to any lay members."

c. Article 10e, last sentence:
Change from: "When without a missionary, this committee shall seek out and recommend to the association, or its executive committee, for electing a new missionary."
Change to: "When without a missionary, this committee shall seek and recommend to the association, or its executive commmittee, a suitable person for this office."

Upon motion and second, these changes were referred to the afternoon session.

10. Scott Turner presented the report on Ministers' Retirement. Mr. Turner stated that one-third of our churches in the Association do not have a retirement program for their pastors. He urged these churches to participate in the Annuity Board program. (See Reports, page 39)

11. The Moderator introduced Mr. Harold White, Secretary of the Stewardship Promotion Department, Baptist State Convention, who brought regrets from Mr. Guy Cain that he could not attend and reminded the messengers of two programs for pastors and churches, the Health Benefit Plan and the Retirement Plan. Mr. White read Acts 1:7-8 and stated that in light of the cross our lives are not our own. What is the major responsibility facing North Carolina Baptists today? Two things are necessary if we are to meet the challenges of today. We must deepen our concern. Lack of concern - apathy, - is the most serious problem in North Carolina churches today. We must give ourselves in love to God, which will lead to faithful stewardship. We have the resources; do we have the time?

12. Tommy Wagner presented the Baptist Hospital report (See Reports, page 39).

13. The Baptist Children's Homes report was given by Mrs. Berles Johnson (see Reports, page 40).

14. Floyd Glover presented the Baptist Homes for the Aging report (see Reports, page 41).

15. The Moderator introduced Dale Steele, pastor of First Baptist Church, Burlington. Mr. Steele spoke in behalf of the Social Services Agencies and gave special attention to the Homes for the Aging. He answered questions pertaining to the ministry of these homes.

16. Upon motion and second, the Christian Education report was adopted (see Reports, page 42). Dr. Hugh McKinney, Director of Public Relations, Campbell College, spoke in behalf of Christian Higher Education.

17. The Campbell College Choir, directed by Dr. Paul Yoder, thrilled the messengers and visitors with several fine renditions.

18. After Howard Roseman read from John 3 and led in prayer, Morris Andrews, pastor of Holly Springs Church, brought the annual sermon. Mr. Andrews called attention to conditions in the world today and stated that today's problems can only be solved through the power of the Holy Spirit. We must slow down enough that the "wind of the Spirit" can blow upon us. We must stand in its path. Man cannot control the Spirit; he must be controlled by the Spirit. The results of the Spirit can be heard and seen, just as the wind. We may not know where the Spirit will take us and the church, but we must have confidence in the work of the Spirit.

19. A prayer of benediction and thanksgiving for the delicious meal prepared and served by the Bethel Church was led by James Pardue and the meeting adjourned until the afternoon session.

AFTERNOON SESSION

20. The Moderator recognized Calvin Knight, of the Baptist Hospital, and other visitors.

21. After the singing of a hymn, Randy Godwin, interim pastor of Second Baptist, Dunn, read Ephesians 4:1-8 and led in prayer.

22. Mrs. Wesley McLeod led in a memorial service, paying tribute to members of our churches who died during the past year (see "Our Beloved Dead," page 15).

23. Upon motion and second the Civic Righteousness report was adopted (see Reports, page 43).

24. The Committee on Time, Place, and Preacher brought the following report:
Time of next Annual Meeting, October 25 and 26, 1971;
Place, Buie's Creek, First and Erwin, First;
Preacher, Dr. John Bunn; Alternate, Rev. Alvin O'Shields.

25. The Treasurer's Report was given by Howard Beard, and upon his motion it was adopted. Mr. Beard brought a recommendation from the Budget Committee that Minister's Retirement for the Missionary be increased to $625 so that it will represent 10% of his salary. Motion, seconded and carried, that the proposed budget be amended accordingly. Upon motion and second, the proposed budget, as amended, was adopted by majority vote (see page 18).

26. J.C. McQueen, Jr., brought the report of the Resolutions Committee (see page 43).

27. Recommended changes in the Constitution which were presented in the morning session were considered at this time. Upon motion, second and favorable vote, each of the changes were approved.

28. After the singing of a hymn, Henry Stokes informed the session that Dr. L.H. Campbell was a patient in the Campbell College Infirmary. Weldon Johnson moved that the Association convey to Dr. Campbell our best wishes and prayers. Motion carried.

29. Robert Clark presented the report of the American Bible Society (see Reports, page 44).

30. Upon motion and second, the Evangelism report was adopted (see Reports, page 45).

31. The World Missions report was given by Mrs. Marvin Weaver (see Reports, page 46).

32. Calhoun Johnson, Missionary to Chile, was introduced by Weldon Johnson. Missionary Johnson read part of the Great Commission and stated that the world today offers a great challenge. Jesus alone can meet the challenge through us. People in the troubled world of today need the security which can be found only in Jesus. His Kingdom is an unshakeable one. It is a Kingdom of love, where hatred has no place and sorrow gives way to joy. This is what is attractive to those outside the Kingdom, the joy which is ours in Christ.

33. Morris Andrews called attention to the omission of a Library Director from the list of nominees. Scott Turner was elected to this position.

34. Moderator-elect Howard Beard declared the ninety-fifth annual session adjourned. A prayer of benediction was led by Henry Stokes.

BROTHERHOOD REPORT

The need for Baptist Men in our Association is greater now than ever before. Baptist Men should challenge men with the need for mission work by the church and set forth that need so that every man will see his individual responsibility. Informed, concerned, and involved men can and will make the ministry of their church more effective.

As we visit churches with Brotherhood and Royal Ambassador programs, we find the men and boys becoming more involved in the work for Christ's kingdom among men.

During the past year our Associational workshop for the leaders was attended by 29 men from nine of our churches, which was very good. Many of our men and boys attended the State Brotherhood Convention in Fayetteville. We have some men doing personal witnessing in their church and in other churches when called upon. Several of our Royal Ambassadors spent a week at Camp CaRAway this summer and many of the men had the opportunity of visiting the camp also.

With God's help in the coming year, we hope that we can give assistance to all of our churches in Brotherhood and Royal Ambassador work.

Respectfully submitted,
James B. Brown

REPORT OF THE ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONARY

Several important things have taken place in our Association this year:

1. Shaping the 70's Conference at Lillington Church, February 23 and 24. 221 of our people attended. 31 of our 35 churches were represented in at least one of the conferences. Our leaders spent three days in conferences above the time in their individual study to lead these conferences. I say a big THANK YOU to them.

2. Vacation Bible School Clinic at Harmony Church. 154 people attended these conferences. 25 of our 35 churches were represented at these conferences. Again the leaders spent three days in conferences above the individual study to lead these conferences. THANK YOU to these leaders also.

We hope that when conferences like these and others are planned to help you, more people will take advantage of the help offered.

3. Harnett-Johnston Mission started in June with a Vacation Bible School. 56 enrolled - 36 pupils and 20 workers (including those who served refreshments). Following Vacation Bible School, preaching services were begun. We have averaged about 15 for this. We are meeting in a dwelling located on Highway 301 between Dunn and Benson. It is sponsored by the Little River and Johnston Associations, the Dunn First Church and Benson Baptist Church. George Ware, a ministerial student, is preaching. The Johnston Missionary and I serve alternately as directors. We have a Missions Committee made up of people from Little River and Johnston Associations to guide and help us in making surveys and decisions. We found in the survey over 100 people, mostly adults, not affiliated with any church. Please pray for us as we seek to win them to Christ and enlist them in some church.

4. Miss Phyllis Thomas from Antioch Church returned to the United States on June 1 after spending two years in Guadeloupe, French West Indies, as a Missionary Journeyman under the Foreign Missions Board. She will speak at the Monday night session of our Association.

5. Thank you to those who observed Week of Prayer for Associational Missions August 23-29. We were invited to speak on Associational Missions in five of our churches during August - Thank You. Thank You also for your financial support. I sincerely hope you will seriously consider and accept the financial goal suggested by our Budget Committee. We need to arrange, as soon as we can, to have a full or at least a part-time secretary for the Associational office. Pray about this, too.

6. I would like to say "thank you" for those who participated in the Greater Harnett County Crusade with Bill Glass; those who served as ushers, counselors, choir members, and on committees, prayed, witnessed, and contributed financially. The secretary for the Crusade estimated that 18-20 thousand persons were on hand for the services and that between 8-10 thousand students were visited in the schools and colleges of the area. At this writing, I do not know the number of commitments made.

7. Three men ordained to Ministry: Glen Fasanella, Arthur Wall, John Poe, Jr. Two men were licensed to preach: John K. Faircloth, Jr., E. Kenneth Hairr.

8. The Missionary supplied pulpit 23 times; preached 18 special-day sermons; participated in 5 deacon ordinations, 3 minister ordinations, 5 funerals, 2 weddings, 3 Lord's Suppers; one week School of Missions, Stanley Association; one week at Fruitland with Missions, State, and Southern Baptist Convention staffs; attended 18 state meetings, 9 pastors' conferences, 20 associational meetings, 35 committee meetings; heard 10 professions of faith; led singing 2 revivals; made 20 hospital visits, showed 15 filmstrips; taught 4 mission studies and 1 Sunday School study; spoke at 10 prayer meetings, helped make the survey for the Harnett-Johnston Mission; worked in 4 vacation Bible Schools, baptized 8 persons.

9. The following came as new pastors this year:

Bethel - Wendell Pearson
Dunn Second - Randy Godwin (supply)
Friendship - Jimmie Mize
Hillmon Grove - Furman Matthews
Lillington - James Pardue
Piney Grove Chapel - Gill Goodwin
South Erwin - John Poe, Jr.
Crestview Mission - Benny Wood
Harnett-Johnston Mission - George Ware

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION ANNUAL REPORT

Our watchword for the year 1969-70 was "Our love should not be just words and talk; it must be true love, which shows itself in action. (1 John 3:18)

Christians are admonished to show love, not by hymns and professions alone, but by daily lives. The application of this rule is surprising because of its down to earth practicality. Through Woman's Missionary Union's plan of Mission Action, Christians can show their love as they minister and witness to persons of special needs. Mission Action is a one-to-one ministry - like the ministry of Jesus.

When the occasion arises, Christians ought to show their love, for in so doing, they show themselves to be the children of God.

Our hymn for the year was "Seal us, O Holy Spirit."

Seal us, O Holy Spirit,
Make us thine own from this hour;
Let us be useful, dear Master,
Seal us with witnessing power.

The words of this hymn can become a meaningful prayer for members of Woman's Missionary Union as we endeavor to live the spirit of Christ in belief and relevance day by day.

A Manual study for all age-level WMU Organizations was held at the Friendship Baptist Church, September 15 from 7:00 - 9:30. Around 100 attended with 14 churches being represented.

Our Annual Associational WMU Meeting was held with Westfield Baptist Church, April 14, 1970. 200 people registered from 25 churches. Miss Linda Warren, State YWA Director, was guest speaker for the afternoon session. Rev. Archie Jones, Missionary from Ecuador, South America was the featured speaker in the evening.

The Associational G.A. Rally was held in the Dunn Baptist Church May 16, 1970. Mrs. Calhoun Johnson and her two daughters were our guests.

The Sunbeam Day Camp was held in the Lillington Baptist Church August 5, 1970. 20 boys and girls attended from 6 churches. Miss Marjorie Spence, former Missionary to Chile, was guest speaker.

Four Associational WMU Directors attended the State WMU Workshop at Camp Mundo Vista, Asheboro in September, 1970.

May we hear the voice of Jesus as He speaks to us and may whatever we do be done out of hearts of love.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. W.F. Gentry, WMU Director

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORT

The Executive Committee held regular meetings in January, April, and July. The Committee heard reports from the treasurer and other officers, took such steps as the reports indicated were necessary, and performed other routine but important matters.

The committee was interested and active in cooperating with plans for the Bill Glass Crusade, and also in the organization and work of the new Harnett-Johnston Mission.

Rev. Everett Marion, Moderator of the Association and ex-officio president of the Executive Committee, resigned as he was moving out of the bounds of the Association. The Executive Committee appointed Rev. Alvin O'Shields to serve until the Association, at its annual meeting, elected a Moderator.

The Nominating Committee nominated the following Associational officers:

Morris Andrews, Director of Sunday School
James Brown, Director of Brotherhood
Mrs. Walter Gentry, Director of Woman's Missionary Union
Walter F. Gentry, Director of Church Training

This report of the committee was approved on motion.

Respectfully submitted,
G. Scott Turner, Clerk

SUNDAY SCHOOL

These are exciting days for the ministry of the Sunday School. Many new ideas, new materials, and a new seriousness to our need for Bible study are coming to us through the Sunday School Department of our State and the Southern Baptist Convention. We are aware of the hard work that so many have put into the new Sunday School program, and we are grateful.

Last year, the Little River Association had a Sunday School enrollment of 8,434. The Clinic "Shaping the 70's" was well attended with 221 present. Out of the 35 churches of the Association, 31 were represented at the clinic.

The Vacation Bible School Clinic had an enrollment of 154 persons, and 25 out of 35 churches were represented. The total enrollment for the Association was 2,810. Last year, a Mission Sunday School, the Harnett-Johnston Mission, was started and now has an average attendance of 15. There were 56 enrolled in Vacation Bible School.

For the past 79 years the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention has sought to aid churches in winning people to Christ and educating them in the faith. For all who have eyes to see, there must be a consciousness of the great effort that the people of the Sunday School Board have put forth to write and assimilate the new materials that we are now enjoying.

May God's grace and blessing be upon all of those who share so well the load of responsibility.

Respectfully submitted,
Morris H. Andrews, Sr.

CHURCH TRAINING REPORT

With the beginning of this church year our Church Training Program took on a number of new features. Some of these are as follows: The New Group-grading plan, a Correlated Curriculum for all ages, increased emphasis on short-term training and interest groups, a wider selection of elective training courses, more emphasis on self-instruction, emphasis on scheduling training for certain groups at times in addition to Sunday Evening, flexibility of organization, and improved Achievement Guides. With these new features our churches ought to be more effective in helping church members gain knowledge, understanding, and skills needed in fulfilling the church's mission.

There are three types of training in the New Church Training Program. They are Church Member Training, Leadership Training, and New Member Orientation.

Last year we had our "M" Night service at First Baptist Church, Erwin. There were 16 churches represented with 161 in attendance. Then on February 23 and 24 of this year we had our Shaping of the 70's Clinic with the Lillington Baptist Church in which there were 15 of our churches represented. Our Associational Tournment Night was held at the Antioch Church on the evening of April 6. With the new program, these tournaments will be changed. Information concerning these will be coming out soon.

Remember, "present-day Christians must continue in training if they are to live as meaningful and effective disciples." If we are to make a difference, we must train.

Respectfully submitted,
W.F. Gentry

REPORT ON CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

Literature means "written or printed productions."

Christian Literature is the written or printed works of Christians.

So "Baptist" Literature would be written or printed productions of and by the Baptist people, and other writings approved and recommended by Baptist people.

We understand that people who held to God's word regardless of persecution, trial, and even death, were "nick-named" Baptists, and they were called Baptists not with respect, but even with hatred.

So then we who choose to "walk with God," who are called Baptists, esteem, approve, and recommend the Bible as the supreme literature. It is God's word.

Then all of our other productions in writing and print, if truly Christian and Baptist, are based on God's word in that they are in connection with God's command in His record in Matthew 28:19-20; they give news and information about the work of Christians in the fields of healing (hospitals, and other medical works abroad); caring for those in other material needs (children's homes, Homes for aging, relief and annuity works, etc.); teaching all nations, "Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I (Jesus) have commanded you" (State Mission work, Sunday Schools, Church Training, Home Missions, and Foreign Missions).

The BIBLICAL RECORDER is the journal of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. It helps inform the readers of the Baptist work in North Carolina, and in other places. It is a good thing to get the Recorder into every home.

The CHARITY AND CHILDREN is a publication of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina and gives information concerning the work of caring for the children in the Homes in North Carolina.

The HOME MISSIONS is a publication pertaining to the work of Southern Baptists among people who speak foreign languages, and other minority groups, who live in our homeland.

The COMMISSION is a publication of the Foreign Mission Board, and is especially concerned with the Foreign Missionaries and the work on the foreign fields.

The Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention has many publications available for use in Sunday School, Church Training, Church Music, Brotherhood, W.M.U., the homes, and in general study and reading.

In all of our reading, other than the Bible, we should be careful that the comments, imaginations, and interpretations of the writers not deceive us. If the Holy Spirit does not witness with and to our spirit that it is according to God's word - leave it out of our testimonies and our beliefs. God's word is supreme, holy, and right. Anything out of accord with the Bible is wrong.

In general, we recommend the literature mentioned heretofore in this report. Baptists should have these publications for study, that we might become better informed people, and consequently, more efficient Christians for Christ's sake. "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." (II Timothy 2:15) "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and light unto my path." (Psalm 119:105)

THE ASSOCIATIONAL DEPARTMENT OF LIBRARY SERVICES REPORT

We believe that a good library can play an important part in the work of the churches. A modern church library provides and cares for all media of teaching, such as books, films and filmstrips, maps, pamphlets, etc. According to the latest report available only fourteen of the churches in this association have libraries. We urge that every church in the association start a library and encourage its use by those who attend its services.

The Sunday School Board, in cooperation with other agencies, will give, free, to any church starting a library, a collection of books, films, pamphlets and other library material valued at thirty-five dollars. The requirements for obtaining this free material are very simple. Further information on this offer, or any help he can give in the library work of any church, will be furnished, gladly, by the associational library director.

Respectfully submitted,
G. Scott Turner, Library Director

MINISTER'S RETIREMENT PROGRAM REPORT

Our present civilization has advanced enough that most business firms provide for their employees in case of sickness, old age, and for their dependents in case of death. Surely, Christian churches should make such provision for their faithful pastors and any others who may be employees of a church.

The Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention has several carefully prepared plans for providing this service. But there are twelve of the thirty-five churches in this Association that do not participate in any of the plans of the Annuity Board. That means one-third of the churches of this Association, apparently, make no provision for their pastors in case of old age, sickness, or for their families in case of death. We urgently suggest to the messengers to this meeting that they check and see if their church is participating, and if not, that they please try to lead the church to do so. Surely, a Church composed of Christian men and women should do as much for those who work for them as a worldly business organization!

BAPTIST HOSPITAL REPORT

In obedience to the commands of Jesus to heal the sick, Southern Baptists in North Carolina have sought to combine the finest of medical facilities with the spiritual.

Our Hospital continues to grow. One can see physical growth in the long-range development program which has already seen the completion of the new power plant, the School of Nursing and Allied Health Building, and the additions to the Medical School. The new patient tower is progressing and is expected to be completed by mid-1970.

The quality of patient care is always growing. In the Heart diagnostic center improved equipment is helping the fight against heart disease; some of our most dreaded diseases are being diagnosed and treated by the department of nuclear medicine; a vital service is rendered through the stroke center in treatment of strokes and brain tumors. The attendant responds immediately in the Intensive Care unit to an instrument which measures any variation in a patients heart action and blood pressure.

Admission procedures have been changed by necessary financial crisis the hospital faces. When a doctor reserves a bed for a patient the admissions office contacts the patient to obtain the needed information, including the type and amount of his hospital insurance coverage. After estimating the bill and determining the amount of his coverage, the patient is notified of the difference he is expected to bring when entering the hospital. The estimated cost per day for the average patient is $80.00.

As the Hospital grows, one thing remains unchanged; the determination to care for the needy sick. This has been at the heart of the Hospital's ministry since it opened in 1923. Last year it ministered to 5,225 Service Patients for 47,499 days of care, this in addition to the number served in the Out-patient Clinics. Free care amounted to more than a Million Dollars beyond what these patients, their insurance, and all sponsoring agencies paid. North Carolina Baptists provided $565,000 of this amount, $237,000 through the Cooperative Program and $328,000 through the Mother's Day Offering. To date (January through August) this year 28 of our 36 Churches contributed $3,708.89 to the Mother's Day Fund, thus helping the Hospital keep faith with its purpose.

Mother's Day Offerings have not kept pace with the rising cost and our hospital is running a heavy deficit. If the best is to come from our medical procedures and facilities in fulfilling our mission, we must give our Baptist Hospital additional support.

Respectfully submitted,
Tommy Wagner

BAPTIST CHILDREN'S HOMES REPORT

Under the impact of the life, ministry and teachings of Christ, and under the leadership of the Holy Spirit, North Carolina Baptists in the mid 19th century launched a Christian ministry of child care. In 1885 the Thomasville Baptist Orphanage was established, later to be known as the Mills Home. Through the years five campuses have been developed to provide care for the dependent and neglected child:

Mills Home, Thomasville, N.C.
Kennedy Home, Kinston, N.C.
Odum Home, Pembroke, N.C.
Greer Home, Chapel Hill, N.C.
Wallburg, a group home, Wallburg, N.C.
Broyhill Home, Haywood County, is under construction

Sons and daughters of these homes are scattered all over the world in all walks of life, and are making significant contributions to the uplift of mankind, reflecting credit upon the institution that molded their lives in their formative years.

Baptist child care and family services for Eastern North Carolina are co-ordinated through the office of the Superintendent of Kennedy Home. The main campus located on a 1200-acre farm five minutes west of Kinston, has 12 cottages which accommodate from 10 to 12 children each. Just this month a drama DIAMONDS AND DEEDS was staged at that home, depicting its history and the gifts of Mr. and Mrs. W.L. Kennedy, for whom it is named.

The most exciting development for this section is the TEN STAR BUILDERS PROGRAM which proposes to raise two and one-half million dollars for immediate and long-range expansion of child care and family services in the East. This program will need our wholehearted support. Many people are investing in the future of the Homes by establishing trusts and by means of wills and estate planning for the needs of these children.

The weekly publication "Charity and Children" will keep you informed about the ministry of our Children's Homes. Subscribe to it and then READ IT!

BAPTIST HOMES FOR THE AGING REPORT

God has blessed our Homes for the Aging through all of our nineteen years, and during the past year in a very special way. We acknowledge His goodness and thank Him for every manifestation of His love. We also want to express sincere gratitude to our Baptist people for their increased love and concern for the 195 dear elderly people to whom we are ministering in our five Baptist Homes - Resthaven, The Hayes Home, and Nursing Care Unit, in Winston-Salem; The Albemarle Home, in Albemarle; The Hamilton Home, in Hamilton; and The Yanceyville Home, in Yanceyville.

An urgent appeal was made to our Baptist people before our offering in February to help us reduce the alarming deficit in the operation of the Homes. This plea was heard, and the offering of $168,349.34 from July 1, 1969 through June 30, 1970 from our Baptist Churches has exceeded all other offerings in previous years. Our Churches here in the Little River Association gave $2,176.64.

CHURCH	AMOUNT
Angier	$155.00	Gourd Springs	60.00
Antioch	115.29	Hillmon Grove	18.95
Baptist Grove	17.50	Holly Springs	203.45
Bethel	100.00	Kennebec	17.25
Broadway	12.00	Lillington	253.25
Buies Creek	12.00	Memorial	135.50
Chalybeate Springs	162.50	Neills Creek	35.50
Dunn, First	258.80	Piney Grove	75.00
Dunn, Second	10.00	Rawls	70.00
Erwin, First	325.00	South Erwin	5.17
East Erwin	12.00	Westfield	102.85
Friendship	19.00

How grateful we are for this increase. We want to urge our people, however, to continue giving liberally to our Homes and to remember that we are still confronted with the staggering cost of living and the great need to strengthen the total economy of the Homes as we try to move forward in developing and expanding this vital ministry to the aging. For example, even though our offering reflects an increase over the previous year, this increase will only take care of approximately half of the additional amount necessary in operating the Homes for the coming year, due to inflationary pressures.

Of great interest in our Development Program is a proposed new addition to our present Nursing Care Unit. Judge and Mrs. William M. York, of Greensboro, North Carolina, have offered a gift of $80,000.00 to the Homes for this purpose, contingent upon the Homes raising an additional $80,000.00 by September 1, 1970.

By September 1, 1970 we had raised $60,000.00 and they extended the time until January 1, 1971 to raise the balance of $20,000.00. So this proposal will be fulfilled. Therefore, 10 to 12 additional rooms would be made available with accommodations for 20 to 24 people, and bringing our total nursing care capacity to 80 beds. We appeal to Baptist people to pray for the success of this very special project in the care of our elderly sick.

There is no greater security for an older person than that of the Christian nurture and love offered in our Baptist Homes, and we thank the Lord, and our Baptist people, for this ministry. We shall continue to look to Him, and to our people, on behalf of these to whom Christian love means so much, in the faith that our needs will be supplied.'

Respectfully submitted,
Floyd O. Glover

REPORT ON CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION

On the surface, the future of our Baptist colleges does not look very encouraging. All private colleges today are in a financial squeeze. As tuition costs rise, students are choosing more and more to attend the state-supported colleges. Prophets of doom are saying that the small private college will die out because it cannot compete with the large university for funds, faculty and students. I believe, however, that the future of the truly Christian college is bright, and I expect the progress of the sixties to be matched in the seventies.

Of course, a college does not deserve to survive unless it is really worth saving. And no college that claims to be Christian deserves to survive if it abandons its Christian distinctives. There is a real difference in a secular and a truly Christian college, and this difference is not found in the speeches we hear at conventions, nor in the sermons preached in the churches. It is found in the classroom, where the individual teacher makes his life-changing impact on impressionable students. If it is not really Christian there, it is not really Christian at all.

Christian scholarship is distinguished by the interpretation it makes of teaching materials and by the values it cherishes and the value-judgments it makes. When the classroom teacher, whether an instructor in mathematics or philosophy or religion or anything else, is a commited Christian with a Christian view of God and man, he will teach from that perspective.

The real crisis in Christian Higher Education today is not financial, but rather a crisis of confidence. Parents who do not have confidence in the Christian commitment of the faculty of a college will not readily pay the extra money necessary for their children to be educated there. We may pontificate all we wish about academic freedom, but the members of the churches who give their offerings as an act of worship have a right to expect those who profit from these offerings to be respectful of the churches and reverent toward the faith of the congregations.

While other denominations are having deeply serious problems with their colleges, North Carolina Baptists are showing their confidence in the faculties and the purposes of our seven colleges by pouring upwards of two million dollars in unrestricted funds into the operations of our colleges this year. This is the largest single source of funds in the colleges, outside of student charges. Our colleges can assure the continued generous support in money and student personnel by commanding the confidence of the congregations in the churches.

While not the only objective of our Christian Higher Education program, the training of potential church leaders is vitally important. Last year we had 12,353 students enrolled in our seven Baptist colleges. Of these, more than 600 were dedicated to careers as pastors, missionaries, religious education workers, church musicians and other church-related vocations.

One of the great challenges facing our denominational colleges today is the fact that more and more of our pastors are getting their college education in secular colleges, and relatively fewer of them are being educated in our Baptist colleges. This is a trend that the colleges alone cannot change. It requires special efforts on the part of local church leaders and parents. Let us not hesitate to support our colleges, nor to call them to task for their shortcomings. But, let us do it in a constructive and Christian way, for this is the Lord's work, and we work together with God to accomplish His will in it.

CIVIC RIGHTEOUSNESS REPORT

The concept of civic righteousness has been greatly expanded, in our time by the emergence of new issues and an intensification of the old. Added to the issues of social welfare, alcohol, sexual deviation, racism and the fight against crime and disease have been the new issues of ecology, nuclear weapons, highway safety, abortion, euthanasia and others.

As the issues increase in number and in intensity the answers tend to become more complex. Society tends to find the answers by asking either the utility question, "Is it useful?" or the social question, "Is it good for society?" We as Christians must, however, ask the question, "Is it Christian?" or, "Is it right by Christian ethics?"

Thus, when our society would fight for legislation in favor of liquor interests, Baptists, in the State Convention, Association and local church, answered through the press, letters and sermons, "It is not right!" When asked by the State to join in a fight for highway safety, we responded through the same media to grant the request of our State leaders because we felt it to be "Christian." Because we have deemed it to be Christian, we have supported work with various social institutions. Because we have deemed it to be right, we have supported work with minority groups, through our interracial department and "race day," in our churches. Because we have deemed it unchristian, we have spoken out against alcoholism, drug addiction, crime, and the sex obsession of our day.

Yet, on some issues, we have failed to speak out, and on most issues we have failed to act. It is not for the church to wait until the government or the society presents the issues and the answers. The problems are our problems and it is our responsibility to show that civic righteousness is related to righteousness in Jesus Christ. We must not shirk our duty to show the application of the Christian faith to the moral and social needs of man. If we do, it is at the expense of the good name of Christ in the world.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY REPORT

In this 125th Anniversary year of the Southern Baptist Convention, when Southern Baptists are reviewing the foundations of their work and entering into new plans for the 70's, the American Bible Society appreciates the privilege of serving all forms of Southern Baptist work, around the world. All the work of the Bible Society is founded on these basic missionary principles:

PEOPLE MUST HAVE THE BIBLE because it presents Jesus Christ, the one hope of men and nations. EACH PERSON MUST HAVE THE BIBLE IN HIS OWN LANGUAGE because it speaks to his heart as no other language can speak. THE BIBLE IS THE ESSENTIAL TOOL OF MISSIONS AND EVANGELISM. The missionary uses it in all his work. The Bible itself is a missionary. It can go where the human missionary cannot go. It can stay on after he must leave, and keep on speaking to a person's heart. BUT, THERE IS A WORLDWIDE SHORTAGE OF BIBLES - BECAUSE, IN MOST COUNTRIES, PEOPLE CANNOT AFFORD EVEN THE COST OF PRINTING THE SCRIPTURES.

The American Bible Society is a missionary non-profit organization, serving churches of many denominations at home and abroad. It helps missionaries translate the Bible. It publishes the Scriptures without note or comment. It distributes without profit, usually below cost, and without any charge in cases of special need. For the Blind it supplies Scriptures in Braille and other raised-letter systems, talking Bible records and tape recordings.

During 1969 the American Bible Society -

rejoiced that some part of the Bible has been published in 1413 languages; the full Bible in 244, a Testament in 324 more, a Gospel or other complete book in 845 more. Although there are still many languages in which no part of the Bible has yet been published, at least one book of the Bible is available in the languages spoken by 97 per cent of the world's people.

- gave 2,224,844 Scripture volumes for distribution by Chaplains to our Armed Forces and Veterans' Hospitals, as a vital link between the home churches and the men and women in service. Many of these were supplied for distribution by Southern Baptist Chaplains.
- set new records by distributing 76,216,553 Scripture volumes in the USA and a total of 105,381,103 volumes in over 800 languages, in 150 countries. The year's combined distribution by all the Bible Societies of the world totaled 145,335,092 volumes. This was 1 copy for every 24.5 people in the world - and gave continued evidence that the worldwide population explosion is being overtaken by a Scripture distribution explosion.

In 1969 Southern Baptist Churches gave $232,765 to the American Bible Society and ranked first among all denominations. Gifts from all churches in the U.S.A. totaled $1,361,700.

Although Southern Baptists lead in total gifts, the PER CAPITA gift is only a little over 2 cents per year - and the per capita gift from several other major denominations is larger.

Has your church given this year? Here are suggestions, based on what many churches are doing:

EVERY CHURCH can give AT LEAST these amounts EACH YEAR:

Smaller churches	$ 10	to	$ 60
Larger churches	$ 60	to	$300
Great city churches	$300	to	$600 or more

Please send gifts to your Baptist state office marked "for American Bible Society."

Respectfully submitted,
Robert L. Clark

REPORT ON EVANGELISM

The past year has seen a continued leveling off of the number of baptisms in our Southern Baptist churches, and yet we have come into the decade of the seventies with some indications that this might be the time of a great up-turn to the work of evangelism. Only four years in our history have we baptized 400,000 or more persons in a year. The last time was 1961.

But, there have been significant happenings in 1969 to give us hope that we may be entering a time of greater evangelism among our Baptist people. One of these is the increasing emphasis on evangelism by laymen, person-to-person witnessing. This is one of the emphases of Kenneth Chafin, new Secretary of Evangelism for Southern Baptists. Another is the emphasis on a wide variety of methods of reaching and witnessing to people. Another is the emphasis on youth evangelism. New materials are being made available to pastors and churches through the Division of Evangelism of the Baptist State Convention.

Among the churches there is a trend to shorter revival meetings. Many are experimenting with week-end meetings of three days, or with half-week series running from Sunday through Wednesday. But, there is still a great interest in and response to area-wide crusades of evangelism. During this year Billy Graham has preached in some crusades with remarkable results.

In his Euro '70 Crusade, he preached in the 13,000-seat Westfalenhalle in Dortmund, West Germany, and, through closed-circuit television and the help of translators, to people in 36 cities in 11 European countries. All of the meeting places had a combined seating capacity of 110,000, and yet on two of three "youth nights" there were 124,000 and 127,000 present. It was one of the most amazing expressions of interest in and response to the Christian Gospel in history. There were nearly 16,000 persons who walked forward to commit their lives to Jesus Christ, and filled out commitment cards. There were 11,000 counselors to help them.

Graham's crusade in Newland Stadium in Knoxville, Tennessee, and the one in Shea Stadium in New York City, were attended by more persons than could have been seated in any building in the nation, and the response in commitment of lives to Christ was very great. One of the striking things about these crusades is the fact that the over-whelming majority of those attending and making decisions are young people.

I believe the future of evangelism is bright. I believe Baptists will be wise enough to realize that our strength is in our concern for the winning of persons to faith in Christ. And, I am convinced that we will continue to find new ways of reaching and getting the message of Christ to the people. The world can be changed if people are changed.

When the opponents of our Christian forefathers in the first century dragged them before the civil authorities, they said, "These men who have turned the world upside down have come here also." (Acts 17:6) The truth was that they were busy turning the world rightside up. This is still our mission. May the soaring seventies be our greatest decade in the service of Christ. May every pastor, every Baptist, every church be involved in a dynamic way in the work of New Testament evangelism.

Tom M. Freeman

WORLD MISSIONS REPORT

Evangelical Christians today are being severely criticized for holding that there is only one way of salvation. The term the critics use to describe the evangelical position is "particularism." They say that to preach redemption through Christ alone is narrow, bigoted, and selfish. However, the main body of Christians has always firmly held that Christ alone is the way to God. This is authentic New Testament Christianity. The critics fail to recognize how firm a foundation exists for preaching and teaching that no one but Christ can save. Jesus said: "I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." (John 14:6).

Christ gave himself to redeem all men. No one else had ever done so; no one else has ever done so. What Christ did at Calvary at a given moment in history was the perfect expression in time of that which had been in the heart of God from all eternity. No one but Christ could have done it. He, therefore, is the only means of redemption for the entire human race. He is the world's only hope, because he alone is the world's redeemer. It is Christ or nothing. Such is God's plan.

The call of the world's need and the call of a loving Christ constitute a mighty imperative. Because Christ is mankind's only hope, commited followers are under inescapable obligation to bear faithful witness concerning his saving power to all the world.

Southern Baptists have boldly launched a worldwide missions venture. With missionaries assigned to seventy-two countries, Baptists have extended what Jesse Fletcher calls, "a long thin line of faith around the world." Having responded to the call of GO into a record of twenty-six countries in the past decade, missions advance in the 70's will answer the call of COME from the villages, the cities, and the out-of-way places that make up the countries previously entered. Emphasis will be placed upon depth penetration of these countries. The call of COME is sounded with urgency in specific requests from the Missions now in operation.

At the close of 1969 the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board had an overseas missionary staff of 2,490. This included 153 missionary associates, 4 special project nurses, and 128 missionary journeymen.

At the end of 1969, reports from the Missions (organizations of Southern Baptist missionaries) totaled 5,303 churches, (3,821 self-supporting), 7,375 mission points, and 4,574 national pastors. Also reported were 54,994 baptisms and 631,259 church members. Mainland China, closed to missionaries since 1951, was last estimated as having 392 churches, with 123,000 members, related to Southern Baptist mission work. The 758 schools (in 43 countries) with which our missionaries are related enrolled 93,005 students and were staffed by 3,150 national and 460 missionary teachers and administrators.

Twenty-seven publication centers overseas and at El Paso, Texas, produced over 29 million pieces; tracts, books, periodicals, Bibles, hymn books. Staffing these centers were 83 missionaries and 591 national workers.

Medical institutions in which Southern Baptist missionaries serve included 21 hospitals and 92 clinics and dispensaries, with a total of 1,538 beds. During 1969 the Foreign Mission Board provided emergency funds for the relief of human distress in Nigeria and Vietnam and in Chile where a severe drought brought much suffering. Forty-six good-will and community centers were in operation in 1969, reaching people in varied ways.

Total contributions of Southern Baptists for foreign missions amounted to $31,005,797 as 1969 closed (a per capita gift of $2.70). The 1969 Lottie Moon Christmas Offering had reached a total of $15,297,558 by May 1, 1970.

On the home scene, the Southern Baptist missions venture had gradually developed from outreach in a limited number of states in the southeastern portions of the nation to a nation-wide penetration. Both conservation and expansion will be a part of missions advance in the 70's on the home scene. Careful to preserve missions outreach where work is presently strong, Southern Baptists must move toward expansion in three major areas: (1) new churches, (2) ministries to persons in special need, and (3) a constant emphasis on evangelism.

The Home Mission Board is observing its 125th anniversary year with gratitude to God for his favor and appreciation to Southern Baptists for their support during the past century and a quarter.

Though society has changed drastically and the contemporary scene is often disturbing, the Board's basic task remains unchanged - Our Land for Christ.

Crusade of the Americas rallies were conducted in thirty-seven major metropolitan areas in cooperation with the Sunday School Board. The Association Witness Training Institute was held in 535 associations involving six thousand churches.

Southern Baptist churches reported 368,225 baptisms for 1969. Out of this number 69,359 were reported through the Home Mission Board.

In spite of the lack of adequate funds, there were 370 new missions and 97 new churches reported for 1969.

The Home Mission Board appointed 585 new missionaries, bringing the total number of missionaries to 2,235. Need for missionaries - 1970 - 316.

Ministering to all people as in the New Testament, a ministry is provided for the total person through Baptist Centers, Literacy Missions, Migrant Missions and Youth and Family Services.

The Board is grateful for another year of increased financial support. The Cooperative Program, its basic ongoing source of support, reached almost $5.5 million last year; the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering passed $5 million for the first time.

State Missions is the compassionate concern of a people called Baptists, for people in need. Does your concern cause you to pray for State Missions, to lead your church to share part of your offering each week through the Cooperative Program, and to give a Love Offering through State Missions on the third Sunday in September?

The very pattern of Associational Missions is founded on the New Testament. Early church activity set the precedent that may be followed by present-day associations as they carry out their functions of service to the churches. The beginning of all missions is in the local church and the base for cooperation of churches in their missionary endeavor is the Association.

The Commission of Christ to GO and the worldwide call of COME is directed to all of us. Each one has the option of responding on one to three levels. He may pray for answers to specific needs; increase offerings so that more personnel may go; volunteer for missions appointment by either the Foreign or the Home Mission Board; or participate in mission action projects through the mission organizations of the church. church.
